STEADILY WINNING

Miners Are Gradually Deserting the Pittsburg Coal Fields.

DECLARE VICTORY IS AT HAND.

Operators Show No Anxiety for the Men to Return to Work.

HAVE LARGE SURPLUS SUPPLIES

Campers March From Mine to Mine Inducing Diggers to Come Out.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG (Pa), Aug. 4.—The striking miners gained another victory at Plum Creek this morning by inducing twenty more diggers to join in the ranks. This leaves the mine working with about half the force of yesterday. Committees are working industriously in the houses of the miners. They first enlist the sympathy of the women and when the men are easily induced to follow.

The strikers are turning their attention entirely to the diggers, knowing if they come out the other employes will be forced to follow.

The New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Company claim that all the Plum Creek miners are working, while the strikers say that not more than forty men are in the pit. The full force of the mine is 340 men. When the campers came the output was from 120 to 140 cars a day. This was about forty cars above the average when the other mines are working. The output yesterday was 30 cars. With 20 more men out to-day the output is not expected to exceed 20 cars. The complete closing of the mine may be expected in a few days.

The march to Plum Creek mine was commenced at 1 o'clock this morning by the campers at Center school house. They were re-inforced by large bodies from Sandy and Turtle Creek. The combined forces arrived at the mine at 8 A. M., remaining until 6 o'clock when they marched back to camp, taking with them in triumph the 20 diggers who came out.

The campers at Sandy Creek had little to do. The mine is to all intents and purposes shut down. The output is not more than two cars a day. The capacity of the mine has been 100 cars a day. The normal output with the three mines in operation is seventy cars.

There has been no change so far at Oak Hill. A statement made by the miners that only two men were working may be true. In that case the output of eight cars claimed for Monday and Tuesday will be decreased to one car. The extraordinary capacity of the mine is 120 and the normal capacity 90 cars.

The demonstration against De Armitt has had the effect of decreasing the capacity of 340 cars to 42 cars with the probability of it being further reduced.

The campers at Turtle Creek were on the march at 3 A. M. and went to the Oak Hill mine. They marched back at 6:30 A. M. and had breakfast. Camp life has been reduced to a system. One hundred men were sent to Plum Creek and 300 sent home, leaving 600 men in camp. They have divided into companies of 100 each under a lieutenant. Provisions seem to be plentiful. The camp will be policed by strikers as no tough police.

The hearing of President Dolan and the other miners' officials charged with riot and unlawful assemblage is set for 2 o'clock this afternoon. The case will be dropped by the defendants giving bail for court and nolle prosse being entered later.

One of the notable features of the strike of the miners has been the absence of effort by the operators to get their mines to work. There has been no meeting by them to consider the situation, nor have there been any attempts to stop new men. This is explained to-day by an operator who said he is satisfied to have the strike continue until January as he has enough coal to last him or can get it at prices which will enable him to make profit. The lower river markets are reported to be well stocked with Pittsburg coal and by reason of almost continuous navigation from January until July large stocks have been accumulated in the New Orleans, Louisville and Cincinnati markets and no coal but that of water can be expected now before November.

Some of the railroad companies have plenty of coal, the producers claiming to have not less than 200,000 tons available for his contracts and others can buy coal at a price almost as low as they can produce it. Ruling prices are 75 cents f. o. b. cars and shipping point for run of the mine and $1 to $1.25 for screen coal.

The funeral of Clark G. Addison, the son of Dr. Thomas Addison, was held at the home of his father in Berkeley this morning, and was largely attended. The remains were interred in Mountain View Cemetery.

STRIKE LEADERS ARE LOSING COURAGE.

In West Virginia the Miners Are Not Disposed to Keep Out of Work.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 4.—Except in the Fairmont region, where J. W. Rae and Joseph Wood appear to be making some headway the strike leaders are losing courage. The strike in the Kanawha Valley is a failure thus far, while in the New River region there has been but little to lend encouragement. On the Norfolk and Western there is nothing to indicate that a strike was ever ordered.

Miners day, tomorrow, is looked forward to with the hope that it may effect a change, especially in the Wheeling district, where so much was expected and so little accomplished, all the miners but fifty being at work again.

The disorder at Corinth last night leads to the fear that serious trouble may follow an attempt to arrest the foreigners who were mixed up in it.

There is a feud between the Italian and Hungarian miners and since they have taken opposite sides in the strike they are decidedly dangerous.

MINES AGAIN CLOSED DOWN AT REDSTONE.

Coal Jumps Quickly to a Dollar a Ton and Will Increase.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 4.—The miners at Schmick's mine on the Redstone branch of the Pennsylvania road came out today and the mines are once more closed down. When the news was received in this city the price of coal jumped to $1 a ton and brokers said prices were likely to advance to $1.50 before next week.

President W. P. DeArmitt of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Co., says his men are not on strike and not in sympathy with the movement. "They have been intimidated," he said, "and I have no doubt all would return to work if the strikers encamped at the different mines were withdrawn."

RHODES SAYS IT IS "ALL NONSENSE."

Did Not Pay the Government of the Transvaal a Large Indemnity.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—B. F. Hawkesley, counsel for Cecil Rhodes, in an interview today declared that the report circulated by the Morning Post of this city that Mr. Rhodes and Alfred Beit, the former resident director at Cape Town of the British South African Company, had personally paid the Transvaal Government £250,000 as indemnity for the raid of Dr. Jameson and his followers into the Transvaal in December, 1895, is "all nonsense."

FRANCE IS FEELING THE NEW TARIFF.

Will Ask the President for a Big Reduction in Return for Favors.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PARIS, Aug. 4.—The Gaulois today publishes an interview with the Minister of Commerce, M. Boucher, in which he is quoted as declaring that it should not for a moment be doubted that President McKinley will spontaneously grant to France twenty per cent tariff reduction as permitted by the Dingley bill.

M. Boucher is reported to have added: "It is, of course, only on this condition that France will continue to grant the United States the custom concessions arranged as a quid pro quo for the economic advantages which have now disappeared. In asking for this reduction France will cite the favors accorded to imports of the United States and Illinois legislation enabling American insurance companies to operate in France in competition with the home companies."

RAIN WORTH MANY THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS.

Breaking of the Drought in Illinois in Time to Save Crops.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—The drought was broken this morning, the rainfall varying from half an inch to an inch and a half. Along the Burlington line the rain was heaviest where it was needed worst. Reports received at the general office say that the rain came just in time to save the corn crop. While some corn had been slightly damaged, the indications now point to an enormous crop. The rain was worth many thousands of dollars.

A Vaudeville Artist and a Cab Man Use Pistols With Freedom.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Alexander L. James, who claims to be a vaudeville actor, and E. J. Curtis, a cab man, fought a duel with revolvers at short range in Wabash avenue early this morning.

James received a shot in the forehead and Curtis was severely wounded in the side.

LIVELY BUSINESS IN THE STOCK MARKET.

Substantial Rally at Noon and Top Figures Reached in Many Properties.

Wheat at San Francisco Remains Firm at a Substantial Price.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The bullish feeling was again in the ascendency at the opening of the Stock Exchange today.

The leading railway shares rose a fraction all around on animated dealings. The industrials were stronger, sugar improving ¾. Northern Pacific stocks opened slightly off, but soon recovered.

The stock speculation assumed a more buoyant tone after the opening, the improvement extending to all departments. The grangers were heavily dealt in and a good demand was evident for some of the usually inactive Southwestern shares. The volume of trading was large. Sugar and Chicago gas gave way sharply on profit taking, but soon recovered.

Steady reelizing orders, coupled with vigorous attacks by the bear faction, depressed some stocks below yesterday's close, sugar and Chicago gas being the chief sufferers. The execution of heavy commission house orders at the low level and inside purchases caused a substantial rally during the fifteen minutes preceding midday in which top figures were reached in a number of shares. New York Central rose 1¾. Gains of 1½ to 2 per cent were also made in the less active stocks including Erie.

The bond market participated in the general strength with trading heavy. The speculative issues were in most request and were helped by foreign purchases.

The body was badly decomposed and was beyond recognition. It was dressed in a yachting costume.

As the East Brothers' Lighthouse is in Alameda County, Coroner Baldwin will hold an inquest on the remains.

He will send a deputy for them this afternoon.

Indianapolis Tries to Secure the Meet at That City in 1898.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 4.—The visiting wheelmen to the big L. A. W. meet were astir early this morning and were soon in complete possession of the asphalt streets, suburban roads and park drives. As the day set apart for racing approach the registration of visitors indicates that the meet of 1897 far exceeds that of any previous year.

When the registration ceased last night more members had registered than during all the days of last years' meet. At 7 o'clock this morning the doors of the headquarters were thrown open and the work of registration continued. The arrivals today were even far in excess of yesterday.

They were met by reception committees and the local leagues were at the depots and greeted the visitors.

Ex-Chairman Howard E. Raymond, of the racing board, was one of the first to arrive and was soon in conference with last year's chairman, Geo. Gideon. Albert Mott of Baltimore, the present chairman held a consultation with Thomas Hale, chairman of the executive committee of the meet and A. B. Powell, official handicapper for this district. The list of entries was carefully gone over and the record of each man in the amateur ranks examined. By tonight nearly all of the racing men will be in town. The Asbury Park races yesterday detained most of them, but Bald, Kise, Johnson Cooper, Sanger, Tutler, Mertens, Stevens Hamilton and many others, amateurs as well as professionals, are expected tomorrow morning.

The major portion will locate near the track at Willow Grove, about fourteen miles from Philadelphia, and spend tomorrow in preparation for the trials of Friday and Saturday.

The meet was formally opened this morning with a run to Andorra Nursery and return, a distance of about ten miles, through one of the most beautiful sections of the city. This afternoon the visitors were given a run out Lancaster Pike past the country homes of many of Philadelphias wealthiest citizens.

The wheel women from other cities are being looked after by a ladies auxilliary committee. Headquarters have been secured in the Odd Fellows Temple and every care and attention is being given the fair riders. Tomorrow night a reception and lunch will be given at Belmont Mansion in Fairmont Park in their honor.

The Indianapolis contingent are sparing no effort to make sure of next years meet. A delegation with Mayor Taggart and Postmaster Schmidt at its head has headquarters at the Hotel Walton and it is open night and day.

So far the visitor who has traveled the farthest to attend the meet is G. H. Clapp. He came all the way from Johannesburg, the capital city of the South African republic.

ANDREW'S FINANCIAL VIEWS DISLIKED.

Will Have no Chance to Return to Presidency of Brown University.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW HAMPTON, N. H., Aug. 4.—Congressman Joseph H. Walker, of Worcester, who is a member of the Board of Trustees of Brown University and to whose opposition to the public utterances of President Andrews on the subject of free silver the recent resignation of Dr. Andrew is attributed, admits that he started the agitation and says that in his opinion there is no chance that Dr. Andrews will be permitted to remain or to reconsider his resignation.

In answer to queries by an Associated Press correspondent Mr. Walker, who is spending the summer at his stock farm here, stated today that he personally started the trouble at Brown, at a meeting of the corporation of the university last June. This was done because the utterances of President Andrews were at variance with the views of the corporation on the question of a national financial policy.

Mr. Walker said: "Nothing was said or done at the meeting of trustees that was not clearly within the line of duty on the part of every member of the board and everything was said and done with a feeling of the warmest friendship for Dr. Andrews. There was not in the mind of a solitary member of the board the least idea of abridging President Andrews in thought or private utterances on silver or any other question. The corporation did not demand Mr. Andrews' resignation. It sought a friendly conference with its chief executive officer. That is all. In turning from the corporation, every one of whom was his friend, to the public and taking the position he has, by himself and by the position of the faculty, I cannot see how by any possibility the relations which must necessarily exist between the president of the university and the corporation can be re-established."

Congressman Walker declared in closing the interview that Dr. Andrews has taught other things than silver which were thought to be detrimental to the progress of the university. His position on the wage question, Mr. Walker said, is bad.

DISASTROUS BLAZE IN A CHEMICAL FACTORY.

The Burning Material Badly Injures a Number of Firemen.

Assistant Engineer's Clothing Burnt Off and He Will Probably Die.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

Co., importers and distillers of coal tar and manufacturers of roofing, did damage amounting to $100,000 before it was gotten under control.

The fire originated in the big distilling house and is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of distilled oil. The stilling house and the valuable machinery were totally destroyed. Other buildings located near the burned structure were badly damaged by flames.

Seven firemen and two workmen were seriously burned by an explosion which occurred shortly after the fire broke out. Assistant Engineer Chas. McDaugh had all of his clothing burned off and is probably fatally injured.

REST AND SLEEP IN THE TOMB.

The Remains of R. W. Martin Laid Away at Mountain View.

The remains of the late R. W. Martin, son of J. West Martin, who died on the Martin ranch near Livermore on Monday last, were tenderly borne to the tomb this morning, by sympathetic friends, the funeral taking place from the family residence, 720 Fourteenth street.

The services were of the simplest character possible, consisting of those of the Episcopalian Church, which were conducted by Rev. Mr. Maynard of St. John's.

There were present only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends of the deceased.

There were several tributes of flowers from admirers and these occupied a place on the lid of the casket.

At the close of the exercises, the remains were placed in the family plot in Mountain View Cemetery.

The deceased was well known throughout the State and the grief which his death has occasioned the surviving members of the family evoked widespread sympathy and condolence, which were symbolized by hundreds of letters and telegrams which have come from all sections.

YELLOW FEVER.

Fear Is Expressed That Sailors Will Catch the Disease.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—In his last report to the Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital service, Dr. Bruner, Sanitary Inspector for the service at Havana, dwells upon the probability of a rapid increase of yellow fever among the Spanish sailors.

He says that up to recent date there were no cases among the sailors of the Spanish navy, but that lately several have appeared. He attributed this to the fact that some of the warships have gone to the Navy Yard, which is in close proximity to the military hospital.

"There are," he says, "seven or eight war vessels now in the harbor and the harbor complement must aggregate 1,500 men, many of whom, I learn, are not acclimated. This being true, they will be doubly exposed to the danger of contracting the disease, being in close proximity to the worst infected wharves of the city."

He said that the reports from the military hospitals show that fever is decreasing. Dr. Camerino, inspector at Santiago says there are 2,000 Spanish soldiers sick there of various diseases.

A New Feature of the Race Trouble in the South.

EIGHT HUNDRED ARE AFFECTED.

Mills Have Been Forced to Close Until a Settlement Is Reached.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ATLANTA, Aug. 4.—Two hundred women and girls employed at the Fulton Bag and Cotton Mills in this city struck this morning because of the employment of negro help by the management. The operatives learned yesterday that twenty-five colored women were to be put to work in the folding department today.

The white females employed in the mills gathered about the main entrance this morning and awaited the arrival of the president, Jacob Elsas.

The negro women were already there. When Mr. Elsas came, the white women asked whether it was true that he proposed to put negroes to work with them. He said he did, and the white women refused to go to work.

At noon the 400 men employed in the mills walked out in obedience to the orders of the textile workers union and in sympathy with the striking female operatives.

This forced the closing down of the factory. Strikers gathered about the mills and for a time it looked as if there would be a riot.

The company is one of the oldest and largest in the south. Eight hundred men, women and children are affected by the strike.

WOMEN FIGHTERS

PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—The strikers are slowly winning their points about the DeArmitt mines. They have already practically closed the Sandy Creek and Oak Hill mines and the Plum Creek men are coming out in small bodies.

The marchers claim they have succeeded in inducing those of the miners who live at Coalport, where the Plum Creek tipple is located in joining the ranks. This reduces the number of men in the mine to fifty. The Plum Creek miners living at Center, near the pit mouth entered the mine, some of them in the usual way, and others through an opening that was not guarded. There are 350 men near the mine and as soon as possible a large tent will be procured for them to sleep in. They have a brass band and this morning their larder was added to by a wagon load of provisions. The success of the campers in bringing out the Coalport miners has elevated the spirits of the men and made them more positive of victory.

At 4 A. M. they left camp and went to the main entrance of the mine, leaving the Center pit mouth unguarded through which most of the diggers at work passed. It being impossible to induce the men to come to the meetings, the campers had a committee to call at the houses of the miners to talk over the situation, with the families. Good results are expected by the committees.

The miners in camp near Sandy Creek began the march at 3:30 A. M. and took position near the pit mouth. They were elated by seeing only three men go in. They could not tell, however, whether they were diggers or day men. No matter what they are, the strikers point out the fact that the men can dig but little coal.

The Turtle Creek campers, numbering 2,000, divided into two bodies at 1 A. M. One party stopped at Newtown and the other continued up the road until they came to the pit mouth. They remained until 6 o'clock when being satisfied that but a few men entered the mine, they returned to camp where a breakfast was waiting. There is no scarcity of provisions. Liberal donations are being continuously received. Turtle Creek merchants are doing all they can to feed the men, but to satisfy the hunger of 2,000 men is not an easy task. The leaders are considering the question of thinning out the camps. The men were pleasantly surprised this morning, when a dozen women, half of them with their children, walked into camp. They are the wives of miners and said they had come to stay as long as their husbands and brothers were there, and would cook. They were given three cheers.

President Dolan expressed himself that the miners strike would be over, two weeks after DeArmitt's mines are closed.

The total output of the Oak Hill yesterday was eight cars and it will be less today as only four men are at work. When running full time the capacity is equal to 150 cars. The new men are not at work now, Dolan having found a way to keep them out. These men it is claimed, were Italian laborers on the Pittsburg, Bessemer & Lake Erie Railroad and were promised 25 cents more a day. Dolan learned where they were boarding and sent his men there to sleep. They induced the Italians to return to work on the railroad.

A WOMAN FIGHTS.

A Hungarian miner was attacked by a woman this morning as he was entering the pit at Plum Creek. The Hungarian had ventured alone in the pit. There were no deputies guarding him, and just as he was congratulating himself that the strikers had not tried to stop him, found himself face to face with a miner's wife. She had a rock in each hand.

"For shame," she shouted. "You dirty black leg, that you are. Go home and let these men win the strike. Now go."

Then the woman raised a rock and the Hungarian attempted to dart past her. As he ran the woman threw the first rock. It grazed past his right cheek. The Hungarian howled, ducked and dived and ran toward the pit mouth. Then the second rock sailed after him, but went wide of the mark.

As the Hungarian doubled his speed the woman gave chase and she soon caught up to the cowering coal miner and caught him by the neck. Before she had time to hit him, six strikers ran forward and made the woman release her captive. They had to hold her until the Hungarian was in the mine. As he disappeared she shouted out to him that she would be waiting for him when he left the mine.

Not all of the miners wives acted as this one had done. Two of them were seen going to the pit with dinner buckets in their hands. A short time later they were seen returning from the mine with two other buckets.

It was learned that the husbands of these women are in the mine and are afraid to leave. They prefer to sleep in the pit to running the gauntlet of the strikers to go home. Their wives supply them with food, carrying it to them in dinner buckets.

IRON STRIKERS ARE DETERMINED.

They Do Picket Duty and Have a Cannon Ready for Action.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., Aug. 3.—The strike situation at Scottdale Iron and Steel Company's plant is unchanged. No new men have been brought in since Saturday.

It is said that an agent of the company left for the East this morning to engage new men and as soon as they commence to arrive trouble is looked for.

Last night councils empowered the Burgess to arrest all persons in any way interfering with the non-union men. It is thought this will have the effect of keeping the sheriffs' deputies out of town and thus prevent a conflict between the borough officers and the sheriff.

A report that a number of persons had secured a cannon and had planted it on the hill which overlooks the mills, caused considerable uneasiness in the mill last night, but those in charge of the cannon say it was not taken out last night.

Sheet mills are in operation, but how much or what kind of work is being done, could not be learned from the officials of the mill.

The strikers who have been on picket duty say that very little marketable iron is being made.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG (Kas.), Aug. 3.—The coal miners at the Western Coal and Iron Company's No. 4 shaft are on strike, the company having discharged the union check weighman and the miners refusing to name another man to succeed him, pending a meeting of the union. It is thought the trouble will be adjusted.

The miners at the Weare Coal Company's No. 5 shaft, who struck on Saturday last, pending settlement of their grievances, held a meeting last night and voted to return to work to-day. Their grievances will be discussed at a conference of miners and operators on Friday next.

ANOTHER CLAIMANT AFTER PALMYRA.

The British Claim Will by Contested by a Honolulu Citizen.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The steamer Belgic brings the news that the right of the British government to take possession of Palmyra Island is to be disputed.

Luther Wilcox, of Honolulu, declares that the Island belongs to himself, Fred Wudenberg and William Kinney. They secured their right from the Pacific Navigation Company, which purchased the island from the Hawaiian Government.

The government in turn acquired its right through the discovery and colonization of the Island by Captain Benton in 1862.

Farmers Are Sad.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 3.—With the thermometer recording ninety-nine in the shade again today and with no sign of rain, farmers are becoming more discouraged. The outlook for corn in many places is not bright.

The backward spring and consequent lateness of planting makes the drought more disastrous.

A SHORT ROUTE TO THE CLONDYKE.

A Salem Engineer Forwards a Report to the Interior Department.

Some Detail of a Pass Over the Mountains Not Fully Explored.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

There is a short and easy route to the rich gold fields of the Clondyke, according to a communication to the Interior Department, from J. M. C. Lewis, a civil engineer of Salem, Oregon, who says he can open up at a small expense a route from the south of the Copper river, by which the Clondyke may be reached by a journey of not much more than 300 miles from the coast.

The route which he proposes will start inland from the mouth of the Copper river, near the twenty mile glacier, about twenty-five miles east of the entrance to Prince William Sound. He says the Copper river is navigable for small steamers for many miles beyond the mouth of its principal eastern tributary called on the latest maps the Chillina river, which is itself navigable for a considerable distance. From the head of navigation on the Chillinia Mr. Lewis says either a highway or a railroad could be constructed without great difficulty or very heavy grades, through which the natives call "Low Pass" probably the Soloi Pass. From this pass the road would follow the valley of the White river to the point where it empties into the Yukon on the edge of the Clondyke gold fields.

George F. Becker, in an unpublished report made to the geological survey of his investigation in 1895 of the coastal districts, says that most of the islands of the Alexander Archipelago contain gold deposits, yet unworked, that would probably repay very handsomely well directed efforts of placer mining. There are deposits in the neighborhood of Sitka and generally on Baronoff and Admiralty Islands and the beaches of the adjacent mainland. Another fairly promising region is in a group of deposits on the Kenai Peninsula on the southeast shore of Cook Inlet and at Yakutat bay and the beaches of Kadiaki Island.

These regions have not yet been explored, except to a limited degree owing to the unfavorable political condition of the coast.

A CANDIDATE FOR MARSHAL.

Sheriff Cunningham of San Joaquin County in Town.

Sheriff Cunningham, the veteran sheriff of San Joaquin County was in the city yesterday looking after a minor criminal. He seems to be in the enjoyment of good health and is not averse to accepting the office of United States Marshal for this district.

He said that he had heard that Harry Morse had the inside track and, then that McKenzie of Napa, was the preferred candidate. Of couse, in either case, he would be left but he still thought that he had a chance.

WOULD NOT BE JILTED

Clara Fallmer, Scorned, Seeks Her Own and Her Lover's Life.

THREAT OF CHARLES LADUE.

Turned the Love of His Fair One Into Bitterest Hate.

A GORY DEED IN ALAMEDA.

Each Victim Receives a Shot in About the Same Place.

Monday evening, about 6 o'clock Miss Clara Fallmer of Alameda, maddened by jealousy, shot her lover, Chas. Ladue, on the arrival of the narrow gauge train from the mole at Park street station.

She then turned the still smoking weapon against herself and fired again.

There was a large number of people standing in the immediate neighborhood at the time of the shooting, but it seems that both shots were fired without being witnessed by any of the onlookers.

Ladue was taken to his home, 2432 Webb avenue, Alameda. Miss Fallmer was taken to a room in the Park hotel and later to the Receiving Hospital in this city.

Dr. C. H. Lubbock was called to attend to the young man's injuries, while Dr. E. M. Keys attended Miss Fallmer's. The bullet in each case was probed for but was not located.

The bullets struck the left breast of the victims on almost relatively the same spot.

The shooting was premeditated and was the result of ill-feeling which was engendered in the young woman's breast by a threat on the part of Ladue to desert her for another girl.

Yesterday evening, shortly before the shooting, Miss Fallmer was in company with Miss Whitelaw and Harry Norton and Ernest Lodtman of Alameda, at the narrow guage station. Before the arrival of the train, Miss Fallmer left her friends and went toward the waiting room. She was asked where she was going and replied that she intended to meet "Charlie" meaning Ladue.

Just then the train came along and Ladue disembarked, having come from the Pacific Coast Borax Works, at the west end where he is employed.

As soon as he alighted from the train, he was met by Miss Fallmer. They stepped out of the crowd, engaged in conversation for some time, and then suddenly, the shots were fired.

There is no doubt that the act was inspired by the threat of being jilted, because Miss Fallmer had told her friend, Miss Whitelaw, that Ladue had had said that he was going to throw her over for another girl and that she had told him that if he did she would kill him.

Ladue is 22 years of age and resides with a widowed mother at 2432 Webb avenue. He has generally borne a good reputation, though it seems that of late his mother has objected to his keeping company with Miss Fallmer.

Miss Fallmer is an attractive-looking young woman and resides at 1920 Union street. She met Ladue some months ago and since then there has been an affair of the heart between them. Recently Ladue told the girl that he was tired of her companionship, and it was this that led up to the shooting.

THE GIRL'S STORY.

Clara Fallmer is in a very serious condition and her life is in jeopardy. Whether the bullet, which she sent into her own breast with such a disastrous effect, will result in her death or not, is a grave question. She is now resting quietly at the Receiving Hospital and no one is allowed to see her. Her father, mother, sister and brother called at the hospital this morning but were refused admittance as the doctor had left strict orders that the girl should not be disturbed.

Later in the day, when the patient was resting more quietly a Tribune reporter was admitted and the girl for the first time gave her side of the story. She tells how jealousy had crazed her mind and how the interference of his chum caused Charlie Ladue to cast aside the girl who loved him.

"It is Charlie's chum, George Patterson's fault that I did what occurred last night," said the girl. "He was jealous and made trouble between us. George told Charlie that I had made remarks about Charlie's mother. I never did anything of the sort. I think George wanted me to leave Charlie and go with him and so he made trouble.

"Charlie and I met Saturday night and he told me what George declared I had said about Mrs. Ladue. I told Charlie it was a lie but we both became angry and had a quarrel.

"Charlie went away then and said he would see me Monday night when he would find out the truth for himself. He said if I had made any such remarks about his mother, he would leave me.

"I was half crazy at what Charlie had said, for I loved him madly. A friend of mine gave me the pistol and I was going to use it merely as a bluff when I met Charlie. I didn't intend to hurt him, I was just going to threaten him if he left me.

"When we met Monday night, we quarrelled again and I became very angry. I think I must have been mad when I shot Charlie. I do not know how I could do it."

"Dou you know how Charlie is?" was asked.

"Yes, they told me he is better, and I am so glad," was the answer. "I love him even now and I am sorry that I hurt him."

It was love and jealousy that drove the girl to shoot the man and it is love and jealousy that has brought the girl so close to death, that even now it may be creeping upon her.

Clara Fallmer is a remarkably pretty girl. She is very young and the very flush of youth tinges her cheeks a pretty red and deepens the glow in her hazel eyes. She is very small and rather fragile looking.

The self-inflicted wound is most serious and the poor girl coughs incessantly, every cough bringing the blood to her lips. The bullet has not been found as yet.

Deputy District Attorney L. S. Church went to Alameda this morning as it was feared that Ladue would not live and his dying statement was wanted.

Ladue's condition is very critical this afternoon. He is completely paralyzed from the point of the wound down to his feet., but as he does not believe he is going to die, no dying statement can be taken.

DESTITUTION IN MANILLA.

Crops Ruined and Residents Want to Leave the Country.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Following is an extract from a private letter dated Manilla June 9th:

"Here things are in a frightful mess. Spanish dollars have been introduced at 10 per cent less value than Mexican. Everybody wants to sell out. Native brokers are all over the place trying to sell houses, grounds, horses, carriages, furniture, estates, etc., and no buyers.

"In the sugar provinces the cane plants are being burnt up for lack of rain. Paddy is being attacked by insects and locusts are eating everything up.

"A few days ago, about forty miles from Manilla, a train was stopped owing to the immense mass of locusts on the track.

"Fighting is still going on in several provinces and the papers here say nothing about it, which looks bad. The papers have not even mentioned a single 'glorious victoria.'

SEVERAL BLAZES.

The Home of Dr. J. P. Sarsfield Is Damaged by Flames.

The home of Dr. J. P. Sarsfield, the specialist at 1168 Filbert street, was the scene of fire at noon yesterday.

The doctor prepares a number of his medicines at his home, and to-day he was heating a lot of fat on his range in the kitchen when it caught fire ignited the wall behind the range, and soon the whole kitchen was a mass of flames. A still alarm was sounded for the Fire Department, but when Chief Fair arrived, he saw that more firemen would be necessary so a regular alarm was turned in. Everything in the kitchen was destroyed and the back of the building was scorched before the flames were gotten under control.

The damage will be about $100. The house was insured for $4,000 and the furniture carried $1,000.

The Department was called out to 1571 Seventh avenue yesterday afternoon to extinguish a grass fire on the Stewart estate which is occupied by J. F. Cardwell.

Late last night the home of D. C. Coapley at 828 Fifteenth street, became ignited from a defective flue. The fire department responded promptly to an alarm and the fire was extinguished before much damage was done. The house belonged to P. C. Forkes.

TURKEY WILL TRY TO REINFORCE CRETE.

The Foreign Admirals Will Use Force to Prevent Any Such Action.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 3.—A dispatch from the Dardanelles late today announces that the second naval division of the Turkish fleet, consisting of seven warships commanded by Hafi Pasha, has sailed for the Island of Crete.

Fears are expressed here that the departure of the Turkish naval division may lead to a collision with the international fleet in Cretan waters, in view of the announcement of the foreign admirals that they have decided to oppose by force the landing of Turkish reinforcements in the Island of Crete.

It has been reported for some time that the Turkish Government was contemplating landing additional Turkish troops in Crete and on Thursday last the admirals in command of the foreign fleets in Cretan waters held a conference to oppose by force the landing of Turkish reinforcements in Crete.

CONTEST THE WILL

Eastern Relatives Want Some of Bart Morgan's Estate.

A suit to set aside a deed of conveyance made by the late Bartlett Morgan, formerly Supervisor of this county, has been filed with the County Clerk.

The contestants are David L. Morgan, Atwell Morgan, Katie Richardson and Bartlett Morgan, and the defendants are Oren J. Mullen, Grace E. Mullen his wife and Lydia Wade.

The instrument sets forth that Morgan died on the 8th of April, 1897, and that at his death he left as heirs the plaintiffs in this city, David L. Morgan being a half brother of the deceased, residing at Clarksburg, Indiana.

Atwell Morgan, residing at Andersonville, Indiana, Katie Richardson, residing at Ging's Station, Indiana, and Bartlett Morgan, residing at Shelbyville, Indiana, the last three named being children of deceased brother's of the testator; B. Morgan, a brother residing at West Indianapolis, Indiana, a brother, and Sarah J. Smith, residing at Ben Davis, Indiana, a sister of the deceased.

It also showed that the deceased owned certain pieces of property in this city and county, among them being the following.

Lot 12 and ten feet of lot 13, block 96, a lot near Seventh and Market streets, a lot at Twenty-first and Adeline streets, ad a lot at Milton and Twenty-sixth streets.

The document then goes on to show that, at the residence of the deceased the defendants caused Bartlett Morgan to execute to them a conveyance of the said real estate, and that the petitioners are informed and believe that at the time of making the conveyance and for a long time prior thereto, Morgan was of unsound mind and incompetent to make and execute any deed, transfer or disposition of said property or any portion thereof.

The plaintiffs then say that the defendants procured said Bartlett Morgan to execute the deed of trust to them, through undue influences and more particularly as follows: "For a long term prior to the 22d of June, 1896, and then continuously till his death on the 22d day of June, 1896, the mind of said Bartlett Morgan was impaired and extremely feeble. At the time of making and the execution of the deed of conveyance, said Bartlett Morgan was at the same time, for a long time prior thereto and continuously up to his death, Morgan was afflicted with softening of the brain, which said affliction was the cause of death and that while Morgan was in the condition of mental weakness the said defendants took advantage of his mental condition and procured from him said conveyance; that said conveyance was executed by Morgan in the presence of the defendant, Oren J. Mullen, who, together with the said defendants, Grace E. Mullen and Lydia Wade, resided with the said deceased at the time of said deed of conveyance and until the death of Bartlett Morgan.

The conveyance was without consideration, and it was moved that it be declared null and void.

The property referred to is valued at between $12,000 and $15,000.

THE SKIRT DANCE TABOOED

Little Girls Will Not Be Allowed to Kick at the Show.

Colonel Dimpfel of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children has requested Mayor Thomas to refuse a permit to allow a couple of children to dance at the Oakland Theatre next week.

The Colonel states that he will not allow the children to go on whether the permit be granted or not.

The children to whose dancing Colonel Dimpfel objects are Jessica Newman and Pearl Lund, both of whom are Oakland girls and have appeared a number of times before Oakland audiences.

Some time ago Colonel Dimpfel stopped the girls from dancing at Blair Park. He now says that he will prosecute the father of the Newman girl should she be allowed to perform again.

"Even should the Mayor grant the permit," said Colonel Dimpfel to a Tribune man to-day, "it will do no good. I do not propose to allow those children to kick up their heels to enrich their parents. I believe they are between nine and twelve years old, but so long as they are under sixteen I have the authority to stop them, under the law. I have notified Mr. Newman that he will be arrested if the Children appear."

An Encinal City Woman Wants Part of Her Son's Estate.

BERKELEY, Aug. 4.—Dr. John Fryer, professor of Oriental Languages at the State University, returned yesterday from Shanghai, China, where he has been consulting with Chinese government officials, relative to the rounding of a great university at Shanghai for the education of the Chinese in Western art, sciences and literature. Dr. Fryer was offered the presidency of the institution but declined as he has a life position at the State University.

"The chief mover in this project is Sheng a 'Tao Tai' of Shanghai," said Dr. Fryer. "He is one of the most progressive men in China. In his charge are the railways, iron works, telegraph, steam navigation company and banks. Shortly before I departed on private business three months ago I received a cable request to go to him and advise as to this university plan.

"There is a remarkable growth among the Chinese of the desire to acquire all they can of our Western learning—practical knowledge, I mean, in the sciences and languages.

"The Chinese officials propose to establish a series of colleges, beginning with preparatory and academic grades. The curriculum of the proposed university should be equal to that of Berkeley or any other American university, but it will be impossible for the Chinese to master that range of work for years yet. I had two long interviews with Sheng and many consultations with his representatives. They propose to establish the university with foreign professors and to conduct instruction in English. I pointed out the futility of that plan. The Chinese must be instructed in their own language, and the teachers must be able to impart Western learning in the Chinese tongue. That is the only way they can expect to progress.

Foreman Boag of the Peralta Fire Company has made a number of tests to ascertain the pressure in the water hydrants of the Contra Costa Company at different places in Berkeley. His tests reveal that in some localities, the pressure is so small as to be useless for fires. The Alameda Water Company's twelve hydrants were tested and showed pressure varying from one hundred and twenty to thirty-five pounds.

The Berkeley public schools opened yesterday with the largest number of pupils on record here. The total is 2,032 in a town of 13,000; 250 of the number are high school students.

Forty-two of the '97 graduating class of the Berkeley High School will enter the University next week. This is believed to be the largest contingent that any institution will send to the University this year.

Health Officer Rowell has decided that the streets of West Berkeley are sprinkled with impure water which is pumped from a stagnant pool instead of the bay as it should be.

F. E. Perham has formally taken office as Superintendent of Schools. The Board of Education has instructed him to hold monthly meetings of teachers. Perham is to attend all meetings of the Board and submit an annual report.

Mrs. Marcana Louis, mother of the late Edouard Louis, has commenced suit against Mary Louis his widow, to have set aside the deeds made to her of all Louis' property. She alleges that the contract by which Mrs. Louis, the wife, came into possession of the property, has been violated. In accordance with its term, Mrs. Marcana Louis is to receive $25 a month during her lifetime. It was on this condition that Mrs. Marcana Louis deeded her property to her son. The widow denies the charge and is supported by Attorney R. R. Tappan, who has made the payments.

The hearing of J. P. Allen, of the late El Nido Club, was continued before Recorder St. Sure yesterday. In the course of the examination, he admitted having $288 on deposit in the Alameda bank. AS OTHERS SEE US.

Councilman Upton of Oakland, having said that the mammoth boards erected by a bill posting firm were unsightly and dangerous, the bill posting firm threatens suit to recover damages. Councilman Upton will have no defense, if there is a trial. Anybody who cannot discern the esthetic beauty of a bill board, and the desirability of having one fall and smash you flat while you are engaged in reading the truths and studying the works of art thereon displayed is too much of a heathen to come within the law's pale. He ought to be mulct off-hand.—Alameda Argus.

The Oakland Exposition, which closed last Saturday night, did not have as successful a season as former ones have had. The exhibits were installed earlier than usual, on account of a belief that the advertising features would fall with the great crowd of Christian Endeavorers that came to the coast in early July. This may have been the case, but it militated against the best display possible, because some of the best previous exhibitors of the very largest industries found it inconvenient to make a showing. The lease for the block on which the Exposition buildings are located will expire before the next season arrives, and the future of the institution is therefore in some measure uncertain.—Alameda Argus.

The last few batches of north-bound Klondykers stand an excellent chance of being frozen out before they even set foot in the country.

General Blood is an excellent name for the commander who led the British relief expedition to Swat. General alarm is now supreme among the natives.

"The treasures of Klondyke," says the New York World, "have four faithful guardians—cold, famine, disease and death." In view of the recent royalties we might well add, and the Canadian Government.

The concert of the Powers is about to start up again. They have had some war music written and as an excuse for playing it are about to send another ultimatum to the Sultan. It doesn't matter what they play though, they can't make Abdul Hamid dance.

Hop raising is proving a profitable industry in Alameda county. The Pleasanton company has increased its bearing acerage to 300 this year as against 125 for last season. The crop is shortly to be harvested and the work will furnish lots of pin-money for the families residing in that locality.

The woman suffragists are looking for a compromise. They realize that they cannot win in this State under the present conditions so they are resorting to the following idea: "Resolved, That the enfranchisement of women is right, but not expedient." Everybody ought to vote "aye" on that.

The manipulators of the cigarette trust are going to fight that section of the tariff law that forbids the placing of pictures or prize offers in cigarette packages. They say it is in restraint of their trade and though that is unquestionably what it was passed for it is to be hoped they will not be able to crawl through a constitutional loophole.

It may be that the dispatches that declare Mrs. Russell Ward had forgiven her husband were true, but she is evidently going to take no more chances with him, judging by the filing of an absolute revocation of his power of attorney over her property. Meantime Mrs. Bradbury seems to have sunk into the oblivion where she belongs.

It may be unpleasant news for the temperance advocates but it certainly is encouraging for those who have the prosperity of the State at heart to know that it is estimated that California's output of sweet and dry wines will, this year, reach 20,000,000 gallons, providing nothing serious down to the vintage happens between now and the vintage. That means lots of money for our grape growers.

Is it possible that Andree's provisions have run out and that he has had to have recourse to pigeon pie, thus explaining the reason why none of his birds have returned. Or can it be that he has found at the North Pole that mythical spot where all the good stories from. Something must have happened surely, or else news of some description would have been heard about him by this time.

Another reform wave is about to break over the bay counties. The Ministers' Union has decided to have a personal representative at every assembly district whose duty will be to endeavor to spike the guns of the old guard in the event of any alliances that may be deemed detrimental to good government. The gentlemen in question, it is needless to say, will have to get up very early in the morning.

King George of Greece threatens to abdicate and let his country run itself if the proposed European control of the Greek finances is inaugurated. As the country has already distinguished itself for its running abilities there ought to be little mischief done even if George does step out. In view of the stories that he cleared up several millions during the war the chances are that he is trying to avoid having any European experts looking over his books.

The Torrens land act will soon be in effect here. It became a law on the 1st of the month and as the necessary forms for blanks have been received by County Recorder Spear, the books will shortly be opened and the new system inaugurated. The impression generally prevails that the abstract companies will fight the measure and if such is to be the case the sooner a test is made before the Supreme Court the better, otherwise the titles to valuable property may be jeopardized. Recorder Spear becomes Register of the system in accordance with the act and he will apply to the Supervisors for a special deputy to handle the work.

CHANGES IN FEDERAL OFFICES.

It can be pretty safely asserted that the removals at the Mint and other government institutions are but paving the way for the appointment of members of the controlling political power. The Democrats are realizing this and are commencing to shout their protests through their partisan press, forgetful or rather ignoring, however, the precedents that have been established by their own representatives.

Under the rules of the Civil Service Commission the only question at issue is whether or not any particular office is an executive one in the administrative definition of that term. With President Cleveland, the answer was always decided by ascertaining whether or not the incumbent was a Cleveland Democrat. If so he was all right, if not, he had to go, the civil service rules being observed or abrogated according to their effect on his personal following.

President McKinley is a civil service reformer in the true sense of the expression. As a member of Congress he made an earnest fight for the principles of the commission and since he has been in a position where he could practice what he preached, he has evinced a desire to walk in the pathway in which he trod as a member of Congress. It is impossible, though, to run our form of government without some elements of political change throughout the various departments. The policy of an administration cannot be carried out properly by those hostile to its principles and it, therefore, becomes absolutely necessary to make removals in those cases where co-operation between the departments and the government is essential. There certainly can be no complaints now, though, on that score, for in no instance since McKinley has been in office has a removal been made without good and sufficient reason.

There is no indication of any movement on the part of the administration along the old lines of "to the victors belong the spoils." In every case where an office-holder is especially valuable for the position he holds on account of his experience and particular qualifications, he is left undisturbed except in the cases recited above of those executive offices who must of a necessity be in accord with the administration. That is all that was ever originally contemplated by civil service and those howlers who are now scoring the government for a few changes that have recently been made might as well desist for there is neither reason nor argument to their outcry.

Fruitvale is bewailing the fact that she is crippled for school facilities. There are more pupils than the present accommodations can cope with and the necessity has become so pressing that the residents have decided that remedial measures must at once be taken. There is an easy solution to the difficulty—let Fruitvale do now what she is certain to do some time or the other anyhow, that is take down her fences and become part of Oakland. Then she can take advantage of our schools and will have all the other municipal benefits thrown in.

That the trip to Klondyke is regarded as a gamble, is evidenced by the applications of those booking passage on the Pitcairn. The boat was advertised to start Friday, but as the passengers declared they would have no luck if they set forth on that day the journey has been postponed until Saturday. It would be strange if that one day's delay succeeded later on in shutting them out from making the passage of the Yukon this season.

Riverside yesterday celebrated with speeches and fireworks the protection afforded to her oranges by the passage of the protective tariff of a cent a pound. An interesting feature was the presence of Senator White, who joined in the jubilation. That is just the way with the Democratic free-traders. In every instance where their individual interests are benefited they are for protection red-hot, otherwise, they smack against it.

Herman Liebes of San Francisco is making a powerful appeal in England for the preservation of the Pacific fur seal herds. He declares that pelagic sealing will result in the ultimate extermination of the seal in the Pacific ocean by the barbarous process of killing the mothers and starving their young. The seals, the Indians and the buffaloes—three of the once most noted denizens of the western world seem destined to die out together.

A VITAL QUESTION.

All dressed she stood for the party, a picture of loveliness rare,
With jewels aglitter on her bosom and flowers entwined in her hair;
And her husband in proud contemplation surveyed her from trinkets to feet,
And gazed with pride on the picture so daintily lovely and sweet.
Her bright azure eyes she turned on him with sort of a questioning glance;
Her ruby lips parted, revealing rare pearls that a god would entrance;
And moving yet closer toward him, with modest and ladylike grace,
She asked him with musical accents:
"Does the powder show on my face?"

The Rosebud We Down.

By Associated Press to The Tribune

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Aug. 4.—Childs, the middleweight pugilist of San Francisco, who whipped La Blanche, had a fight here with the "Kentucky Rosebud." The fight occurred in the opera house and lasted only three rounds. In the third round Childs felled his opponent with a blow on the neck. The latter tried to get up before time was called, but fell back. The principals left town before the officers could arrest them.

ON THE BRINK OF THE GRAVE.

Charles Ladue Will Die From Clara Fallmer's Bullet.

The Frenzied Assailant Is In a Very Precarious Condition.

Clara Fallmer, the young woman who shot herself after having shot her lover, Charles Ladue in Alameda, last Monday night, lies in a precarious condition in the Receiving Hospital. Her temperature is 99 3-5 degrees and the pulse had attained to a velocity of 134.

Since she has been in the hospital she has been raising blood with alarming rapidity showing that the bullet which has not yet been removed, has penetrated one of the lungs. This expectoration was more pronounced today than it was yesterday, requiring almost the constant attendance of Steward Tobin and Matron Macdonald of the institution.

Last night, Miss L. H. Fallmer, the sister of the wounded girl called at the Hospital and requested permission to attend to her sister and the request was granted. The sister is a manicure artist who has her headquarters in the Kahn building at the corner of Twelfth and Washington streets. She has remained with the wounded girl during the greater part of the day.

The patient seems to have experienced a revulsion of feeling with respect to her lover since yesterday. She then claimed that she was sorry that she had shot Ladue, that she had obtained the gun with which she had done the deed simply for the purpose of making a bluff with it on Ladue and finally that she could not understand how she could ever have shot him.

Today she said that she had dearly loved Ladue but that now she hated him just as intensely as she had loved him before she had been informed that her lover had intended to forsake her.

The story of the wounded girl which was published in The Tribune of yesterday brought into the case a young man named George Patterson of Alameda whom, at that time she blamed for all the trouble, claiming that it was his desire to cause trouble between her and Ladue. She said that Patterson had told her that it was reported to Ladue that she had said unpleasant things about Ladue's mother. This report she said had been circulated for the purpose of bringing about a fight between her and her lover in Patterson's interest.

Patterson called at the hospital yesterday evening and asked to be allowed to see the wounded girl, but Steward Tobin acting under the advice of Dr. Stratton refused to allow him to enter the girl's presence.

At the present time, it looks as though the young woman would be unable to survive.

Ladue is in even a more dangerous condition. He is paralyzed in the lower limbs and no hope is entertained of his recovery.

Mustered Out at Last.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Lieut. Michael Moore, one of the last survivors of the soldiers of 1812, is dead in Brooklyn, aged 87. He enlisted as a drummer boy in 1812 and was with his regiment at the capture of Fort George in 1813.

Immediately at the conclusion of the war he re-enlisted in the regular army and became a private in the Second Regiment of Infantry. In 1825 he was a member of Governor Cass' expedition to negotiate a treaty of peace with the Indians. Thereafter he shared in the dangers of Indian fighting in the West for many years.

PARTNERS DISPUTE.

A Block of Stock of the Pierce Hardware Co. Involved.

PLEDGED FOR A LOAN OF $2000

Never Transferred Because of a Preceding Obligation.

H. H. COIT THE DEFENDANT.

Sued to Prevent His Sale of the Security Valued at $10,000.

S. J. Blake, treasurer of the Pierce Hardware Company, has brought suit against H. H. Coit, vice-president of the same concern, and W. I. Witcher which affects a loan made to H. H. Coit, as also 150 shares of the Pierce Hardware Company.

Coit on September 3d, 1896, borrowed $2,000 from Witcher and Blake, depositing 150 shares of stock of the company in question as security.

At the time of the making of the note the stock in question was in the possession of the First National Bank of this city, and is now held by that institution as collateral security for a promissory note executed to that bank by Coit in the sum of $8,000. The amount remaining due on the latter note is $6,000.

The petitioner sets forth that because of the indebtedness for which the certificate of stock was pledged to the bank, the actual delivery of the stock by Coit to the plaintiff has never taken place.

The petitioner further alleges that the value of the stock in question is $10,000, and therefore in excess of the amount of Coit's indebtedness. He also sets forth that Coit pledged the stock to him and Witcher, subject only to the interests of the First National Bank in the premises.

It is further shown that demand has been made on Coit for the delivery of the stock and that Coit refuses to comply with the demand, and that he has also failed and refused and still refuses to pay any part of the note to [illegible] $2,000.

Coit, it is alleged, has no property other than the stock in question. An injunction is therefore asked for to prevent Coit from disposing of the stock and that the indebtedness of $2,000 become a lien on the stock.

Two Children Killed In a Train Accident in New York.

A Picnic Party Upset In a Flying Train of Cars

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—A special to the Herald from Middletown, N. Y., says:

"Two children killed and six persons injured, several probably fatally, is the record of an accident which occurred on the New York, Ontario and Western Railroad just north of Rockland, Sullivan county.

"A combination observation car and locomotive, bearing J. Canfield, the general superintendent, and Charles H. Hopkins, the superintendent of the southern division of the road, struck a wagon containing John Maulick and his wife and six children.

"The accident occurred at the Hollywood Highway crossing. Wagon and occupants were hurled forty feet down an embankment into the rocky bed of the Willowemoc river. One of the children was instantly killed, another died soon after the accident and other members of the family are not expected to survive.

"The crossing is one of the most dangerous on the line of the road. The tracks just before crossing the Highway descend a steep grade and a sharp curve in the railroad renders it impossible to see the approach of a train until it is near the crossing.

A New Colony.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BELLE PLAINE (Ia.), Aug. 4.—A number of families have secured a concession of 6,000 acres of land in Shelby County, Alabama, thirty miles south of Birmingham.

The tract is to be laid out in the colony plan, but each colonist will own his own property. The tract of land is in the fruit belt of the State and is admirably located. Each colonist will get a thirty-acre home for about $350.

Can't Eat

This is the complaint of thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relish. They need the toning up of the stomach and digestive organs, which a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and internal misery only a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and efficiently relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."

LIGHTING COMPANIES FORM A COMBINE.

An Aggregation Representing the Largest Capital in New York.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The People's Electric Light and Power Company and the Newark Gas Company, each having a capital of $5,000,000 and controlling most of the lighting interests in six counties, have perfected a plan of consolidation, with a capital of $15,000,000.

The United Gas Improvement Company of Philadelphia, which controls most of the gas and electric light and power companies of South Jersey, is interested in the deal.

Some of the promoters admit that the connection of the latter means the ultimate consolidation of all the gas and electric power companies of the State, with an aggregate capitalization of $50,000,000.

The new combination will be the largest aggregation of capital in the State.

ALIEN LABOR UNDER CONTRACT.

An Officer of the Railway Telegraph Service to Stand Trial.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PEORIA (Ills.), Aug. 4.—W. B. Perham, grand secretary and treasurer of the Order of Railway Telegraphers of America, has been arrested on a charge of violating the Federal statute forbidding the importation of alien labor under contract.

W. R. Reese, who recently resigned a clerkship in the general offices, is the complainant in the case, and A. S. McLellan is the man who, it is claimed, was imported to take his place. Mr. Perham was taken before United States Commissioner Howe and gave bonds in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the hearing, which was continued for ten days.

A LIVELY IOWA SUMMER STORM.

Hailstones by the Million Stop a Rock Island Train

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Aug. 4.—This city was the center of terrific thunder and hail storms last night. The Rock Island passenger train, Chicago bound, was stopped by the storm. Hailstones of such quantities and size rolled on the track in the cuts that the train was brought to a stop. Every window in the train was broken. Crops were cut to pieces.

CATTLE HOLD UP A FUNERAL.

Mourners Are Shocked by a Herd of Unruly Steers.

The Animals Threaten Destruction to the Hearse and Carriages.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 4.—While the funeral procession which was taking the remains of John Mulvihill to the grave was passing Sycamore and Church streets, a drove of steers passed. Several animals got into a fierce fight and ran into the carriages.

One carriage contained Policeman John Connor and ex-Alderman Richard Ennis. Both were thrown to the street and severely injured.

The cattle lunged at one another and then crashed against the carriage in which the Mulvihill family was seated, breaking the carriage door. The members of the family jumped from the carriage and ran into a house. Men pounded the brutes on the head with clubs and stones, but were unable to separate them.

They ran against the hearse and almost upset it. All the mourners and people on the streets were panic stricken and several of them had narrow escapes from being trampled to death.

A number of men then made a rush on the animals, and they were finally driven away.

The mourners re-entered their carriages and the procession was resumed.

EXTENDING SUGAR BEET CULTURE.

The Secretary of Agriculture Is to Report on the Subject.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Within the next week Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson will make a report on the condition of the Western States as regards the culture of beets for sugar. The cabinet official is in this city on his way to the West. He will visit Utah, Montana, Oregon, Idaho and a number of other Western States with the idea of investigating the conditions for growing sugar beets. During the past month he has sent the seed of the sugar beet to 25,000 farmers. The majority of them are now growing the vegetables. The valleys of the West are well adapted to raising them, and it is his opinion that this industry will deal a severe blow to the Sugar Trust.

He has received a number of letters from those interested in cornering sugar, asking him what he would do in the matter of sugar beets.

He said: "I failed to reply to any of them. After a tour, which will last a month, I believe I will be able to make a report of the condition of the West for the culture of the saccharine bulbs. It costs but an average of $12 an acre to water a number of the valleys in the West I have seen, and I have figured out that the farmers can make a handsome profit.

"As for the Clondyke gold fields, my department has sent a number of experts to make a report on their condition. The experts were instructed to look after the agricultural interests of the United States in the new El Dorado."

AN OLD BANK CLOSING UP ACCOUNTS.

The Financial Concern of James King's Sons No More.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The banking house of James G. King's Sons, founded in 1847, and formerly one of the principal banking firms of the city, is going out of business. The business has been long dwindling and what remains will be taken over by Baring, Magoun & Company.

The first house was known as James G. King & Co., and was founded by James G. King, son of Rufus King, who was the first Minister of the United States to England under President Washington. Later the firm name was changed to Prime, Ward, Sands, King & Co., and in 1847 it became James G. King's Sons.

Archibald Gray King, a son of James G. King, became president of the house on the death of his father, having become junior member in 1832. He died on March 22d last, and articles for the dissolution of the firm were drawn up shortly afterwards.

The Organization Will Control Eighty Per Cent of the Product.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Representatives of large malting firms met at the Hotel Manhattan in this city today, by invitation of Secretary Mourhitt of Lyons, N. Y., and took the first steps to close a combination. The firms represent 80 per cent of the malt output of the United States, which averages 30,000,000 bushels.

The Glucose Trust is supposed to be behind this proposed combination of maisters. Glucose enters largely into the manufacture of beer as a substitute for malt, and the idea, it is said, is to have the products under control.

Nothing definite was done today, except to oppose, in a general way, the plan to form a combination. It is as yet only a possibility. The temporary chairman decided to call a meeting at a later day.

OLD MAN SCHRAGE HAS GONE HENCE.

But the Miser Had to Leave All His Gold Behind Him.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—After four weeks of practical abstinence from food "Old Man" Schrage is dead. The body of the miser, who on March 24, 1896, was robbed of $55,000 in government bonds will be shipped to Whiting, Ind., for interment.

During the four weeks prior to his death Schrage had been unable to leave his bed and had subsisted solely on beer. In this time the old miser, in delirium, talked frequently of his bonds and of the robbery.

AND STILL THEY GO

Yachts and Schooners Being Rapidly Prepared for Alaska.

A GOLDEN GATE EXPEDITION.

Newsy Letters From Christian Endeavorers Now at Dawson.

TWO SENIORS LEAVE THE U. C.

The Clondyke Craze Increasing as Every Vessel Sails North.

The South Alaska Mining and Development Company of San Francisco has been incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000. The object of the company, as set forth in the articles of incorporation, is to own, operate develop, buy and sell mines and mining property of every description; also to build and construct ditches, flumes, and develop and prospect mines and mineral lands of every description, and to own and control water rights and to carry on a general mining and assaying business and other incidental branches of business.

The schooner La Ninia, which has been on the mud in the estuary for many months, has been purchased and is being fitted out for a year's trip north. Captain P. Sonerd of Lorin will be in command.

The seven original subscribers are Henry T. Renton, president; Charles O. Laine, vice-president; Richard H. Tripp, secretary; Charles Greene treasurer; Frank T. Gerst, storekeeper and supervisor; George L. Dycety and many members of the new organization are practical mining men. President Renton aims to be familiar with every inch of Alaska, especially the southern portion where the company will do its prospecting. The expedition has accepted a $5,000 estimate for provisions from a San Francisco firm. The total expenses of the expedition will aggregate $12,000. Each man will pay about $250, which is calculated to cover everything. The expedition will confine itself to southern Alaska, and not venture to the Clondyke region. If success attends the prospectors' efforts it is the plan for the men to return next summer for their families and establish a colony.

The Chetco and El Sueno, both yachts will probably leave for the north in a few days. Work on the El Sueno began to-day.

Letters have been received from Lawrence D. Ward and Will Clark, the members of Prospect Hill Presbyterian Church Endeavor Union, who went north eighteen months ago and who are now at Dawson.

As soon as the two Endeavorers on the steamer at Juneau to go through the White Pass they determined that they could not travel on Sunday. They were true to their principle, and although they left Juneau with others who traveled every day, they arrived at Dawson exactly at the same time. Their earlier letters tell of their little praise and prayer meetings en route and of the increased efforts they were able to make because of their day of rest. Their friends who disregarded the Sabbath broke up the track and left a good trail for the Oaklanders to follow.

An interesting little incident happened the day before Dawson was reached. The men who rushed ahead seven days a week struck a wrong trail and they were two days getting back. They regained the right path just in time to meet Clark and Ward and all arrived together. The Fruitvale boys claim the distinction of being the pioneer Endeavorers of the Yukon.

Arthur Clark, Fred Collins and Ed Sutherland, all employes of the Oakland Iron Works, left here in the spring of '95 and spent the summer in Alaska. They returned in the fall and went back to work. On January 15, 1896, they started out again all fitted for a long expedition. Lawrence Ward and Will Clark, two more of the employes, left at the same time. They took the steamer Unalga to Juneau and then traveled overland via the White Pass. They each took sleds built here and two tons of provisions.

It is not an easy matter to get letters from Dawson to Juneau. There are frequent opportunities during the summer, but it is often difficult to get mail from the many the settlements of miners in the surrounding districts. Some of the letters are carried by Indians, and others look as if they had been dropped into dirty water or kept alongside of a ham, and it is very evident that it would be very little use trying to locate a missing letter.

In a letter to his parents, Ward says: "We have reached the wonderful Clondyke, and it is really all and more than the reports have been, for every day it shows up better. A man found a nugget that weighed ten pounds, and you see what that means at $17 an ounce.

There are several men here that did not have enough money last fall to buy provisions for the winter, that are worth more than half a million now. Wages are $15 per day in the mines and $10 in the city.

The day I wrote to you last (May 17) I had the luck to shoot a caribou, or wild reindeer, that weighed about 400 pounds. We were floating down the river about 8 P. M. (light all night), and I saw him on the river bank. We let the boat float within about 150 yards from him, and then I shot, but only one out of four hit him, but that was all that was needed, for I went through his lungs, and as soon as he was hit he made a leap into the river to swim across, I suppose, but he did not swim his own length before he keeled over as dead as a door nail. We drifted onto him, put a rope on his neck and floated on down till we found a nice camp where we pulled him out and dressed him. When we reached Clondyke we sold him at 50 cents a pound.

"The reports and prospects get better every day and there are stampedes in all directions nearly every hour."

H. M. Miller, W. G. D. Miller, O. B. Lumax, Alfred Cane, F. B. Hood, leave to-day on the Walla Walla for the Klondyke. The expedition is well equipped, taking 6800 pounds of baggage, a medicine chest, a legal outfit, $5,000 in cash, two boats two sledges.

All these gold hunters live at Golden Gate. Hood is a mining man, and civil engineer, and Miller is the well-known attorney.

This expedition has not taken any chances, they also have two carts, each twenty-six inches wide and six feet long, each weighing 1,000 pounds. They will be gone two years.

Joseph Jarvis of the College of Medicine, and his cousin, Will James of the College of Civil Engineering, are planning an expedition to the Clondyke.

John Hawkins, a coal dealer at 1724 Seventh street left for the Clondyke this morning. He has not, however, burned the bridge behind him, for in his absence, Mrs. John Hawkins will manage the coal yard.

BOUNDARY LINES NOT IN DISPUTE.

Canada's Secretary of State Says Great Britain and America Agree.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 4.—R. W. Scott, Secretary of State, was interviewed regarding the statement from Washington, claiming that Great Britain on the official maps had drawn the boundary line on the Pacific Coast so as to deprive the United States of hundreds of miles of territory adjoining the Clondyke gold fields.

He said he had gone into the question with a member of the Mackenzie administration in 1875 and the point now raised was discussed then.

"The treaty of St. Petersburg of 1825," said he, "defines the line dividing Russian territory, now Alaska, from British by a line drawn north from the foot of Prince of Wales Island through Portland channel until it struck the mountains, when the method of delineation was set forth. The map will show that a line running north from the foot of Prince of Wales Island must go through the Behm canal and that to reach Portland canal the line would have to go east through the open sea a considerable distance before it could reach Portland channel or canal.

"The British contention, as shown by the dispatches of George Canning to Sir Charles Bagot, when British Ambassador of St. Petersburg, is that Portland was to be in British territory and that the words 'Portland canal' in the convention was a mistake for Behm canal, or else what is now called Portland canal was not then so called. This is supported by the physical impossibility of running a line due north through Portland canal from the foot of Prince of Wales Island, so that Canada's maps show the boundary line as running north through the Behm canal.

"The difference is great, in view of the discoveries of gold, and it can only be settled by an international arbitration.

"The disputed territory with the ten marine leagues back from the coast added could not, however, embrace the present gold fields of the Clondyke, which are clearly in British territory, because they are well east of the 141st meridian, which is the recognized boundary to the north."

PAWNED HER JEWELRY.

A Boarder Robs His Landlady and Makes His Escape.

Mrs. Fanny M. Mather, who keeps a lodging house at 225 Mason street, has recovered a valuable diamond ring which was stolen from her house in the latter part of May.

Mrs. Mather located the ring at the pawn shop of Hyman & Smith at 811 Broadway, and yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Detective Storey and a search warrant, recovered the property.

This morning Judge Allen made an order restoring the property to Mrs. Mather.

Mrs. Mather claims that the ring was stolen by a man named "Ditchy" Carr who, she says, formerly looked at her house. According to her story jewelry to the extent of $600 or $700 was stolen and pawned in San Francisco by Carr. Among the articles was a watch and chain which she prizes very highly. The ring, she says was a present from a San Francisco judge. She believes that Carr is now in Montana.

Carr lived at her lodging house under the name of Heath, and it was under that name that he pawned the jewelry.

THE REASONS FOR DR. BROWN'S LETTER.

He Wished to Appear the Challenger Instead of the Challenged.

Bay Conference Wrote a Letter That Had a Disturbing Effect.

The underlying reason for Dr. C. O. Brown's writing his celebrated letter to the Bay Conference, demanding a re-adjustment of his case, has at length transpired. The Bay Conference wrote to the Chicago association and Dr. Brown, hearing a rumor that the letter would be written, wrote so that he would appear as the challenger instead of the challenged.

Dr. Brown's letter was dated the 24th of June, while the following communication from the Bay Conference reached Chicago not later than July 18th:

"To the Registrar of the Chicago Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers—Dear Sir and Brother:—Information having reached us of the action of your association in voting to receive Rev. C. O. Brown into the membership of your body upon the alleged credentials issued by the Dubuque Association of Iowa, and this in spite of the protest of the Bay Conference, of which body the said Rev. C. O. Brown is a member under suspension, this is to notify your association through you, its registrar:

"That the Bay Conference regards the action of Chicago Association as contravening the established principles of Congregational polity, and therefore as invalid and void of effect.

"That the Bay Conference has not dismissed the said Rev. C. O. Brown from membership, nor modified the vote of suspension recorded against him, so that he is in fact and must be until regularly reinstated or dismissed, a member of the Bay Conference under suspension.

"That in due time and by proper Congregational procedure the Bay Conference will undoubtedly ask your association to reconsider its action in the interests of order and fellowship, and to enter with the Bay Conference upon some fitting plan which shall promise a settlement of this vexed matter. Please transmit this notification to your association in such a way as you shall know best how to do, and believe us to be, yours fraternally.

BURNED HIS BRIDGE.

Hot Shot From the Secretary of the Owl Drug Co.

Los Angeles Express, July 29th.

"Rather a sweeping assertion that you make in a morning paper concerning physicians," said an Express representative to Mr. R. L. Miller, secretary of the Owl Drug Company.

"Well, I mean it, every word of it," said Mr. Miller. "Let any man review his experience with doctors and he will find that they have levied tribute in more ways than one. Not content with the emoluments of their chosen profession, which in any event are large enough without perquisites, they almost invariably insist upon their patients going to some particular drug store, usually one with which they have previously made an arrangement for commissions upon their prescriptions.

"No greater insult to the intelligence of the afflicted could be offered than this, and it is about time that people generally should be made acquainted with the real facts. No good reason exists why people should not buy drugs as they buy everything else. Quality being considered, but where you can buy cheapest. Gold will be given for impurities found in our compounds, and the help in our prescription department is the most efficient obtainable; and so far as our prices are concerned, I have simply to say that we believe in giving our patrons that which would go to the doctors, did we lend ourselves to the furtherance of their nefarious schemes.

"This cutom of exacting double toll is the more deplorable, because, as a rule, people who are in need of doctors and medicines are incapacitated for work and their revenues are cut off.

"We have earned the gratitude of such people and prove our title to it by irrevocably espousing the cause of the afflicted as against the mercenary practices of physicians and druggists in league with them.

"We value the patronage of the former above the friendship of the latter, and are prepared to stand or fall by the declaration thus publicly made."

GUARDSMEN WANT EXCLUSIVE UNIFORMS.

Strong Objections to the Insignia of Service Being Worn by Everybody.

The National Guard is greatly incensed because many non-military organizations use uniforms exactly similar to the militia. Last night Company F, Fifth Infantry met and passed the following resolution:

"Armory Co. F, Fifth Infantry, N. G. C.

"Major John F. Hayes, commanding the Second Battalion, Oakland, Cal.

"Whereas, The members of Company F, Fifth Infantry, Second Brigade, N. G. C., having been made acquainted with the action of the Illinois State Legislature in passing an act prohibiting the wearing of State militia uniforms by other than those who are members of said organization; and whereas, they have also been made acquainted with the fact that semi-military organizations in this State are wearing the National Guard uniform; therefore be it Resolved, That Company F, Fifth Infantry, Second Brigade, N. G. C., is opposed to such use of their uniform, and respectfully ask that our superior officers exert themselves to the end that a similar law be passed by our next State Legislature."

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." To prevent colds and rheumatism, when you have got wet or chilled, use promptly a little of the famous old Jesse Moore Whiskey.

Large Fruit Trade.

During the past few days there has been a large increase of the fruit trade on the water front. The steamer Lorenzo arrived yesterday with a large cargo. The Duxbury also brought a full load but was a little late, having been on the mud. A contract has been closed to deliver seventy tons of pears and peaches in this city.

ESTIMATES OF FIRE AND POLICE CHIEFS.

Twenty-five Additional Men Will Cost Just Thirty Thousand.

Petitions Filed Asking That Chief Lloyd Be Retained In Office.

At the meeting of the Police and Fire Commissioners this morning protests which were signed by a large number of tax payers against the removal of Chief of Police Lloyd were filed.

Nothing was said in regard to the removal of Chief Fahy of the Fire Department.

Chief Lloyd submitted an estimate of the probable expenses of his Department for the ensuing year.

He estimates that $760 will be required for the office, $2,840 for the City Prison, $2,460 for the Patrol House, $180 for the Sixth street lockup, $350 an emergency fund, and $65,295 for salaires and expenses.

A supplemental estimate of $30,000 for twenty-five additional policemen showed that the Chief has not yet given up the idea of inducing the Council to increase his force.

The total expenses for the Department with the additional policemen would be $101,000.

An estimate of the cost for running the Fire Department for the ensuing year was filed. It showed that $123,896.33 will probably be required for that purpose.

WANT SEVENTH STREET TO BE REDRESSED.

West Oakland Improvement Club Is Ready for Another Step Forward.

The matter of redressing streets was explained to the West Oakland Improvement Club last night by Street Superintendent Miller who had been asked to visit the organization.

Mr. Miller stated that it is proposed to redress the streets and they will last from ten to fifteen years. They are now getting the sweeping done for $3.39 per mile, which is an exceedingly low figure. The cost for redressing is now twenty cents per front foot and was formerly $1 50 to $2.00 for the same work. The steam roller does the work expeditiously and very satisfactorily.

Councilmen Henneberry and Cuvellier addressed the meeting at length. Mr. Henneberry said some opposition was met with regarding the laying of sidewalks, some of the property owners being opposed. But taking in consideration the low cost of the work and the improvement to the section, it is hoped that people may be induced to comply with the city ordinance without any trouble. A committee consisting of Messrs. Christian Bullock and Colburn was appointed to interview the property owners along Seventh street regarding the redressing of that thoroughfare.

TWO BIG CONTRACTS.

An Oakland Firm Bids Successfully for Building Irrigation Canals.

A contract and bond was signed yesterday in San Francisco between the Arrow Head Reservoir Company of San Bernadino and J. W. Miller & Company of 454 Ninth street of this city. The contract involves the construction of new chambers, portals, inlets, outlets, gate-houses, motor-houses, measuring chamber sand boxes and diversion boxes, necessary in a system of irrigation channels to be built in Bear Valley, near San Bernardino.

About twenty thousand cubic yards of concrete will be needed for the work. The Miller Company has the contract also for all the grading and excavating, as the reservoir is to be situated at a height of 4,000 feet above the foot hills. The cost will be $70,000.

The work will be began in twenty days and must be completed within seven months.

The Miller Company will take fifty concrete makers from Oakland.

The same company have the contract also for similar work in the San Gabriel Valley, which will be commenced within two months. An electric light plant is being established at that place which will be a means towards facilitating the work. T. R. Barrett of Fruitvale is also interested in the contracts.

POLICE PICKINGS.

John Henry Neal, the West Indian who attempted to stab Captain Bunard of the British ship Cumberma, now discharging a cargo of coal at the Adams' Wharf, will be tried on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon August 10th.

The case against Merrill Davis, the youth who was arrested for petit larceny, was stricken from the calendar.

Larry Howard, convicted of battering a man named Williamson has been sentenced to pay a fine of $30 or spend fifteen days in the City Prison.

C. E. Hetrick, who was arrested on a charge of embezzling $25 from a Japanese restaurant keeper, has demanded a jury trial. He will be heard August 13th.

The case of Roy W. Ames, the boy burglar, has gone over till October 4th.

ADGIE AND THE LIONS.

Exposition Hall will undoubtedly be crowded during the four-night engagement of Adgie, the wonderful Spanish dancer, who dances in a den of lions. Adgie will open her engagement in this city this evening. The performance is described as one of the most daring and reckless feats ever given by any lion tamer. Her beasts are unusuall ferocious and yet she dances gracefully and lightly within reach of their monstrous paws and cruel jaws.

During Adgie's recent engagement at the Orpheum in San Francisco the house was crowded nightly with people desirous of seeing this novel and clever performance.

Seats are now selling for Adgie's engagement in this city.

Some Fine Plums.

Arren Brown has a cherry plum tree on his place on School street, off Fruitvale avenue, that is producing a wonderful crop of the luscious fruit. A branch of the tree has been exhibited in the Tribune office during the day and has elicited a great deal of interest from passers-by. The branch is only about one and a half feet in length but is thickly set with plums. On counting them it was found that no less than sixty plums just turning to a deep red, clung to the twig.

The Corporation Yard.

Superintendent of Streets Miller has been looking around today for a site for the new corporation yard. The City Council at its last meeting apropriated

The Society's Work.

Secretary Dimpfel of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, has completed his report for the month of July.

During the month thirty-seven complaints have been made to him, of which twenty seven have been investigated. The children involved in these investigations have been forty-eight. Six arrests have been made, resulting in two convictions, one dismission, with three still pending. Seven cases were referred to the Associated Charities. Ten children have been placed in institutions as follows:

Beulah Home, one; Jasaphinium, one; Whittiers, one; Ladies' Relief Society, two; Home of the Friendless, one; Boys' Training School, two.

HAZING IN THE HIGH SCHOOL.

The Older Boys Terrorize the Chaps in Short Trousers.

Director Gray Characterizes the State of Affairs as Disgraceful.

The High school pupils have been accused of hazing. According to Director Gray of the Board of Education, "the hazing in the High school this term has been disgraceful."

The authorities in charge of the school have declared that there has been little or no hazing, although Principal McChesney reluctantly admits that the older boys may have teased the younger boys a little.

Among the incoming class were many small boys, who, although they had left the dread and duffer days of the grammar school behind them, had not graduated into long trousers. Their short pants were derided by the older boys, who dubbed the newcomers "babies," "pet cats," and so on.

Neither was their scorn confined to a liberal taunting, but the little boys were subjected to other indignities.

This was the state of affairs that Director Gray characterized as "disgraceful." The director made his charge at a committee meeting of the Board of Education at which Principal McChesney was also in attendance.

"Do you know anything about the hazing, Mr. McChesney?" queried the director.

"Why, not that is, nothing definite" stammered the principal.

"Well then, you do not 'go to' returned Director Gray. "I believe that the treatment the small boys received was disgraceful."

In spite of Director Gray's protest, nothing was done to put a stop to the hazing save Director Dean's suggestion that the small boys put on long trousers and then the trouble would cease.

The hazing is now carried on more quietly, as Principal McChesney has been officially informed that hazing is going on, and is therefore intent on suppressing it as much as possible. Mr. McChesney was seen in regard to the matter, and although he was at first loath to discuss the subject, he at length answered a few questions.

"I do not think you could really say the older boys had been hazing the younger ones," said he. "To be sure, there has been some teasing and ragging, as there always is when a new class enters, but it is growing quiet and in a short time there will be no more of it."

The small boy are afraid to tell of their trials and troubles, but it is openly whispered in the High school that since "pushing" was prohibited the older boys have instituted a system of secretly hazing the freshmen.

A GREAT UNIVERSITY

What the Eastern People Think of the Berkeley Institution.

IT ATTRACTS MUCH ATTENTION

Competiton Among Architects for the New Buildings.

GENEROSITY OF MRS. HEARST.

She Will Pay the Preliminary Expenses In Securing Plans.

The Sun of New York prints the following regarding the State University, which is of interest to every citizen on this coast.

The President of the University of California, one of the trustees, and one of the State Board of Regents, have inaugurated a movement which, if their plans are carried out, will result ultimately in the demolition of the present buildings and the erection of new ones on a most elaborate scale. The scheme has already been broached to a number of architects, some of them in this city. One of these, who intends to enter the proposed competition, outlined the plan to a Sun reporter yesterday.

The University of California was established by an act of the State Legislature, approved March 23, 1868. It was the outgrowth of the College of California, which was chartered in 1855, and maintained on a non-sectarian basis. The University is located at Berkeley, five miles north of Oakland and nine miles from San Francisco. The land included in the campus and occupied by the buildings embraces about 250 acres. Adjoining the University property on three sides, at least, there is land enough that may be required to meet the requirements of an enlarged institution, no matter how ambitious the scheme may be. The Constitution of the State of California directs that the expense of maintaining the University shall be met by a State tax, whose amount shall be equivalent to the cost of maintenance, less the revenue of the institution.

All of the buildings face the west, and from the campus one may look out through the Golden Gate at twilight and watch the sun go down in the waters of the Pacific. Back of the college buildings the foothills of the Coast Range rise in gentle ascent to meet the mountains farther east. The present buildings on the campus include North Hall, South Hall, the Hall of Mechanics, the library, which contains 60,000 volumes; Agricultural Hall, the gymnasium and the students' observatory. The buildings not on the campus, but belonging to the University, are the professional schools at San Francisco, including the Hastings Law School, the Toland Medical College, the Dental College, and the College of Pharmacy, besides the Lick Observatory at Mount Hamilton. The institution is co-educational.

A few years ago B. R. Maybeck was called to the chair of architecture at the University. He is a graduate of the School of Fine Arts in Paris, and practiced his profession in this city for several years before going to California. Not long after he assumed charge of the department of architecture he began to think of the University's future. As he thought, he planned for it. Finally, he submitted his plans to the Board of Trustees and the State Board of Regents. The University which he had in mind was planned on too broad a scale for the trustees. They told the professor that he was visionary, and that if he would keep right on teaching that would be all they would require of him.

That's the way the trustees as a body talked. One of them, J. B. Reinstein, however, thought more of the young architect's ideas than the rest of the trustees. Mr. Reinstein is a lawyer in San Francisco, and a man of boundless energy. He had several talks with Professor Maybeck, and the attorney he talked the more convinced he became of the feasibility of the professor's scheme. Finally, after the two had been discussing the matter one day, Mr. Reinstein said:

"Professor Maybeck, that scheme can be carried through. I believe in it, and I'll help you with it."

Then Mr. Reinstein went to work. He interested a number of wealthy Californians in the scheme. The one who promised him most substantial support was Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst, widow of United States Senator George Hearst. Mrs. Hearst promised to defray the expenses of preparing plans for the new University. Then Mr. Reinstein went to work as follows, in the words of the architect with whom the reporter talked.

"When Mr. Reinstein had been assured of enough money to do the preliminary work, he entered into correspondence with all the architects of any prominence in all parts of the country. In his letters he asked for suggestions for a University that, like the Constitution of the United States, should meet all the necessities of the future. He also asked for opinions of those writers as to the wisdom of inviting an international competition in drawing plans among the architects of the world. All of those replies he kept and from them he made notes.

"Then he and Mr. Maybeck made a tour of the country, from California to New York, and from Canada to the Gulf. They stopped in every large city, consulted the leading architects and made notes of what they heard. Mr. Reinstein even went so far as to find out whether the architects who have the big reputations really did their own heavy work or had it done by clerks in their offices. He consulted the architects of the various cities singly and at meetings called for the purpose.

"When they arrived in New York, the leading architects here entertained Mr. Reinstein and Mr. Maybeck at the Federation of Fine Arts. Then the scheme was laid before us. We were told that the State of California wanted to build the finest University in the world. This University was to be not only the finest now, but it must be so planned that it would be the finest in the future. The general scheme had to provide buildings for the present, and it also had to provide for buildings to be erected in the future. Each of us was invited to submit plans which should show our conception of a great University now and our conception of what a great University should be 100 years hence.

"We learned that in all probability the great plan would not be carried out at once. In fact, we were told that only such buildings would be built as could be paid for with the money raised. But there would be more money some time if it were not all on hand to complete the University according to the plan or plans accepted. Then, when other buildings should be built, the desire was to have them conform, in style and in architecture, to those already erected. In other words, they wanted plans for buildings which, whether erected next year or in 1998, would follow one general scheme. We were appalled almost at the magnitude of the scheme, but we all thought it a grand one. Few of the New York architects, however, favored the scheme of an international competition.

"After leaving here Mr. Reinstein and Mr. Maybeck went to Europe. They visited England, France, Italy, Germany, Austria, and Hungary. They consulted, as they had in this country, the most famous architects. In all the countries they visited they were received with the greatest enthusiasm by the architects, except in England. Their their reception was cold. English architects didn't take to the scheme. In Paris, the venerable Garnier, when he heard of the scheme, invited Reinstein and Maybeck to his house and had himself propped up on pillows to hear their plan. Having heard, he gave it his unqualified approval, and promised all the assistance that his age and infirmities would permit.

"Returning from Europe, the two ambassadors, as I may call them, of the University, reported to the trustees and the State Board of Regents. So favorably was the report received that a committee of three, consisting of one trustee, one regent, and the President of the college, was appointed to conduct the preliminary work.

"Influenced by the favor of the foreign architects of an international competition in the making of the plans, the committee decided to invite such a competition. Then they secured the services of Gaudet, Professor of Theory in the School of Fine Arts in Paris, to draft a prospectus. Gaudet is at work on this now, and expects to have it completed early in the autumn. This prospectus will describe the site for the University, the lay of the ground, and the number of acres of land upon which buildings may be erected. Then will follow an invitation to the architects of the world to submit plans for a University on the largest scale they can conceive.

"The regents have secured the services of a jury of famous architects. The jury is to be made up of Pascal of France, Paul Wallot of Germany, Thiersch of Austria, Ziegler of Hungary, Zaccani of Italy, Norman Shaw of England, and one from this country who is yet to be chosen. In addition to this jury an Advisory Board has been chosen, including Alma Tadema, Puvis de Chavannes, Andre and Lanciani, landscape architects of France and Italy, and Knaus of Germany. To this board is to be added an American member, who is likely to be Augustus St. Gaudens. The business of the Advisory Board will be to see that the buildings are erected in such places as will best conserve and enhance the beauty of the landscape, and that the interior decorations harmonize.

"The jury will meet in Antwerp at the end of the time set for the submission of plans, and there they will judge of their merits. The architect whose plans, as a whole, are judged to be best, will probably be selected as the supervising architect, while the three or four whose plans are adjudged to be the next best will probably be selected to assist in the supervision of the work. The jury and the Advisory Board are to be perpetual. When a member dies the others are to elect his successor. The object of this is to insure against the possibility of someone getting on the jury or the Advisory Board who will want to change the adopted scheme of the buildings.

"In addition to paying the expenses of this preliminary work, Mrs. Hearst is, as I understand it, to contribute the money for the principal building. A fund of about $4,000,000 has already been pledged by citizens of California, and the rest of the money is to be raised by annual appropriations from the State treasury.

"In order that no architect shall undertake such a stupendous task with the possibility of no remuneration, prizes are to be awarded among those competing. There may be one set of plans far superior to all the rest. Yet there may be many suggestions conveyed in the plans of others that it may be advisable to adopt. Therefore every architect submitting plans in which there is anything of value, will receive a prize.

"As soon as the prospectus is drafted it will be printed in all the living languages and sent to all the countries of the world. You can understand, though, that the competition of such a University will require such depth and breadth of thought that only the best architects will stand a show in the competition. The prospectus will, of course, state the time at which the plans must be submitted.

PROVEN A SUCCESS.

The Central Grammar School Is No Longer an Experiment.

That the Central school is no longer an experiment is demonstrated by the fact that the enrollment of scholars this term exceeds 500. The classes in cooking and sewing will be crowded there being now about 120 girls who will take this course. One class has forty pupils, when twenty compose the usual class. The cooking and sewing will alternate, arrangements for which have not as yet been completed. The manual training department, under Professor Gleeson, is also filled. Principal Fisher feels confident of a very successful term.

"If any of ye know just cause or impediment why these two persons should not be joined together in Holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it, or forever after hold your peace." If physicians obeyed this solemn admonition in the marriage ceremony and protested with the honest and scientific reasons in their possession half of the unhappiness, sickness and death in the world would cease to exist. The man or woman who has developed symptoms of that dread disease consumption should not marry until cured. Consumption should bar the way to wedded life. It is a crime to transmit to future generations the death-dealing germs in the blood of the consumptive.

Many physicians pronounce consumption an incurable disease. In this they are mistaken as thousands will testify. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. It corrects all disorders of the digestion. It promptly improves the appetite and makes it keen and hearty. It fills the blood with the tissue-building elements of the food, and acting directly upon the lungs, drives out all impurities and disease germs. It makes rich, pure blood, builds new, firm, healthy flesh, and strong, springy muscles. It soothes and invigorates the nerves. Thousands have testified to their permanent recovery from consumption through its use, after they were given up by the doctors and all hope was gone. Druggists sell it and nothing else is "just as good."

There cannot be too many good, practical books in a home. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is a good practical book for husbands, wives, mothers, daughters and sons. The undersigned, after seven years' suffering, without being able to obtain any relief, resolved to see Dr. Wong, but I did not obtain any help. I then determined to see Dr. Tom She Bin, and in three months I was completely cured. I commenced feeling better soon after commencing his treatment, and I was all cured.

MRS. JENNIE SAUNDERS,
4019 West 6th st., Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin has cured me of that dreadful disease known as heart disease, and also of weak lungs. I do make this deposition for the especial benefit of those suffering similar ailments. I must say that I was treated by the best doctor in Chicago, and after I lost all hopes I concluded to come to San Francisco for a change of climate, and immediately I received wonderful cures of Dr. Tom She Bin, so I remained here, with such good luck that after one month and a half from the time he started to treat my case I felt entirely well.

MRS. E. FRENCK,
409 Thomas Street, Chicago, Ill.

I, the undersigned, do recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as one of the best doctors to cure rheumatism, having been suffering for three years, and also been under the treatment of six skillful doctors for four months without feeling any relief. I determined to set myself under the care of Dr. Tom She Bin, who gave me immediate relief, and in the course of five weeks I was enjoying good health.

PANFILO MURILLO,
Pomona, California.

My son, nine years of age, utterly prostrated with typhoid fever for six weeks, he was under the explicit care of hospital doctors, but without avail. All his body was declared in a critical state, hearing the name of Doctor Tom She Bin, and at once was induced to see him, and I left my son to his absolute care. Fifteen days after my son was able to play around the yard. I fully believe Doctor Tom She Bin saved my son's life.

CARRIE CONTRERAS,
130 Mission Road, Los Angeles, Cal.
San Francisco, February 14th, 1897.

The undersigned does hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as the only competent doctor. He has cured me entirely from throat disease, which many doctors declared incurable.

J. A. OWENS,
Euclid Block, N. Los Angeles, Cal.
San Francisco, January 31st, 1897.

I, John A. Fein, do hereby certify that I suffered with piles for over twelve years. Dr. Tom She Bin cured me in very short time.

San Francisco, February 20th, 1897.

I have been suffering under the most dread ful disease for two years past, and lost all hopes of recovering, being unable to move for four months. At last I concluded to take Dr. Tom She Bin's Wonderful Chinese herbs, and in six weeks after my health was completely restored.

J. E. MEDIRAN,
756 Workman St., East Los Angeles, Cal.

Montezuma, Cal., March 1st, 1897.

I write this letter for the benefit of any one who may be in trouble, as I have been. About fourteen years ago I was taken sick. The doctors pronounced it ulceration of the stomach and said it would end in a cancer.

At times I would vomit a black and blood looking matter, also a great deal of white mucus. The disease would make me very nervous and despondent. At different times during my ailment I would get so much relief for a few months, then it would come back as bad or worse than ever. I doctored with several in this county and also here in California, but none of them effected a cure.

I was advised to consult Dr. Tom She Bin, which I did about the 1st of October, 1896.

He said my trouble was the cancer of the stomach. I commenced taking his medicine immediately. For the first three or four months there seemed to be but a very little change. After that time I may say I eat and am now able to do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe he has effected a permanent cure for me.

CHARLES CARPENTER.

San Francisco, March 2, 1897.

I saw Dr. Tom She Bin's advertisement, I first came up to 615 Kearny street to feel my pulse. He tell me what trouble I had, was true. I had a pain over my body, and chills. I put my case to him; first week I take Chinese herbs once a day, I was great deal better. I been sick for six years. I go to white physician, cannot do me any good. I take Dr. Tom She Bin's Herbs six week; I was all well. I was cured about one year and never pain again.

SPORTING NEWS

The Acme Club Will Give a Big Entertainment This Month.

ATHLETICS ARE FLOURISHING.

City and County Officials Are Excited Over the Ball Game.

OAKLAND'S TROTTING PARK

It Has Few Equals and No Superiors in the Country.

There have been some decidedly interesting events in the sporting world during the last week and the announcements show that the coming week will not be dull in the lot of it either.

The Acme Club has renominated its present officers for another term and it also announces a superior evening's entertainment for the end of the month.

Reliance affairs are also in a flourishing condition and the work of the club's baseball game is the cause of congratulations all along the line.

The game of baseball between representatives of the city and county is attracting considerable attention and is being looked forward to with great interest. It will certainly be a society event.

THE UMPIRE.

The people of Oakland and vicinity are beginning to realize what a great advantage the Oakland Trotting Park is to the place.

Not only have Mr. Williams and his associates spent thousands of dollars in making the track and grounds what they are, but the amount of advertising in the East and on the coast which the city receives from the fact that the races are held here is almost incomparable.

There are but few such tracks in the United States as we of Oakland have at our very doors and each year that fact will become better known and more famous races will be sent to this coast in consequence.

But not only is this true of our sporting propensity. Every department of commercial life will feel, sooner or later, the importance of the advertising thus obtained.

* * *

Just at present the Pacific Coast Trotting Horse Breeders' Association is completing a series of successful races at the track. The series opened last Saturday and in the most favorable circumstances, including over 200 thoroughbred animals at the track.

It is the beginning of the California circuit which promises to be better than ever before, and if some low records are not smashed before the closing day next Saturday, there will be plenty to wonder and to talk for years to come.

Already some excellent races have been pulled off. One is particularly noteworthy.

In the first race Monday Jack W., a horse which the horsemen say has a future, made the mile in 2:12¾, the world's record made by St. Julien in 1879 on the same course. In honor of St. Julien's record the old judge's stand has been left on the land between the track entrance and the grand stand, and on the old stand may be read St. Julien's name and record.

A New York correspondent of the California Turf has the following to say in regard to the Oakland race track as compared to the tracks in the East:

"It has been repeatedly stated that San Francisco is first to sport that the tracks and fans of San Francisco—at Ingleside and Oakland—are in it with those East of the Rockies. The New York race track follower has always been on guard against the extravagant remarks and statements of Californians, and long ago I found out that the New Yorker was 'blowing' too much to be believed, was more of a good mixer and allowed such remarks to pass unchallenged, believing that in time the facts would right themselves.

"Now, here I am, in New York after having inspected most of the best tracks in Illinois and Kentucky, and the conclusion arrived at is that the race tracks of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club at Ingleside and the California Jockey Club at Oakland will be peers of those in either of the cities named in the United States. The racing is every bit as clean and straight, even though California has not all the great track horses.

"The transportation to and from the California tracks—possibly the most meritorious 100 miles of road in the world—is better than any here East. The manner of conducting the racing and every detail of the races, I consider, to be about the methods in vogue on your San Francisco tracks. The sports may attempt to maintain that such ought to be the case, seeing that your tracks are but two or three years old; but why don't the Eastern jockey clubs keep up to the times?

"To visit the New York tracks and see several hundreds of bookmakers perched on high stools or standing in straight rows and marshaled by policemen, makes any one, who is a true sport at heart have the greatest contempt for the Eastern bookmakers. They dare not vary the odds on the horses and scarcely whisper it in your ear, so thoroughly cowed have they become under the lash of Dr. Parkhurst and his reform company. In the bookmakers' ranks at one of the so-called first-class tracks I noticed two notorious layers of odds who had been barred off every race course across the Pond and also in the Southern Hemisphere. They recognized me but couldn't take any of their odds, although, no doubt, I would have fared well at their hands."

Baseball is still booming and the Oakland clubs seem to be more than holding their own with the other teams in the tournament.

The enthusiasm has even reached the sand representatives of the city and county and in the near future these gentlemen will do battle on the diamond field for sweet charity's sake.

While there has been considerable fun on this account the gentlemen are ready in earnest and no one need be surprised to see a superior game of ball when the teams come together. Most all of them are old ball players, and they may be able to get back into their old form by a little hard practice.

While on the subject of base ball a word of commendation for the Reliance nine may be in order. The games which have been played by the Reliance men have all been of a character that may be pointed to with pride by the Reliance athletes.

The Illustrated American, a New York weekly, of the issue of July 31st, contains excellent photographs of Sam Hardy of Oakland and George Whitney of San Francisco and gives a vivid description of the great tennis game played between these men at San Rafael on July 5th—the game in which Hardy lost Oakland the championship of the coast.

It is pleasing to note the fact that the Acme Club intends to continue giving its "nights," both gentlemen's and ladies', which have proved so successful in the past. Along toward the end of this month another gentlemen's night will be given and the club's events in the past are a sufficient guarantee that it will be a success.

It is sincerely to be hoped that the Reliance will fall in line.

The Acme Club has done another graceful thing in nominating its present officers for the ensuing year. Judge Allen, as president of the club, has shown himself capable of taking care of the club's interests in a manner highly satisfactory to the club's members and his enthusiasm in the club's success is certainly contagious.

The other officers deserve the honor of re-nomination for efficient services rendered and it is generally conceded that the action of the nominating committee will be endorsed by all persons concerned.

THE UMPIRE.

AMONG THE ACMES.

The Club Has a Lot of Interesting Events for the Future.

The initial ladies' night at the Acme Club exceeded the expectation of the most sanguine. The gymnasium was packed with a select and appreciative audience and the programme, purely athletic, was a surprise to the audience. The object was to present to the lady friends of the members an exhibition that would exemplify a class night in the gymnasium, and every feature of club work was presented. Not in as complete a form but in a manner to illustrate the exercises with which the members were occupied. A performance of this kind will be repeated about every three months.

A number of the members of the Olympic Club were present and they were reminded of the well attended ladies' nights which they used to give and wished a return to the old times. Under Huderfelt was over with his bill of fare comprising about two feet of paper in its composition. Everything from sausages to mince pies was included, and after the discussion of the feast he was pronounced an undisputed success on a club run lunch.

As the 9 o'clock creek boat steered into the wharf at the foot of Broadway last Sunday morning, forty-two of the Acme wheelmen dismounted at the slip and out among the crowd peering numerous caps ornamented with what is humorously called the "winged dougnut," or more correctly the winged "O" of the Olympic Club. Wheel after wheel rolled from the Garden City and were received by the Acme members, till along Broadway was strewn the longest parade of bicycles it has been for many a day.

It was the starting of the joint run of the Olympic Club and Acme Club wheelmen. From the boat Captain Sheedl of the Acme, directed the procession to the Acme Club, where all dismounted and the Olympians were shown through the new club rooms.

All were charmed with the arrangement. What were particularly attractive were the hand ball court, the well ventilated and well lighted, spacious gymnasium and the swimming tank.

Captain Huydenfelt of the Olympics thought the club building an ideal one just large enough to handle and possess every accommodation. After the club had been visited, down Broadway Captain Sheedl of the Acmes led the procession of local and visiting wheelmen across the swamp road that rocks and rolls you from Oakland to Alameda and shames both owns; out to Santa Clara avenue and thence to Central avenue and through the pretty little city across the estuary, and by this route over to High street and the county road and on to San Leandro without a stop. Here a halt was made till the column of wheelmen could lunch again. From there to Lake Chabot, where the Contra Costa Water Company had sent up tables to the shade of the big trees, and the load of provisions were waiting to be demolished.

The day was bright,—just warm enough to start the perspiration freely. The pace was easy, about ten miles an hour, and every one was easily in the bunch through the whole ride.

At the lake wheels were stacked and the riders betook themselves to the lower lake, which is made by the overflow of the main lake and only a practical wheelman can fully realize how good this swimming was. By the time the bathers returned the tables were spread,—or more correctly speaking,—loaded. The feast would have made a full man hungry. Amidst story and song it disappeared and one hundred hungry wheelmen said it was the greatest run they had ever made.

The following members attended:

Olympic—Captain H. D. Hadenfeldt, J. A. Mullen, H. R. Ramsey, K. Boyd, G. H. Hanson, C. A. Barton, C. H. Stratton, Douglass White, H. Richter, C. Parker, R. Love, H. Bodefeldt, R. Paddock, W. H. At the annual convention the following candidates were placed in nomination: President, J. J. Allen; vice president, A. P. Swain; secretary, J. P. Cook; treasurer, C. H. Hawbaker; leader, C. H. Staples; field captain, Henry Tank; cycling captain, J. S. Shedd; directors, Messrs. Hannan, Scanlan, Carroll, Revolk, Wuebner, Wagor, Dornelly, Burd and Wolf. The election will be held August 31st.

The next gentlemen's night will be held about the end of August. A match is now about arranged between either Simpson or Hawkins of the Acmes and Grantfield of the San Francisco Athletic Club.

The annual entertainment at the McDonough will be repeated next December and Clay Hawbaker, the veteran show man and treasurer of the club is organizing a minstrel company among the members of the club.

Active practice will commence now and continue till the night of the entertainment. This will be the best show the club has ever given.

DOINGS AT THE RELIANCE.

A Large Number of Club Members Have Returned Home.

Percy Mott will ride at the Portland bicycle meet on the 14th and 15th of August.

Another long victory has been added to the already long list of baseball successes. In their contest with the Santa Clara team, the Reliance boys displayed their wonted ability.

Great interest centers about next Sunday's contest, when the Reliance and Santa Cruz teams meet upon the diamond and, as these teams are reputed the foremost in the season's tournament, a right royal battle is anticipated.

Captain Gross, Percy Deacon, Burt Burrill and Dan Williamson are now encamped on the banks of Eel River, Mendocino County. They report sport abundant.

Robert Fitzgerald, James Ames, Charles Lovell ad Cal Ewing have returned from their camping trip to Niles Canyon.

Morey and Jim Jellett are back from their sojourn from their camping trip at Highland Springs.

Herman Tubbs leaves tomorrow for Placer County, where he will remain for a brief time.

Superintendent Gross has returned from Stanislaus County.

Professor Fox's boxing class is nightly increasing in numbers. It promises to be prolific of some very clever boxers.

Preparations are being made for a ladies' night and a gentlemen's night, which are to be held some time this month. Some excellent men are matched for the goes.

THE GREAT GAME APPROACHES

City and County Officials Prepare for a Big Contest.

The interest in the proposed baseball game between the city and county officials is enabated. In fact, it seems to increase as the days go by and more than one man with a political job is seen limping around the court house or city hall these days.

For the first couple of days after the various aspirants for baseball honors commenced practicing their soreness took a large part of the enthusiasm out of them, but as they become hardened in the practicing increases and it is beginning to look serious for somebody.

The county club has not yet decided upon its team, although it is rather certain that Deputy District Attorney Al Moore and County Clerk Frank Jordan will be the county battery. Other members of the team will probably be County Recorder Charley Spear, Frank Mason, Cal Ewing, Jud Hamilton, Tom Crawford, Paul Schafer, the White boys, Steward Tobin of the Receiving Hospital and Charles Arnold. Expert Fred Davis may be induced to play but he does not look upon the proposition with favor.

The city team has already named its players. Detective Hoeckins and City Engineer Clement who used to play with the old Greenhead and Morans, will make up the city battery.

City Attorney Dow, once the star first baseman of the University of California, will play his old position, and Harry Thomas, secretary of the Board of Public Works, will play second.

Billy Hennessey, who used to play with the Poor Man's Friends of West Oakland, will hold down third. Hennessey's old club was the only nine to defeat the invincible "fish gang" team in the early 80's.

At short the citys will have Charley Gardener, clerk of the Chief of Police, who held that position on several clubs in Missouri.

The field will be chosen from the following players: Deputy City Clerk Holland, Chief Clerk of the Street Department Dick Ayer, Superintendent of Streets Miller, and Judge J. J. Allen.

Holland however, may withdraw, as he has lost all interest in baseball since he commenced playing golf.

It has been definitely decided to play three games on the Alameda grounds, for charity. The date of the games has not yet been fixed. County Clerk Jordan is managing the county team and Secretary Harry Thomas is looking after the interests of the city players.

It has been decided to have Deputy Sheriff Sam Holler act as Mascot for the county nine while Bailiff Sam Mitchell of the Police Court will fill that position for the city.

Chief of Police Lloyd will detail a platoon of police for the protection of the umpire, over whose selection there promises to be considerable trouble.

BASKET BALL.

Athens Team Wins Second Prize for Last Season's Work.

The League of '97 Committee of the Basket Ball Association met in San Francisco last night and decided to hold another series of games for the following year. A banquet was also held and the winners of last season's game were awarded medals. The first medal went to the Business Men's Team of San Francisco and the second to the Athens Team of Oakland.

Won by Webb

The merchandise, gold and onyx medal at the handicap prize shoot of the Empire Gun Club last Sunday was won by A. J. Webb, who made 105 out of 110 birds. I. R. D. Grubb and W. N. Wetmore won second and third prizes. The shoot was held at the Alameda Point range.

The Hessemans Win.

The baseball game Sunday afternoon between the United States regulars and the Hessemans of this city at the Presidio grounds was witnessed by at least 500 people. The score of 10 to 6 was in favor of the Oaklanders, they making 6 runs in the first inning.

Defrauded Housewives.

T. Cunane, a peddler, has been arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses. Cunane's plan has been to exhibit a sample of good wheat which he would offer to sell for $1 a sack. Cunane generally received an order and would then deliver a sack of chaff to the purchaser. He was arrested by Officer Con Keefe and License Inspector Maloon.

PHOTOGRAPHING THE HARBOR

The Exchange Endorses the Newly Established Fruit Trade.

The directors of the Merchants' Exchange held a meeting last night. There were present Directors Arper, Brown, Cushing, Farwell, Sohst, Wixson, Reed, Schleuter, Champlin, and Coward.

A communication was received from Superintendent of Streets Miller with respect to the improvement of streets, showing that the perfection of thoroughfares could be accomplished at the rate of $5 per each twenty-five feet, and suggesting that the Board take steps to induce other civic organizations to encourage the remacadamizing and repaving of streets of the city.

The appointment of a committee was embodied in the motion, and the latter was continued until it should be ascertained on what streets the improvements should be made.

Another communication was received from the California Hotel Committee requesting the co-operation of the Exchange in the matter of encouraging the establishment of a bureau in New York City for the purpose of advertising the resources of California.

The reports of the various officers of the Exchange showed that the organization has 142 members, that the amount of money that had been paid out during the past month was $128 50, and the amount on hand $102.45.

Secretary Pearce said that he had made inquiry as regards the status of the project of the tunnel to Contra Costa County, and he had learned that the matter was in the hands of Edson Adams, and that Mr. Adams had said that he had instructed the secretary to call a meeting for to-morrow, (to-day), and that the meeting would be held.

President Arper said that the tax under the old road system would enable the building of the road.

Director Wixson did not think that it could.

President Arper thought that, under the old law, the Supervisors could levy a tax on all the property of the county.

IMPROVING STREETS.

Then came up the question of improving streets, one feature of which had been suggested by the reading of the communication from Superintendent of Streets Miller.

Director Wixson said that the cost of the outside affairs was as much as that of the repairs themselves. His proposition was to have the city pay the cost and go to work with the roller and charge it up to the city. He claimed that such a scheme would save the city half the expense.

Director Farwell said that he agreed with Director Wixson.

Director Brown wanted to know whether that could be done under the law.

Director Wixson suggested that it could and further that a committee be appointed to confer with regard to the project.

Mr. Brown said that it was important to know whether or not the work could be done on streets that had been accepted.

It was shown that streets had been accepted under protest. It was also shown that nothing had been done under the protest, in the way of improvement.

Director Brown then spoke upon the protests upon the right of way.

Mr Brown suggested that a committee be appointed for the purpose of calling upon people and discussing with them the repairs of streets in various parts of the city. Money, he said, had been appropriated for Telegraph avenue repairs and the boroughfare had never been accepted by the city.

Mr. Farwell brought up the matter of Eighth street and stated that there, there was an eighteen-foot sidewalk. He had put down a plank walk, but they had ordered that taken up. Now they had come along and wanted the street to be repaired. The street, he said, ought to be straightened out. It needed to be macadamized all the way along.

A man could not get on the bridge or off it on the east end without having to cross the car tracks. The street ought to be repaired, he repeated, but some of the people did not want to have it repaired. They ought to make a good street out of it. They would have to tear out six feet of the walk and put it into the street if the work should be done as required.

A lady had directed his attention to the fact that the city had purchased a steam roller. She wanted to know what use it was to the city. It seemed that its principal use was enjoyed by contractors to whom it seems to have been rented for the rolling of contract work.

Mr. Wixon then brought up the subject of superintendents of public improvements. He said that when they were putting down a sidewalk on B street they had put a man in control as inspector, and that while the work was being done, that man went to the saloon and played pedro, and yet he was getting $4 a day as inspector. When they were putting down a coping there, the same was the case, and he thought he would test the work. He telephoned to the mill from which he was getting supplies to send him a load of three tons. The load made it appearance and ploughed right through the crossing. That was the result of having such an inspector of public improvements. He had seen men working in the sewers getting $1 50 a day and the inspector, who was looking at them, getting $4 a day. To do a $10 job in street improvements, the speaker said, cost $15.

The chair appointed as a committee in the premises Messrs. Wixson, Farwell, and Brown.

The other proposed committee to talk with people on streets which are about to be repaired will be appointed when it is determined what streets are to be repaired.

Mr. Champlin asked if it would not be better if all the streets were owned by the city, and Messrs. Wixson and Arper replied that that was the way to settle the difficulty.

Director Reed then brought up the subject of the repair of the Eighth street bridge, and the timber which had gone into the work. He said that forty-five per cent of the lumber that had gone into the work was number two lumber.

President Arper wanted to know how Mr. Reed knew that such was the case and Mr. Reed replied that he knew it from the original inspector of the lumber off the vessel. The city would not accept the lumber a few years ago, and yet in this case twenty-five per cent of the same stuff had been allowed to go into the improvement. Mr. Reed stated that he had reported the matter to a person in authority so that the matter might be prevented, but there was nothing done in the case. It was the duty of the party to whom he had reported the affair to bring it before the Board. The inferior lumber had been accepted under an inspector in charge of the work.

Mr. Brown said that that bore out what everybody said that the people were always paying out something and getting nothing for it.

L. Lanz, a member of the Exchange, said that he had put in a bid recently to furnish blue stone to the city, and that while he was the lowest bidder, no attention was paid to the bid, and furthermore, the contract was awarded to the City Electrician who had not put in a bid at all.

The secretary was instructed to look into the matter and report at the next meeting, President Arper remarking that the City Electrician, who was already in the employ of the city, could not be awarded a contract under the law.

Director Sohst then spoke of the delay which had taken place in the building of the road to Contra Costa County. He said that the delay if charged to anybody should not be charged to the Merchants' Exchange, but to the Board of Trade.

The chair announced that Mr. Adams had already called a meeting.

Mr. Sohst then brought up the subject of having photographic views taken of the shipping in the harbor, for the purpose of showing up the importance of the shipping of this port.

Secretary Pearce was instructed to use his camera in the way indicated, with the understanding that the expense of the materials would be borne by the Exchange.

President Arper then spoke of the fruit enterprise which had recently been developed in a wonderful degree in this city, utilizing the harbor in a most practical manner, and stated that those engaged in it were worthy of the support of the people.

The meeting then adjourned.

WANT MORE READING ROOMS.

Annexed Residents Petition to Literature in Their District.

Estimated Expenses for the Library for the Coming Year.

The Board of Library Trustees held its regular monthly meeting last night, with Trustees Page, Hardy, Armes and Dr. Rabe present.

A petition was presented by residents of the annexed district requesting that a reading room be established in the vicinity of Telegraph avenue and Forty-fifth street. It was accompanied by 300 signatures.

Mr. Eggleston and Mr. Moore of Temescal introduced the petition to the Board. The former gentleman emphasized the need of a reading room to the 742 children of that district, and the men employed at the power house.

Dr. Rabe, while in favor of reading rooms, said in the course of his remarks: "Oakland, along present lines, will not be able to accumulate a library, because of the reading rooms. Had the $100,000 expended in reading rooms been used in the library, we would now have a very creditable collection of books."

The delegation manifested great earnestness in the matter, and promised that the rent for a suitable room would be paid for a whole year. The members of the Board expressed themselves in favor of the reading room, should the Council grant a sufficient appropriation for reading rooms in general.

Mr Eggleston at the same time introduced himself as an available curator for the new reading room.

An agent for Purifine appeared before the Board; also a gentleman showing a new system of binding. All three matters were referred to the Reading Room Committee.

A petition was received from residents of East Oakland, requesting that the Monitor and Star be returned to the East Oakland reading room.

It was signed by A. E. Wilkinson, H. C. Craft, E. J. Hanfel, C. O. Wentworth, Thomas Wheaton, J. E. Vincent, Wm. Baker, Wm. Cellshen, D. F. Macy, J. F. Fonte, John Harrington, M. A. McInnis.

Mr. Hardy of the Reading Room Committee reported that the gas lights substituted for the arc lamps in one of the reading rooms is the cause of much satisfaction to patrons of that place.

The annual report of Librarian Peterson included the following items:

Volumes added by purchase during the year, 2,006, by donation, 179; number of volumes issued for home use, 149,270; number of visitors to the reference room, 25,219, number of volumes consulted in the reference room, 36,000; number of volumes rebound, 2,269; lost and paid for, 18; number repaired, 289; number discarded, 2,416; number of borrowers withdrawn, 193.

The inventory shows that there are 25,197 bound volumes and 297 unbound volumes in the Public Library.

The financial statement is as follows:

Receipts—Money received from taxes, $17,711.17; from fines, $301.65; total, $18,013.12.

Expenditures—Library, $10,208.19; Central, $2,391 40; East Oakland, $1,314 55; North Oakland, $1,045.55; West Oakland, $1,386.70; Twenty-third avenue, $1,309.82; total, $17,856.21, balance, $1,517.11.

The librarian's report was unanimously accepted.

The Reading Room Committee was authorized to make the necessary repairs and cleaning in the North and West Oakland reading rooms.

Mrs. Requa of the Twenty-third avenue reading room was granted three months' additional leave of absence.

A few changes were made in the estimates for the ensuing year. The sum for binding was changed from $2,000 to $1,500. Other changes made the total for the library, including the reading rooms, about $23,000 instead of $21,868, as originally estimated.

For two new reading rooms in the annexed district $2,000 was added.

The Board then adjourned.

Wants a Divorce.

Mrs. J. C. Stewart has decided not to prosecute for husband, a Southern Pacific carpenter, whom she had arrested the other evening for disturbing her peace.

Stewart returned home from a trip of several months and found his wife entertaining a man named Fallnon, to whom Stewart very much objects. The irate husband turned his wife and her visitor from the house, whereupon Mrs Stewart caused her husband's arrest. At the City Prison Stewart put up $25 bail, but upon regaining his home, he found that Mrs. Stewart and their child had fled.

It is understood that the husband, through his attorney, F. F. Garrity, will sue for a divorce. Mrs. Stewart is at present staying with a Mrs. Bail.

STEADILY WINNING

Miners Are Gradually Deserting the Pittsburg Coal Fields.

DECLARE VICTORY IS AT HAND.

Operators Show No Anxiety for the Men to Return to Work.

HAVE LARGE SURPLUS SUPPLIES

Campers March From Mine to Mine Inducing Diggers to Come Out.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PITTSBURG (Pa), Aug 4—The striking miners gained another victory at Plum Creek this morning by inducing twenty more diggers to join in the ranks This leaves the mine working with about half the force of yesterday Committees are working industriously in the houses of the miners They first enlist the sympathy of the women and then the men are easily induced to follow

The strikers are turning their attention entirely to the diggers knowing if they come out the other employes will be forced to follow

The New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Company claim that all the Plum Creek miners are working, while the strikers say that not more than forty men are in the pit. The full force of the mine is 340 men When the campers came the output was from 120 to 140 cars a day. This was about forty cars above the average when the other mines are working The output yesterday was 39 cars. With 20 more men out to-day the output is not expected to exceed 20 cars The complete closing of the mine may be expected in a few days

The march to Plum Creek mine was commenced at 1 o clock this morning by the campers at Center school house They were re-inforced by large bodies from Sandy and Turtle Creek The combined forces arrived at the mine at 3 A M, remaining until 6 o clock, when they marched back to camp taking with them in triumph the 20 diggers who came out

The campers at Sandy Creek had little to do The mine is to all intents and purposes shut down. The output is not more than two cars a day The capacity of the mine has been 100 cars a day The normal output with the three mines in operation is seventy cars

There has been no change so far at Oak Hill A statement made by the miners that only two men were working may be true In that case the output of eight cars claimed for Monday and Tuesday will be decreased to one car The extraordinary capacity of the mine is 120 and the normal capacity 90 cars

The demonstration against De Armitt has had the effect of decreasing the capacity of 340 cars to 42 cars with the probability of it being further reduced

The campers at Turtle Creek were on the march at 3 A M and went to the Oak Hill mine They marched back at 6 30 A M and had breakfast Camp life has been reduced to a system One hundred men were sent to Plum Creek and 300 sent home leaving 600 men in camp They have divided into companies of 100 each under a lieutenant Provisions seem to be plentiful The camp will be policed by strikers as borough police

The nearing of President Dolan and the other miners officials charged with riot and unlawful assemblage is set for 2 o'clock this afternoon The case will be dropped by the defendants giving bail for court and nolle prosse being entered later

One of the notable features of the strike of the miners has been the absence of effort by the operators to get their miners to work There has been no meeting by them to consider the situation nor have there been any attempts to stop new men This is explained to-day by an operator who said he is satisfied to have the strike continue until January as he has enough coal to last him or can get it at prices which will enable him to make profit The lower river markets are reported to be well stocked with Pittsburg coal and by reason of almost continuous navigation from January until July large stocks have been accumulated in the New Orleans Louisville and Cincinnati markets and no coal boat stage of water can be expected now before November

Some of the rail operators have plenty of coal, one producer claiming to have not less than 200 000 tons available for his contracts and others can buy coal at a price almost as low as they can produce it. Ruling prices are 75 cents f o b cars and shipping point for run of the mine and $1 to $1 25 for screen coal

STRIKE LEADERS ARE LOSING COURAGE.

In West Virginia the Miners Are Not Disposed to Keep Out of Work.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

WHEELING W Va Aug 4—Except in the Fairmont region where J W Rae and Joseph Wood appear to be making some headway the strike leaders are losing courage The strike in the Kanawha Valley is a failure thus far, while in the New River region there has been but little to lend encouragement On the Norfolk and Western there is nothing to indicate that a strike was ever ordered

Miners day, tomorrow, is looked forward to with the hope that it may effect a change especially in the Wheeling district where so much was expected and so little accomplished, all the miners but fifty being at work again

The disorder at Corinth last night leads to the fear that serious trouble may follow an attempt to arrest the foreigners who were mixed up in it

There is a feud between the Italian and Hungarian miners and since they have taken opposite sides in the strike they are decidedly dangerous

MINES AGAIN CLOSED DOWN AT REDSTONE.

Coal Jumps Quickly to a Dollar a Ton and Will Increase

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

President W P DeArmitt of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal Co says his men are not on strike and not in sympathy with the movement 'They have been intimidated he said "and I have no doubt all would return to work if the strikers encamped at the different mines were withdrawn"

M Boucher is reported to have added It is of course only on this condition that France will continue to grant the United States the customs concessions arranged as a quid pro quo for the economic advantages which have now disappeared In asking for this reduction France will cite the favors accorded to imports of the United States and liberal legislation enabling American insurance companies to operate in France in competition with the home companies"

ANDREW'S FINANCIAL VIEWS DISLIKED.

Will Have no Chance to Return to Presidency of Brown University.

By Associated Press to The Tribune

NEW HAMPTON N H Aug 4—Congressman Joseph H Walker of Worcester who is a member of the Board of Trustees of Brown University and to whose opposition to the public utterances of President Andrews on the subject of free silver the recent resignation of Dr Andrew is attributed admits that he started the agitation and says that in his opinion there is no chance that Dr Andrews will be permitted to remain or to reconsider his resignation

In answer to queries by an Associated Press correspondent Mr Walker who is spending the summer at his stock farm here stated today that he personally started the trouble at Brown at a meeting of the corporation of the university last June This was done because the utterances of President Andrews were at variance with the views of the corporation on the question of a national financial policy

Mr Walker said "Nothing was said or done at the meeting of trustees that was not clearly within the line of duty on the part of every member of the board and everything was said and done with a feeling of the warmest friendship for Dr Andrews There was not in the mind of a solitary member of the board the least idea of abridging President Andrews in thought or private utterances on silver or any other question The corporation did not demand Mr Andrews' resignation. It sought a friendly conference with its chief executive officer That is all In turning from the corporation, every one of whom was his friend, to the public and taking the position he has by himself and by the position of the faculty I cannot see how by any possibility the relations which must necessarily exist between the president of the university and the corporation can be re-established '

Congressman Walker declared in closing the interview that Dr Andrews has taught other things than silver which were thought to be detrimental to the progress of the university His position on the wage question, Mr Walker said, is bad.

WOMEN FIGHTERS

PITTSBURG, Aug. 3.—The strikers are slowly winning their points about the DeArmitt mines. They have already practically closed the Sandy Creek and Oak Hill mines and the Plum Creek men are coming out in small bodies.

The marchers claim they have succeeded in inducing those of the miners who live at Coalport, where the Plum Creek tipple is located in joining the ranks. This reduces the number of men in the mine by fifty. The Plum Creek miners living at Center, near the pit mouth entered the mine, some of them in the usual way, and others through an opening that was not guarded. There are 350 men near the mine and as soon as possible a large tent will be procured for them to sleep in. They have a brass band and this morning their larder was added to by a wagon load of provisions. The success of the campers in bringing out the Coalport miners brightened the spirits of the men and made them more positive of victory.

At 4 A. M. they left camp and went to the main entrance of the mine, leaving the Center pit mouth unguarded, through which most of the diggers at work passed. It being impossible to induce the men to come to the meetings, the campers had a committee to call at the houses of the miners to talk over the situation with the families. Good results are expected by the committees.

The miners in camp near Sandy Creek began the march at 3.30 A. M. and took position near the pit mouth. They were elated by seeing only three men go in. They could not tell, however, whether they were diggers or day men. No matter what they are, the strikers point out the fact that the men can dig but little coal.

The Turtle Creek campers, numbering 2,000, divided into two bodies at 4 A. M. One party stopped at Newtown and the other continued up the road until they came to the pit mouth. They remained until 6 o'clock, when being satisfied that but a few men entered the mine, they returned to camp where a breakfast was waiting. There is no scarcity of provisions. Liberal donations are being continuously received. Turtle Creek merchants are doing all they can to feed the men, but to satisfy the hunger of 2,000 men is not an easy task. The leaders are considering the question of thinning out the camps.

The men were pleasantly surprised this morning, when a dozen women, half of them with their children, walked into camp. They are the wives of miners and said they had come to stay as long as their husbands and brothers were there, and would cook. They were given three cheers.

President Dolan expressed himself that the miners strike would be over, two weeks after DeArmitt's mines are closed.

The total output of the Oak Hill yesterday was eight cars and it will be less today as only four men are at work. When running full time the capacity is equal to 130 cars. The new men are not at work now, Dolan having found a way to keep them out. These men, it is claimed, were Italian laborers on the Pittsburg, Bessemer & Lake Erie Railroad and were promised 25 cents more a day. Dolan learned where they were boarding and sent his men there to sleep. They induced the Italians to return to work on the railroad.

A WOMAN FIGHTS.

A Hungarian miner was attacked by a woman this morning as he was entering the pit at Plum Creek. The Hungarian had ventured alone in the pit. There were no deputies guarding him, and just as he was congratulating himself that the strikers had not tried to stop him, found himself face to face with a miner's wife. She had a rock in each hand.

"For shame," she shouted. "You dirty black leg, that you are. Go home and let these men win the strike. Now go."

Then the woman raised a rock and the Hungarian attempted to dart past her. As he ran the woman threw the first rock. It grazed past his right cheek. The Hungarian howled, ducked and shied and ran toward the pit mouth. Then the second rock sailed after him, but went wide of the mark.

As the Hungarian doubled his speed the woman gave chase and she soon caught up to the fleeing coal miner and caught him by the neck. Before she had time to hit him, six strikers ran forward and made the woman release her captive. They had to hold her until the Hungarian was in the mine. As he disappeared she shouted out to him that she would be waiting for him when he left the mine.

Not all of the miners wives acted as this one had done. Two of them were seen going to the pit with dinner buckets in their hands. A short time later they were seen returning from the mine with two other buckets.

It was learned that the husbands of these women are in the mine and are afraid to leave. They prefer to sleep in the pit to running the gauntlet of the strikers to go home. Their wives supply them with food, carrying it to them in dinner buckets.

IRON STRIKERS ARE DETERMINED.

They Do Picket Duty and Have a Cannon Ready for Action.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., Aug. 3.—The strike situation at Scottdale Iron and Steel Company's plant is unchanged. No new men have been brought in since Saturday.

It is said that an agent of the company left for the East this morning to engage new men and as soon as they commence to arrive trouble is looked for.

Last night councils empowered the Burgess to arrest all persons in any way interfering with the non-union men. It is thought this will have the effect of keeping the sheriffs' deputies out of town and thus prevent a conflict between the borough officers and the sheriff.

A report that a number of persons had secured a cannon and had planted it on the hill which overlooks the mills, caused considerable uneasiness in the mill last night, but those in charge of the cannon say it was not taken out last night.

Sheet mills are in operation, but how much or what kind of work is being done, could not be learned from the officials of the mill.

The strikers who have been on picket duty say that very little marketable iron is being made.

ANOTHER CLAIMANT AFTER PALMYRA.

The British Claim Will by Contested by a Honolulu Citizen.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—The steamer Belgic brings the news that the right of the British government to take possession of Palmyra Island is to be disputed.

Luther Wilcox, of Honolulu, declares that the Island belongs to himself, Fred Wudenberg and William Kinney. They secured their right from the Pacific Navigation Company, which purchased the island from the Hawaiian Government.

The government in turn acquired its right through the discovery and colonization of the island by Captain Benton in 1862.

Farmers Are Sad.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 3.—With the thermometer recording ninety-nine in the shade again today and with no sign of rain, farmers are becoming more discouraged. The outlook for corn in many places is not bright.

The backward spring and consequent lateness of planting makes the drought more disastrous.

A SHORT ROUTE TO THE CLONDYKE.

A Salem Engineer Forwards a Report to the Interior Department.

Some Detail of a Pass Over the Mountains Not Fully Explored.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

There is a short and easy route to the rich gold fields of the Clondyke, according to a communication to the Interior Department, from J. M. C. Lewis, a civil engineer of Salem, Oregon, who says he can open up at a small expense a route from the south of the Copper river, by which the Clondyke may be reached by a journey of not much more than 300 miles from the coast.

The route which he proposes will start inland from the mouth of the Copper river, near the twenty mile glacier, about twenty-five miles east of the entrance to Prince William Sound. He says the Copper river is navigable for small steamers for many miles beyond the mouth of its principal eastern tributary called on the latest maps the Chilina river, which is itself navigable for a considerable distance. From the head of navigation on the Chilina Mr. Lewis says either a highway or a railroad could be constructed without great difficulty or very heavy grades, through which the natives call "Low Pass" probably the Scolol Pass. From this pass the road would follow the valley of the White river to the point where it empties into the Yukon on the edge of the Clondyke gold fields.

George F. Beeker, in an unpublished report made to the geological survey of his investigation in 1895 of the coastal districts, says that most of the islands of the Alexander Archipelago contain gold deposits, yet unworked, that would probably repay very handsomely well directed efforts of placer mining. There are deposits in the neighborhood of Sitka and generally on Baronoff and Admiralty Islands and the beaches of the adjacent mainland. Another fairly promising region is in a group of deposits on the Kenai Peninsula on the southeast shore of Cook Inlet and at Yakutat bay and the beaches of Kadiaki Island.

These regions have not yet been explored, except to a limited degree owing to the unfavorable precipital condition of the coast.

A CANDIDATE FOR MARSHAL.

Sheriff Cunningham of San Joaquin County in Town.

Sheriff Cunningham, the veteran sheriff of San Joaquin County was in the city yesterday looking after a minor criminal. He seems to be in the enjoyment of good health and is not averse to accepting the office of United States Marshal for this district.

He said that he had heard that Harry Morse had the inside track and, then that McKenzie of Napa, was the preferred candidate. Of couse, in either case, he would be left but he still thought that he had a chance.

WOULD NOT BE JILTED

Clara Fallmer, Scorned, Seeks Her Own and Her Lover's Life.

THREAT OF CHARLES LADUE.

Turned the Love of His Fair One Into Bitterest Hate.

A GORY DEED IN ALAMEDA.

Each Victim Receives a Shot in About the Same Place.

Monday evening, about 6 o'clock Miss Clara Fallmer of Alameda, maddened by jealousy, shot her lover, Chas. Ladue, on the arrival of the narrow gauge train from the mole at Park street station.

She then turned the still smoking weapon against herself and fired again. There was a large number of people standing in the immediate neighborhood at the time of the shooting, but it seems that both shots were fired without being witnessed by any of the onlookers.

Ladue was taken to his home, 2432 Webb avenue, Alameda. Miss Fallmer was taken to a room in the Park hotel and later to the Receiving Hospital in this city.

Dr. C. H. Lubbock was called to attend to the young man's injuries, while Dr. E. M. Keys attended Miss Fallmer's. The bullet in each case was probed for but was not located.

The bullets struck the left breast of the victims on almost relatively the same spot.

The shooting was premediated and was the result of ill-feeling which was engendered in the young woman's breast by a threat on the part of Ladue to desert her for another girl.

Yesterday evening, short'y before the shooting Miss Fallmer was in company with Miss Whitelaw and Harry Norton and Ernest Lodtman of Alameda, at the narrow guage station. Before the arrival of the train, Miss Fallmer left her friends and went toward the waiting room. She was asked where she was going and replied that she intended to meet "Charlie" meaning Ladue.

Just then the train came along and Ladue disembarked, having come from the Pacific Coast Borax Works, at the west end where he is employed.

As soon as he alighted from the train, he was met by Miss Fallmer. They stepped out of the crowd, engaged in conversation for some time, and then suddenly, the shots were fired.

There is no doubt that the act was inspired by the threat of being jilted, because Miss Fallmer had told her friend, Miss Whitelaw, that Ladue had had said that he was going to throw her over for another girl and that she had told him that if he did she would kill him.

Ladue is 22 years of age and resides with a widowed mother at 2432 Webb avenue. He has generally borne a good reputation, though it seems that of late his mother has objected to his keeping company with Miss Fallmer.

Miss Fallmer is an attractive-looking young woman and resides at 1920 Union street. She met Ladue some months ago and since then there has been an affair of the heart between them. Recently Ladue told the girl that he was tired of her companionship, and it was this that led up to the shooting.

THE GIRL'S STORY.

Clara Fallmer is in a very serious condition and her life is in jeopardy. Whether the bullet, which she sent into her own breast with such a disastrous effect, will result in her death or not, is a grave question. She is now resting quietly at the Receiving Hospital and no one is allowed to see her. Her father, mother, sister and brother called at the hospital this morning but were refused admittance as the doctor had left strict orders that the girl should not be disturbed.

Later in the day, when the patient was resting more quietly a Tribune reporter was admitted and the girl for the first time gave her side of the story. She tells how jealousy had crazed her mind and how the interference of his chum caused Charlie Ladue to cast aside the girl who loved him.

"It is Charlie's chum, George Patterson's fault that I did what occurred last night," said the girl. "He was jealous and made trouble between us. George told Charlie that I had made remarks about Charlie's mother. I never did anything of the sort. I think George wanted me to leave Charlie and go with him and so he made trouble.

"Charlie and I met Saturday night and he told me what George declared I had said about Mrs. Ladue. I told Charlie it was a lie but we both became angry and had a quarrel.

"Charlie went away then and said he would see me Monday night when he would find out the truth for himself. He said if I had made any such remarks about his mother, he would leave me.

"I was half crazy at what Charlie had said, for I loved him madly. A friend of mine gave me the pistol and I was going to use it merely as a bluff when I met Charlie. I didn't intend to hurt him. I was just going to threaten him if he left me.

"When we met Monday night, we quarrelled again and I became very angry. I think I must have been mad when I shot Charlie. I do not know how I could do it."

"Do you know how Charlie is?" was asked.

"Yes, they told me he is better, and I am so glad," was the answer. "I love him even now and I am sorry that I hurt him."

It was love and jealousy that drove the girl to shoot the man and it is love and jealousy that has brought the girl so close to death, that even now it may be creeping upon her.

Clara Fallmer is a remarkably pretty girl. She is very young and the very flush of youth tinges her cheeks a pretty red and deepens the glow in her hazel eyes. She is very small and rather fragile looking.

The self-inflicted wound is most serious and the poor girl coughs incessantly, every cough bringing the blood to her lips. The bullet has not been found as yet.

Deputy District Attorney L. S. Church went to Alameda this morning as it was feared that Ladue would not live and his dying statement was wanted.

Ladue's condition is very critical this afternoon. He is completely paralyzed from the point of the wound down to his feet, but as he does not believe he is going to die, no dying statement can be taken.

DESTITUTION IN MANILLA.

Crops Ruined and Residents Want to Leave the Country.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Following is an extract from a private letter dated Manilla, June 9th:

"Here things are in a frightful mess. Spanish dollars have been introduced at 10 per cent less value than Mexican. Everybody wants to sell out. Native brokers are all over the place trying to sell houses, grounds, horses, carriages, furniture, estates, etc., and no buyers.

"In the sugar provinces the cane plants are being burnt up for lack of rain. Paddy is being attacked by insects and locusts are eating everything up.

"A few days ago, about forty miles from Manilla, a train was stopped owing to the immense mass of locusts on the track.

"Fighting is still going on in several provinces and the papers here say nothing about it, which looks bad. The papers have not even mentioned a single 'gloriosa victoria.'

SEVERAL BLAZES.

The Home of Dr. J. P. Sarsfield Is Damaged by Flames.

The home of Dr. J. P. Sarsfield, the specialist at 1103 Filbert street, was the scene of fire at noon yesterday.

The doctor prepares a number of his medicines at his home, and to-day he was heating a lot of fat on his range in the kitchen when it caught fire and the wall behind the range, and soon the whole kitchen was a mass of flames. A still alarm was sounded for the Fire Department, but when Chief Fair arrived, he saw that more firemen would be necessary so a regular alarm was turned in. Everything in the kitchen was destroyed and the back of the buildig was scorched before the flames were gotten under control.

The damage will be about $100. The house was insured for $4,000 and the furniture carried $1,000.

The Department was called out to 1570 Seventh avenue yesterday afternoon to extinguish a grass fire on the Stewart estate which is occupied by J. F. Cardwell.

Late last night the home of D. C. Coapley at 828 Fifteenth street, became ignited from a defective flue. The fire department responded promptly to an alarm ad the fire was extinguished before much damage was done. The house belonged to P. U. Folkes.

TURKEY WILL TRY TO REINFORCE CRETE.

The Foreign Admirals Will Use Force to Prevent Any Such Action.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 3.—A dispatch from the Dardanelles late today announces that the second naval division of the Turkish fleet, consisting of seven warships commanded by Hari Pasha, has sailed for the Island of Crete.

Fears are expressed here that the departure of the Turkish naval division may lead to a collision with the international fleet in Cretan waters, in view of the announcement of the foreign admirals that they have decided to oppose by force the landing of Turkish reinforcements in the Island of Crete.

It has been reported for some time that the Turkish Government was contemplating landing additional Turkish troops in Crete and on Thursday last the admirals in command of the foreign fleets in Cretan waters held a conference to oppose by force the landing of Turkish reinforcements in Crete.

CONTEST THE WILL

Eastern Relatives Want Some of Bart Morgan's Estate.

A suit to set aside a deed of conveyance made by the late Bartlett Morgan, formerly Supervisor of this county, has been filed with the County Clerk.

The contestants are David L. Morgan, Atwell Morgan, Katie Richardson and Bartlett Morgan, and the defendants are Oren J. Mullen, Grace E. Mullen his wife and Lydia Wade.

The instrument sets forth that Morgan died on the 8th of April, 1897, and that at his death he left as heirs the plaintiffs in this city, David L. Morgan being a half brother of the deceased, residing at Clarksburg, Indiana.

Atwell Morgan, residing at Andersonville, Indiana, Katie Richardson, residing at Ging's Station, Indiana, and Bartlett Morgan, residing at Shelbyville, Indiana, the last three named being children of deceased brother's of the testator; B. Morgan, a brother residing at West Indianapolis, Indiana, a brother, and Sarah J. Smith, residing at Ben Davis, Indiana, a sister of the deceased.

It also showed that the deceased owned certain pieces of property in this city and county, among them being the following.

Lot 12 and ten feet of lot 13, block 96, a lot near Seventh and Market streets, a lot at Twenty-first and Adeline streets, ad a lot at Milton and Twenty-sixth streets.

The document then goes on to show that, at the residence of the deceased the defendants caused Bartlett Morgan to execute to them a conveyance of the said real estate, and that the petitioners are informed and believe that at the time of making the conveyance and for a long time prior thereto, Morgan was of unsound mind and incompetent to make and execute any deed, transfer or disposition of said property or any portion thereof.

The plaintiffs then say that the defendants procured said Bartlett Morgan to execute the deed of trust to them, through undue influences and more particularly as follows: "For a long term prior to the 22d of June, 1896, and then continuously till his death on the 22d day of June, 1896, the mind of said Bartlett Morgan was impaired and extremely feeble. At the time of making and the execution of the deed of conveyance, said Bartlett Morgan was an old man, seventy years of age, and at the same time, for a long time prior thereto and continuously up to his death, Morgan was afflicted with softening of the brain, which said affection was the cause of death * * * and that while Morgan was in the condition of mental weakness the said defendants took advantage of his mental condition and procured from him said conveyance, that said conveyance was executed by Morgan in the presence of the defendant, Oren J. Mullen, who together with the said defendants, Grace E. Mullen and Lydia Wade, resided with the said deceased at the time of said deed of conveyance and until the death of Bartlett Morgan.

The conveyance was without consideration, and it was moved that it be declared null and void.

The property referred to is valued at between $12,000 and $15,000.

THE SKIRT DANCE TABOOED

Little Girls Will Not Be Allowed to Kick at the Show.

Colonel Dimpfel of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children has requested Mayor Thomas to refuse a permit to allow a couple of children to dance at the Oakland Theatre next week.

The Colonel states that he will not allow the children to go on whether the permit be granted or not.

The children to whose dancing Colonel Dimpfel objects are Jessica Newman and Pearl Lund, both of whom are Oakland girls and have appeared a number of times before Oakland audiences.

Some time ago Colonel Dimpfel stopped the girls from dancing at Blair Park. He now says that he will prosecute the father of the Newman girl shouldp she be allowed to perform again.

"Even should the Mayor grant the permit," said Colonel Dimpfel to a Tribune man to-day, "it will do no good. I do not propose to allow those children to kick up their heels to enrich their parents. I believe they are between nine and twelve years old, but so long as thy are under sixteen I have the authority to stop them, under the law. I have notified Mr. Newman that he will be arrested if the Children appear."

An Encinal City Woman Wants Part of Her Son's Estate.

BERKELEY, Aug. 4.—Dr. John Fryer, professor of Oriental Languages at the State University, returned yesterday from Shanghai, China, where he has been consulting with Chinese government officials, relative to the rounding of a great university at Shanghai for the education of the Chinese in Western art, sciences and literature. Dr. Fryer was offered the presidency of the institution but declined as he has a life position at the State University.

"The chief mover in this project is Sheng a 'Tao Tai' of Shanghai," said Dr. Fryer. "He is one of the most progressive men in China In his charge are the railways, iron works, telegraph, steam navigation company and banks. Shortly before I departed on private business three months ago I received a cable request to go to him and advise as to this university plan.

"There is a remarkable growth among the Chinese of the desire to acquire all they can of our Western learning—practical knowledge, I mean, in the sciences and languages.

"The Chinese officials propose to establish a series of colleges, beginning with preparatory and academic grades. The curriculum of the proposed university should be equal to that of Berkeley or any other American university, but it will be impossible for the Chinese to master that range of work for years yet I had two long interviews with Sheng and many consultations with his representatives They propose to establish the university with foreign professors and to conduct instruction in English I pointed out the futility of that plan. The Chinese must be instructed in their own language, and the teachers must be able to impart Western learning in the Chinese tongue. That is the only way they can expect to progress.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

Councilman Upton of Oakland, having said that the mammoth boards erected by a bill posting firm were unsightly and dangerous, the bill posting firm threatens suit to recover damages. Councilman Upton will have no defense, if there is a trial. Anybody who cannot discern the esthetic beauty of a bill board, and the desirability of having one fall and smash you flat while you are engaged in reading the truths and studying the works of art thereon displayed, is too much of a heathen to come within the law's pale. He ought to be muict off-hand.—Alameda Argus.

The Oakland Exposition, which closed last Saturday night, did not have as successful a season as former ones have had. The exhibits were installed earlier than usual, on account of a belief that the advertising features would tell with the great crowd of Christian Endeavorers that came to the coast in early July This may have been the case, but it militated against the best display possible, because some of the best previous exhibitors of the very largest industries found it inconvenient to make a showing. The lease for the block on which the Exposition buildings are located will expire before the next season arrives, and the future of the institution is therefore in some measure uncertain.—Alameda Argus.

The last few batches of north-bound Clondykers stand an excellent chance of being frozen out before they even set foot in the country.

General Blood is an excellent name for the commander who led the British relief expedition to Swat. General alarm is now supreme among the natives.

"The treasures of Clondyke," says the New York World, "have four faithful guardians—cold, famine, disease and death." In view of the recent royalties we might well add, and the Canadian Government.

The concert of the Powers is about to start up again. They have had some war music written and as an excuse for playing it are about to send another ultimatum to the Sultan. It doesn't matter what they play though, they can't make Abdul Hamid dance.

Hop raising is proving a profitable industry in Alameda county. The Pleasanton company has increased its bearing acreage to 300 this year as against 125 for last season. The crop is shortly to be harvested and the work will furnish lots of pin-money for the families residing in that locality.

The woman suffragists are looking for a compromise. They realize that they cannot win in this State under the present conditions so they are resorting to the following idea: "Resolved, That the enfranchisement of women is right, but not expedient." Everybody ought to vote "aye" on that.

The manipulators of the cigarette trust are going to fight that section of the tariff law that forbids the placing of pictures or prize offers in cigarette packages. They say it is in restraint of their trade and though that is unquestionably what it was passed for it is to be hoped they will not be able to crawl through a constitutional loophole.

It may be that the dispatches that declare Mrs. Russell Ward had forgiven her husband were true, but she is evidently going to take no more chances with him, judging by the filing of an absolute revocation of his power of attorney over her property. Meantime Mrs. Bradbury seems to have sunk into the oblivion where she belongs.

It may be unpleasant news for the temperance advocates but it certainly is encouraging for those who have the prosperity of the State at heart to know that it is estimated that California's output of sweet and dry wines will, this year, reach 19,000,000 gallons, providing nothing seriously detrimental happens between now and the vintage. That means lots of money for our grape growers.

Is it possible that Andree's provisions have run out and that he has had to have recourse to pigeon pie, thus explaining the reason why none of his birds have returned. Or can it be that he has found at the North Pole that mythical spot where all the gold starts from. Something must have happened surely, or else news of some description would have been received about him by this time.

Another reform wave is about to break over the bay counties. The Ministers' Union has decided to have a personal representative in every assembly district whose duty will be to endeavor to spike the guns of the old guard in the event of any alliances that may be deemed detrimental to good government. The gentlemen in question, it is needless to say, will have to get up very early in the morning.

King George of Greece threatens to abdicate and let his country run itself if the proposed European control of the Greek finances is inaugurated. As the country has already distinguished itself for its running abilities there ought to be little mischief done even if George does step out. In view of the stories that he cleared up several millions during the war the chances are that he is trying to avoid having any European experts looking over his books.

The Torrens land act will soon be in effect here. It became a law on the 1st of the month and as the necessary forms for blanks have been received by County Recorder Spear, the books will shortly be opened and the new system inaugurated. The impression generally prevails that the abstract companies will fight the measure and if such is to be the case the sooner a test is made before the Supreme Court the better, otherwise the titles to valuable property may be jeopardized. Recorder Spear becomes Register of the system in accordance with the act and he will apply to the Supervisors for a special deputy to handle the work.

CHANGES IN FEDERAL OFFICES.

It can be pretty safely asserted that the removals at the Mint and other government institutions are but paving the way for the appointment of members of the controlling political power. The Democrats are realizing this and are commencing to shout their protests through their party press, forgetful or rather ignoring, however, the presedents that have been established by their own representatives.

Under the rules of the Civil Service Commission the only question at issue is whether or not any particular office is an executive one in the administrative definition of that term. With President Cleveland, the answer was always decided by ascertaining whether or not the incumbent was a Cleveland Democrat. If so he was all right, if not, he had to go, the civil service rules being observed or abrogated according to their effect on his personal following.

President McKinley is a civil service reformer in the true sense of the expression. As a member of Congress he made an earnest fight for the principles of the commission and since he has been in a position where he could practice what he preached, he has evinced a desire to walk in the pathway in which he trod as a member of Congress. It is impossible, though, to run our form of government without some elements of political change throughout the various departments. The policy of an administration cannot be carried out properly by those hostile to its principles and it, therefore, becomes absolutely necessary to make removals in those cases where co-operation between the departments and the government is essential. There certainly can be no complaints now, though, on that score, for in no instance since McKinley has been in office has a removal been made without good and sufficient reason.

There is no indication of any movement on the part of the administration along the old lines of "to the victors belong the spoils." In every case where an office-holder is especially valuable for the position he holds on account of his experience and particular qualifications, he is left undisturbed except in the cases recited above of those executive offices who must of a necessity be in accord with the administration That is all that was ever originally contemplated by civil service and those howlers who are now scoring the government for a few changes that have recently been made might as well desist for there is neither reason nor argument to their outcry.

Fruitvale is bewailing the fact that she is crippled for school facilities. There are more pupils than the present accommodations can cope with and the necessity has become so pressing that the residents have decided that remedial measures must at once be taken. There is an easy solution to the difficulty—let Fruitvale do now what she is certain to do some time or the other anyhow, that is take down her fences and become part of Oakland. Then she can take advantage of our schools and will have all the other municipal benefits thrown in.

That the trip to Clondyke is regarded as a gamble, is evidenced by the superstitions of those booking passage on the Pitcairn. The boat was advertised to start Friday, but as the passengers declared they would have no luck if they set forth on that day the journey has been postponed until Saturday. It would be strange if that one day's delay succeeded later on in shutting them out from making the passage of the Yukon this season.

Riverside yesterday celebrated with speeches and fireworks the protection afforded to her oranges by the passage of the protective tariff of a cent a pound. An interesting feature was the presence of Senator White, who joined in the jubilation. That is just the way with the Democratic free-traders. In every instance where their individual interests are benefited they are for protection red-hot, otherwise, they shriek against it.

Herman Liebes of San Francisco is making a powerful appeal in England for the preservation of the Pacific Coast seal herds. He declares that pelagic sealing will result in the ultimate extermination of the seal in the Pacific ocean by the barbarous process of killing the mothers and starving their young The seals, the Indians and the buffaloes—three of the once most-noted denizens of the western world seem destined to die out together.

A VITAL QUESTION.

All dressed she stood for the party, a picture of loveliness rare,
With jewels aglean on her bosom and flowers entwined in her hair;
And her husband in proud contemplation surveyed her from frizzes to feet,
And gloated with pride o'er the picture so daintily lovely and sweet
Her bright azure eyes she turned on him with sort of a questioning glance,
Her rosy lips parted, revealing rare pearls that a god would entrance;
And moving yet closer toward him, with modest and ladylike grace,
She asked him with musical accents: "Does the powder show on my face?"

The Rosebud Went Down.

By Associated Press to The Tribune

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Aug. 4.—Childs, the middleweight pugilist of San Francisco, who whipped La Blanche, had a fight here with the "Kentucky Rosebud." The fight occurred in the opera house and lasted only three rounds. In the third round Childs felled his opponent with a blow on the neck. The latter tried to get up before time was called, but fell back. The principals left town before the officers could arrest them.

ON THE BRINK OF THE GRAVE.

Charles Ladue Will Die From Clara Fallmer's Bullet.

The Frenzied Assailant Is In a Very Precarious Condition.

Clara Fallmer, the young woman who shot herself after having shot her lover, Charles Ladue in Alameda, last Monday night, lies in a precarious condition in the Receiving Hospital. Her temperature is 99 3-5 degrees and the pulse had attained to a velocity of 134

Since she has been in the hospital she has been raising blood with alarming rapidity showing that the bullet which has not yet been removed, has penetrated one of the lungs. This expectoration was more pronounced today than it was yesterday, requiring almost the constant attendance of Steward Tobin and Matron Macdonald of the institution.

Last night, Miss L. H. Fallmer, the sister of the wounded girl called at the Hospital and requested permission to attend to her sister and the request was granted. The sister is a manicure artist who has her headquarters in the Kahn building at the corner of Twelfth and Washington streets. She has remained with the wounded girl during the greater part of the day.

The patient seems to have experienced a revulsion of feeling with respect to her lover since yesterday. She then claimed that she was sorry that she had shot Ladue, that she had obtained the gun with which she had done the deed simply for the purpose of making a bluff with it on Ladue and finally that she could not understand how she could ever have shot him

Today she said that she had dearly loved Ladue but that now she hated him just as intensely as she had loved him before she had been informed that her lover had intended to forsake her.

The story of the wounded girl which was published in The Tribune of yesterday brought into the case a young man named George Patterson of Alameda whom, at that time she blamed for all the trouble, claiming that it was his desire to cause trouble between her and Ladue. She said that Patterson had told her that it was reported to Ladue that she had said unpleasant things about Ladue's mother. This report she said had been circulated for the purpose of bringing about a fight between her and her lover in Patterson's interest.

Patterson called at the hospital yesterday evening and asked to be allowed to see the wounded girl, but Steward Tobin acting under the advice of Dr. Stratton refused to allow him to enter the girl's presence.

At the present time, it looks as though the young woman would be unable to survive.

Ladue is in even a more dangerous condition. He is paralyzed in the lower limbs and no hope is entertained of his recovery.

Mustered Out at Last.

By Associated Press to The Tribune

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Lieut. Michael Moore one of the last survivors of the soldiers of 1812, is dead in Brooklyn, aged 97. He enlisted as a drummer boy in 1812 and was with his regiment at the capture of Fort George in 1813

Immediately at the conclusion of the war he re-enlisted in the regular army and became a private in the Second Regiment of Infantry. In 1826 he was a member of Governor Cass' expedition to negotiate a treaty of peace with the Indians. Thereafter he shared in the dangers of Indian fighting in the West for many years.

PARTNERS DISPUTE.

A Block of Stock of the Pierce Hardware Co. Involved.

PLEDGED FOR A LOAN OF $2000

Never Transferred Because of a Preceding Obligation.

H. H. COIT THE DEFENDANT.

Sued to Prevent His Sale of the Security Valued at $10,000.

S. J. Blake, treasurer of the Pierce Hardware Company, has brought suit against H. H. Coit, vice-president of the same concern, and W. H. Witcher which affects a loan made to H. H. Coit, as also 150 shares of the Pierce Hardware Company.

Coit on September 18, 1896, borrowed $2,000 from Witcher and Blake, depositing 150 shares of stock of the company in question as security.

At the time of the making of the note the stock in question was in the possession of the First National Bank of this city, and is now held by that institution as collateral security for a promissory note executed to that bank by Coit in the sum of $8,000. The amount remaining due on the latter note is $6,000.

The petitioner sets forth that because of the indebtedness for which the certificate of stock was pledged to the bank, the actual delivery of the stock by Coit to the plaintiff has never taken place.

The petitioner further alleges that the value of the stock in question is $10,000 and therefore in excess of the amount of Coit's indebtedness. He also sets forth that Coit pledged the stock to him and Witcher, subject only to the interests of the First National Bank in the premises.

It is further shown that demand has been made on Coit for the delivery of the stock and that Coit refuses to comply with the demand, and that he has also failed and refused and still refuses to pay any part of the note for $2,000.

Coit, it is alleged, has no property other than the stock in question. An injunction is therefore asked for to prevent Coit from disposing of the stock and that the indebtedness of $2,000 become a lien on the stock.

Two Children Killed in a Train Accident in New York.

A Picnic Party Is Upset in a Flying Train of Cars.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug 4.—A special to the Herald from Middletown, N. Y., says:

"Two children killed and six persons injured, several probably fatally, is the record of an accident which occurred on the New York, Ontario and Western Railroad just north of Rockland, Sullivan county.

"A combination observation car and locomotive, bearing E. Canfield, the general superintendent and Charles H. Hopkins, the superintendent of the southern division of the road, struck a wagon containing John Maulick and his wife and six children.

"The accident occurred at the Hollywood Highway crossing. Wagon and occupants were hurled forty feet down an enbankment into the rocky bed of the Willowemoc river. One of the children was instantly killed, another died soon after the accident and other members of the family are not expected to survive.

"The crossing is one of the most dangerous on the line of the road. The tracks just before crossing the Highway descend a steep grade and a sharp curve in the railroad renders it impossible to see the approach of a train until it is near the crossing.

A New Colony.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

BELLE PLAINE (Ia.), Aug. 4.—A number of families have secured a concession of 6,000 acres of land in Shelby County, Alabama, thirty miles south of Birmingham.

The tract is to be laid out in the colony plan, but each colonist will own his own property. The tract of land is in the fruit belt of the State and is admirably located. Each colonist will get a thirty-acre home for about $350.

Can't Eat

This is the complaint of thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relish. They need the toning up of the stomach and digestive organs, which a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and internal misery only a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and efficiently relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."

LIGHTING COMPANIES FORM A COMBINE.

An Aggregation Representing the Largest Capital in New York.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The People's Electric Light and Power Company and the Newark Gas Company, each having a capital of $5,000,000 and controlling most of the lighting interests in six counties, have perfected a plan of consolidation, with a capital of $15,000,000.

The United Gas Improvement Company of Philadelphia, which controls most of the gas and electric light and power companies of South Jersey, is interested in the deal.

Some of the promoters admit that the connection of the latter means the ultimate consolidation of all the gas and electric power companies of the State, with an aggregate capitalization of $50,000,000.

The new combination will be the largest aggregation of capital in the State.

ALIEN LABOR UNDER CONTRACT.

An Officer of the Railway Telegraph Service to Stand Trial.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

PEORIA (Ills.), Aug. 4.—W. B. Perham, grand secretary and treasurer of the Order of Railway Telegraphers of America, has been arrested on a charge of violating the Federal statute forbidding the importation of alien labor under contract.

W. R. Reese, who recently resigned a clerkship in the general offices, is the complainant in the case, and A. S. McLellan is the man who, it is claimed, was imported to take his place. Mr. Perham was taken before United States Commissioner Howe and gave bonds in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the hearing, which was continued for ten days.

A LIVELY IOWA SUMMER STORM.

Hailstones by the Million Stop a Rock Island Train

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Aug. 4.—This city was the center of terrific thunder and hail storms last night. The Rock Island passenger train, Chicago bound, was stopped by the storm Hailstones of such quantities and size rolled on the track in the cuts that the train was brought to a stop. Every window in the train was broken. Crops were cut to pieces.

CATTLE HOLD UP A FUNERAL.

Mourners Are Shocked by a Herd of Unruly Steers.

The Animals Threaten Destruction to the Hearse and Carriages.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 4.—While the funeral procession which was taking the remains of John Mulvihill to the grave was passing Sycamore and Churen streets, a drove of steers passed. Several animals got into a fierce fight and ran into the carriages.

One carriage contained Policeman John Connor and ex-Alderman Richard Ennis. Both were thrown to the street and severely injured

The cattle lunged at one another and then crashed against the carriage in which the Mulvihill family was seated, breaking the carriage door. The members of the family jumped from the carriage and ran into a house. Men pounded the brutes on the head with clubs and stones, but were unable to separate them.

They ran against the hearse and almost upset it. All the mourners and people on the streets were panic stricken and several of them had narrow escapes from being trampled to death.

A number of men then made a rush on the animals, and they were finally driven away.

EXTENDING SUGAR BEET CULTURE.

The Secretary of Agriculture Is to Report on the Subject.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—Within the next week Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson will make a report on the condition of the Western States as regards the culture of beets for sugar. The cabinet official is in this city on his way to the West. He will visit Utah, Montana, Oregon, Idaho and a number of other Western States with the idea of investigating the conditions for growing sugar beets. During the past month he has sent the seed of the sugar beet to 2,000 farmers. The majority of them are now growing the vegetables. The valleys of the West are well adapted to raising them, and it is his opinion that this industry will deal a severe blow to the Sugar Trust.

He has received a number of letters from those interested in cornering sugar, asking him what he would do in the matter of sugar beets.

He said: "I failed to reply to any of them. After a tour, which will last a month, I believe I will be able to make a report of the condition of the West for the culture of the saccharine bulbs. It costs but an average of $12 an acre to water a number of the valleys in the West I have seen, and I have figured out that the farmers can make a handsome profit.

"As for the Clondyke gold fields, my department has sent a number of experts to make a report on their condition. The experts were instructed to look after the agricultural interests of the United States in the new El Dorado."

AN OLD BANK CLOSING UP ACCOUNTS.

The Financial Concern of James King's Sons No More.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The banking house of James G. King's Sons, founded in 1817, and formerly one of the principal banking firms of the city, is going out of business. The business has been long dwindling and what remains will be taken over by Baring, Magoun & Company.

The first house was known as James G. King & Co., and was founded by James G. King, son of Rufus King, who was the first Minister of the United States to England under President Washington. Later the firm name was changed to Prime, Ward, Sands, King & Co., and in 1847 it became James G. King's Sons.

Archibald Gray King, a son of James G. King, became president of the house on the death of his father, having become junior member in 1842. He died on March 22d last, and articles for the dissolution of the firm were drawn up shortly afterwards.

TO FORM A MALT COMBINATION.

The Organization Will Control Eighty Per Cent of the Product.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Representatives of large malting firms met at the Hotel Manhattan in this city today, by invitation of Secretary Mourhitt of Lyons, N. Y., and took the first steps to close a combination. The firms represent 80 per cent of the malt output of the United States, which averages 30,000,000 bushels.

The Glucose Trust is supposed to be behind this proposed combination of malsters. Glucose enters largely into the manufacture of beer as a substitute for malt, and the idea, it is said, is to have the products under control.

Nothing definite was done today, except to oppose, in a general way, the plan to form a combination. It is as yet only a possibility. The temporary chairman decided to call a meeting at a later day.

OLD MAN SCHRAGE HAS GONE HENCE.

But the Miser Had to Leave All His Gold Behind Him.

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—After four weeks of practical abstinence from food "Old Man" Schrage is dead. The body of the miser, who on March 24, 1896, was robbed of $55,000 in government bonds will be shipped to Whiting, Ind., for interment.

During the four weeks prior to his death Schrage had been unable to leave his bed and had subsisted solely on beer. In this time the old miser, in delirium, talked frequently of his bonds and of the robbery.

AND STILL THEY GO

Yachts and Schooners Being Rapidly Prepared for Alaska.

A GOLDEN GATE EXPEDITION.

Newsy Letters From Christian Endeavorers Now at Dawson.

TWO SENIORS LEAVE THE U. C.

The Klondyke Craze Increasing as Every Vessel Sails North.

The South Alaska Mining and Development Company of San Francisco has been incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000 The object of the company, as set forth in the articles of incorporation, is to own, operate develop, buy and sell mines and mining property of every description, also to build and construct ditches, flumes, and develop and prospect mines and mineral lands of every description, and to own and control water rights and to carry on a general mining and assaying business and other incidental branches of business

The schooner La Ninfa, which has been on the mud in the estuary for many months, has been purchased and is being fitted out for a years trip north. Captain P. Sonered of Lorin will be in command

The seven original subscribers are Henry T Renton president Charles O Lafne vice-president Richard B Tripp secretary, Charles Greene, treasurer, Frank T Gerst, storekeeper and supervisor, George L Decoty and many members of the new organization are practical mining men President Renton claims to be familiar with every inch of Alaska especially the southern portion where the company will do its prospecting The expedition has accepted a $5 000 estimate for provisions from a San Francisco firm The total expenses of the expedition will aggregate $12 000 Each man will pay about $240 which is calculated to cover everything The expedition will confine itself to southern Alaska, and not venture to the Clondyke region If success attends the prospectors' efforts it is the plan for the men to return next summer for their families and establish a colony

The Chetes and El Sueno, both yachts will probably leave for the north in a few days Work on the El Sueno began to-day

Letters have been received from Lawrence D Ward and Will Clark, the members of Prospect Hill Presbyterian Church Endeavor Union, who went north eighteen months ago and who are now at Dawson

As soon as the two Endeavorers left the steamer at Juneau to go through the White Pass they determined that they could not travel on Sunday They were true to their principle and although they left Juneau with others who traveled every day they arrived at Dawson exactly at the same time Their earlier letters tell of their little praise and prayer meetings en route and of the increased efforts they were able to make because of their day of rest Their friends who disregarded the Sabbath broke up the track and left a good trail for the Oaklanders to follow

An interesting little incident happened the day before Dawson was reached The men who rushed ahead seven days a week struck a wrong trail and they were two days getting back They regained the right path just in time to meet Clark and Ward and all arrived together The Fruitvale boys claim the distinction of being the pioneer Endeavorers of the Yukon

Arthur Clark Fred Collins and Ed Sutherland all employes of the Oakland Iron Works left here in the spring of 95 and spent the summer in Alaska They returned in the fall and went back to work On January 15 1896, they started out again, all fitted for a long expedition Lawrence Ward and Will Clark two more of the employes, left at the same time They took the steamer Umatilla to Juneau and then traveled overland via the White Pass They each took sleds built here and two tons of provisions

It is not an easy matter to get letters from Dawson to Juneau There are frequent opportunities during the summer, but it is often difficult to get mail from the many little settlements of miners in the surrounding districts Some of the letters are carried by Indians, and others look as if they had been dropped into dirty water or kept alongside of a ham and it is very evident that it would be very little use trying to locate a missing letter

In a letter to his parents, Ward says 'We have reached the wonderful Clondyke, and it is really all and more than the reports have been for every day it shows up better A man found a nugget that weighed ten pounds and you see what that means at $17 an ounce

There are several men here that did not have enough money last fall to buy provisions for the winter that are worth more than half a million now Wages are $15 per day in the mines and $10 in the city

The day I wrote to you last (May 17) I had the luck to shoot a caribou or wild reindeer that weighed about 400 pounds We were floating down the river about 8 P M (light all night), and I saw him on the river bank We let the boat float within about 150 yards from him, and then I shot, but only one out of four hit him, but that was all that was needed for it went through his lungs and as soon as he was hit he made a leap into the river to swim across I suppose but he did not swim his own length before he keeled over as dead as a door nail We drifted onto him put a rope on his neck and floated on down till we found a nice camp where we pulled him out and dressed him When we reached Clondyke we sold him at 50 cents a pound

'The reports and prospects get better every day and there are stampedes in all directions nearly every hour'

H B M Miller, W G D Miller, O B Lomax Alfred Cane F B Hood leave to-day on the Walla Walla for the Klondyke The expedition is well equipped taking 6800 pounds of baggage a medicine chest a legal outfit, $5 000 in cash two boats two sledges

All these gold hunters live at Golden Gate Hood is a mining man, and civil engineer, and Miller is the well-known attorney

This expedition has not taken any chances, they also have two carts, each twenty-six inches wide and six feet long each weighing 1 000 pounds They will be gone two years

Joseph Jarvis of the College of Medicine and his cousin Will James of the College of Civil Engineering are planning an expedition to the Clondyke

John Hawkins, a coal dealer at 1724 Seventh street left for the Clondyke this morning He has not however, burned the bridge behind him for in his absence, Mrs John Hawkins will manage the coal yard

BOUNDARY LINES NOT IN DISPUTE.

Canada's Secretary of State Says Great Britain and America Agree

By Associated Press to The Tribune.

OTTAWA Ont Aug 4—R W Scott, Secretary of State was interviewed regarding the statement from Washington, claiming that Great Britain on the official maps had drawn the boundary line on the Pacific Coast so as to deprive the United States of hundreds of miles of territory adjoining the Clondyke gold fields

He said he had gone into the question with a member of the Mackenzie administration in 1878 and the point now raised was discussed then

The treaty of St Petersburg of 1825,' said he, 'defines the line dividing Russian territory now Alaska from British by a line drawn north from the foot of Prince of Wales Island through Portland channel until it struck the mountains when the method of delineation was set forth The map will show that a line running north from the foot of Prince of Wales Island must go through the Behm canal and that to reach Portland canal the line would have to go east through the open sea a considerable distance before it could reach Portland channel or canal

"The British contention, as shown by the dispatches of George Canning to Sir Charles Bagot, when British Ambassador of St Petersburg is that Portland was to be in British territory and that the words 'Portland canal in the convention was a mistake for Behm canal or else what is now called Portland canal was not then so called This is supported by the physical impossibility of running a line due north through Portland canal from the foot of Prince of Wales Island so that Canadian maps show the boundary line as running north through the Behm canal

'The difference is great, in view of the discoveries of gold, and it can only be settled by an international arbitration

The disputed territory with the ten marine leagues back from the coast added could not however embrace the present gold fields of the Clondyke which are clearly in British territory, because they are well east of the 141st meridian which is the recognized boundary to the north.'

PAWNED HER JEWELRY.

A Boarder Robs His Landlady and Makes His Escape

Mrs Fanny M Mather, who keeps a lodging house at 225 Mason street, has recovered a valuable diamond ring which was stolen from her house in the latter part of May

Mrs Mather located the ring at the pawn shop of Hyman & Smith at 811 Broadway and yesterday afternoon accompanied by Detective Shorey and a search warrant, recovered the property

This morning Judge Allen made an order restoring the property to Mrs Mather.

Mrs Mather claims that the ring was stolen by a man named 'Dutchy' Carr who, she says formerly lodged at her house According to her story jewelry to the extent of $600 or $700 was stolen and pawned in San Francisco by Carr Among the articles was a watch and chain which she prizes very highly The ring she says was a present from a San Francisco judge She believes that Carr is now in Montana

Carr lived at her lodging house under the name of Heath and it was under that name that he pawned the jewelry.

THE REASONS FOR DR. BROWN'S LETTER.

He Wished to Appear the Challenger Instead of the Challenged.

Bay Conference Wrote a Letter That Had a Disturbing Effect.

The underlying reason for Dr C O. Brown's writing his celebrated letter to the Bay Conference demanding a re-adjustment of his case, has at length transpired The Bay Conference wrote to the Chicago association and Dr Brown, hearing a rumor that the letter would be written, wrote so that he would appear as the challenger instead of the challenged.

Dr Brown's letter was dated the 24th of June, while the following communication from the Bay Conference reached Chicago not later than July 18th

To the Registrar of the Chicago Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers—Dear Sir and Brother —Information having reached us of the action of your association in voting to receive Rev C O Brown into the membership of your body upon the alleged credentials issued by the Dubuque Association of Iowa and this in spite of the protest of the Bay Conference of which body the said Rev C O Brown is a member under suspension this is to notify your association through you its registrar

That the Bay Conference regards the action of Chicago Association as contravening the established principles of Congregational polity and therefore as invalid and void of effect

That the Bay Conference has not dismissed the said Rev C O Brown from membership nor modified the vote of suspension recorded against him, so that he is in fact and must be until regularly reinstated or dismissed a member of the Bay Conference under suspension

That in due time and by proper Congregational procedure the Bay Conference will undoubtedly ask your association to reconsider its action in the interests of order and fellowship and to enter with the Bay Conference upon some fitting plan which shall promise a settlement of this vexed matter Please transmit this notification to your association in such a way as you shall know best how to do, and believe us to be, yours fraternally

BURNED HIS BRIDGE.

Bot Shot From the Secretary of the Owl Drug Co

Los Angeles Express July 29th.

'Rather a sweeping assertion that you make in a morning paper concerning physicians' said an Express representative to Mr R E Miller, secretary of the Owl Drug Company

'Well, I mean it every word of it,' said Mr Miller 'Let any man review his experience with doctors and he will find that they have levied tribute in more ways than one Not content with the emoluments of their chosen profession, which in any event are large enough without perquisites, they almost invariably insist upon their patients going to some particular drug store, usually one with which they have previously made an arrangement for commissions upon their prescriptions

No greater insult to the intelligence of the afflicted could be offered than this, and it is about time that people generally should be made acquainted with the real facts No good reason exists why people should not buy drugs as they buy everything else Quality being considered but where you can buy cheapest Gold will be given for impurities found in our compounds and the help in our prescription department is the most efficient obtainable, and so far as our prices are concerned I have simply to say that we believe in giving our patrons that which would go to the doctors, did we lend ourselves to the furtherance of their nefarious schemes

This custom of exacting double toll is the more deplorable because as a rule people who are in need of doctors and medicines are incapacitated for work and their revenues are cut off

'We have earned the gratitude of such people and prove our title to it by irrevocably espousing the cause of the afflicted as against the mercenary practices of physicians and druggists in league with them

We value the patronage of the former above the friendship of the latter and are prepared to stand or fall by the declaration thus publicly made'

GUARDSMEN WANT EXCLUSIVE UNIFORMS.

Strong Objections to the Insignia of Service Being Worn by Everybody.

The National Guard is greatly incensed because many non-military organizations use uniforms exactly similar to the militia Last night Company F, Fifth Infantry met and passed the following resolution

"Armory Co F, Fifth Infantry, N G C

'Major John F Hayes commanding the Second Battalion, Oakland Cal

'Whereas The members of Company F Fifth Infantry Second Brigade, N G C, having been made acquainted with the action of the Illinois State Legislature in passing an act prohibiting the wearing of State militia uniforms by other than those who are members of said organization, and whereas they have also been made acquainted with the fact that semi-military organizations in this State are wearing the National Guard uniform, therefore be it

Resolved That Company F Fifth Infantry, Second Brigade N G C is opposed to such use of their uniform, and respectfully ask that our superior officers exert themselves to the end that a similar law be passed by our next State Legislature'

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" To prevent colds and rheumatism, when you have got wet or chilled, use promptly a little of the famous old Jesse Moore Whiskey.

ESTIMATES OF FIRE AND POLICE CHIEFS.

Twenty-five Additional Men Will Cost Just Thirty Thousand.

Petitions Filed Asking That Chief Lloyd Be Retained in Office

At the meeting of the Police and Fire Commissioners this morning protests which were signed by a large number of tax payers against the removal of Chief of Police Lloyd were filed

Nothing was said in regard to the removal of Chief Fair of the Fire Department.

Chief Lloyd submitted an estimate of the probable expenses of his Department for the ensuing year

He estimates that $760 will be required for the office, $2 840 for the City Prison, $2 460 for the Patrol House, $180 for the Sixth street locker, $350 an emergency fund, and $65 295 for salaires and expenses

A supplemental estimate of $30 000 for twenty-five additional policemen showed that the Chief has not yet given up the idea of inducing the Council to increase his force

The total expenses for the Department with the additional policemen would be $101 000

An estimate of the cost for running the Fire Department for the ensuing year was filed It showed that $123, 896 33 will probably be required for that purpose.

WANT SEVENTH STREET TO BE REDRESSED.

West Oakland Improvement Club Is Ready for Another Step Forward.

The matter of redressing streets was explained to the West Oakland Improvement Club last night by Street Superintendent Miller who had been asked to visit the organization

Mr Miller stated that it is proposed to redress the streets and they will last from ten to fifteen years They are now getting the sweeping done for $3 39 per mile, which is an exceedingly low figure The cost for redressing is now twenty cents per front foot and was formerly $1 50 to $2 00 for the same work The steam roller does the work expeditiously and very satisfactorily

Councilmen Henneberry and Cuvelier addressed the meeting at length Mr Henneberry said some opposition was met with regarding the laying of sidewalks some of the property owners being opposed But taking in consideration the low cost of the work and the improvement to the section, it is hoped that people may be induced to comply with the city ordinance without any trouble A committee consisting of Messrs Christian, Bullock and Colburn was appointed to interview the property owners along Seventh street regarding the redressing of that thoroughfare

TWO BIG CONTRACTS.

An Oakland Firm Bids Successfully for Building Irrigation Canals.

ADGIE AND THE LIONS.

Exposition Hall will undoubtedly be crowded during the four-night engagement of Adgie the wonderful Spanish dancer, who dances in a den of lions Adgie will open her engagement in this city this evening The performance is described as one of the most daring and reckless feats ever given by any lion tamer Her beasts are unusually ferocious and yet she dances gracefully and lightly within reach of their monstrous paws and cruel jaws

During Adgie's recent engagement at the Orpheum in San Francisco the house was crowded nightly with people desirous of seeing this novel and clever performance.

Seats are now selling for Adgie's engagement in this city.

Some Fine Plums

Arren Brown has a cherry plum tree on his place on School street, off Fruitvale avenue, that is producing a wonderful crop of the luscious fruit A branch of the tree has been exhibited in the Tribune office during the day and has elicited a great deal of interest from passers-by The branch is only about one and a half feet in length but is thickly set with plums On counting them it was found that no less than sixty plums just turning to a deep red, clung to the twig.

The Corporation Yard.

Superintendent of Streets Miller has been looking around today for a site for the new corporation yard. The City Council at its last meeting apropriated $20 a month for that purpose Mr Miller has inspected several lots but the one which he looks upon most favorably is situated at Fifteenth and Franklin streets and is a part of the Bacon estate It is more than likely that it will be chosen

HAZING IN THE HIGH SCHOOL.

The Older Boys Terrorize the Chaps in Short Trousers.

Director Gray Characterizes the State of Affairs as Disgraceful.

The High school pupils have been accused of hazing. According to Director Gray of the Board of Education, "the hazing in the High school this term has been disgraceful."

The authorities in direct charge of the school have declared that there has been little or no hazing, although Principal McChesney reluctantly admits that the older boys may have teased the younger boys a little.

Among the incoming class were many small boys who, although they had left the bread and butter days of the Grammar school behind them, had not graduated into long trousers. Their short pants were derided by the older boys, who dubbed the newcomers "babies," "infants" and so on.

Neither was their scorn confined to a liberal taunting but the little boys were subjected to other indignities.

This was the state of affairs that Director Gray characterized as disgraceful. The director made his charge at a committee meeting of the Board of Education at which Principal McChesney was also in attendance.

"Do you know anything about the hazing Mr McChesney?" queried the director.

"Why, no that is nothing definite," stammered the principal.

"Well, then you ought to," returned Director Gray. "I believe that the treatment the small boys received was disgraceful."

In spite of Director Gray's protest, nothing was done to put a stop to the hazing save Director Evans suggestion that the small boys put on long trousers and then the trouble would cease.

The hazing is now carried on more quietly, as Principal McChesney has been officially informed that hazing is going on, and is therefore intent on suppressing it as much as possible. Mr McChesney was seen in regard to the matter and although he was at first loath to discuss the subject, he at length answered a few questions.

"I do not think you could really say the older boys had been hazing the younger ones," said he. "To be sure there has been some teasing and nagging, as there always is when a new class enters but it is growing quiet and in a short time there will be no more of it."

The small boys are afraid to tell of their trials and troubles but it is openly whispered in the High school that since "rushing" was prohibited the older boys have instituted a system of secretly hazing the freshmen.

WALL PAPER, AND WINDO

What the Eastern People Think of the Berkeley Institution.

IT ATTRACTS MUCH ATTENTION

Competiton Among Architects for the New Buildings.

GENEROSITY OF MRS. HEARST.

She Will Pay the Preliminary Expenses in Securing Plans.

The Sun of New York prints the following regarding the State University, which is of interest to every citizen on this coast:

The President of the University of California, one of the trustees, and one of the State Board of Regents, have inaugurated a movement which, if their plans are carried out, will result ultimately in the demolition of the present buildings and the erection of new ones on a most elaborate scale. The scheme has already been broached to a number of architects, some of them in this city. One of these, who intends to enter the proposed competition, outlined the plan to a Sun reporter yesterday.

The University of California was established by an act of the State Legislature, approved March 23, 1868. It was the outgrowth of the College of California, which was chartered in 1855, and maintained on a non-sectarian basis. The University is located at Berkeley, five miles north of Oakland and nine miles from San Francisco. The land included in the campus and occupied by the buildings embraces about 250 acres. Adjoining the University property on three sides, at least, there is land enough that may be required to meet the requirements of an enlarged institution, no matter how ambitious the scheme may be. The Constitution of the State of California directs that the expense of maintaining the University shall be met by a State tax, whose amount shall be equivalent to the cost of maintenance, less the revenue of the institution.

All of the buildings face the west, and from the campus one may look out through the Golden Gate at twilight and watch the sun go down in the waters of the Pacific. Back of the college buildings the foothills of the Coast Range rise in gentle ascent to meet the mountains further east. The present buildings on the campus include North Hall, South Hall, the Hall of Mechanics, the library, which contains 40,000 volumes; Agricultural Hall, the gymnasium and the students' observatory. The buildings not on the campus, but belonging to the University, are the professional schools at San Francisco, including the Hastings Law School, the Toland Medical College, the Dental College, and the College of Pharmacy, besides the Lick Observatory at Mount Hamilton. The institution is co-educational.

A few years ago B. R. Mayback was called to the chair of architecture at the University. He is a graduate of the School of Fine Arts in Paris, and practiced his profession in this city for several years before going to California. Not long after he assumed charge of the department of architecture he began to think of the University's future. As he thought, he planned for it. Finally, he submitted his plans to the Board of Trustees and the State Board of Regents. The University which he had in mind was planned on too broad a scale for the trustees. They told the professor that he was visionary, and that if he would keep right on teaching that would be all they would require of him.

That's the way the trustees as a body talked. One of them, J. B. Reinstein, however, thought more of the young architect's ideas than the rest of the trustees. Mr. Reinstein is a lawyer in San Francisco, and a man of boundless energy. He had several talks with Professor Maybeck, and the oftener he talked the more convinced he became of the feasibility of the professor's scheme. Finally, after the two had been discussing the matter one day, Mr. Reinstein said:

"Professor Maybeck, that scheme can be carried through. I believe in it, and I'll help you with it."

Then Mr. Reinstein went to work. He interested a number of wealthy Californians in the scheme. The one who promised him most substantial support was Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst, widow of United States Senator George Hearst. Mrs. Hearst promised to defray the expenses of preparing plans for the new University. Then Mr. Reinstein went to work as follows, in the words of the architect with whom the reporter talked.

"When Mr. Reinstein had been assured of enough money to do the preliminary work, he entered into correspondence with all the architects of any prominence in all parts of the country. In his letters he asked for suggestions for a University that, like the Constitution of the United States, should meet all the necessities of the future. He also asked for opinions of those written as to the wisdom of inviting an international competition in drawing plans among the architects of the world. All of those replies he kept and from them he made notes.

"Then he and Mr. Maybeck made a tour of the country, from California to New York, and from Canada to the Gulf. They stopped in every large city, consulted the leading architects and made notes of what they heard. Mr. Reinstein even went so far as to find out whether the architects who have the big reputations really did their own heavy work or had it done by clerks in their offices. He consulted the architects of the various cities singly and at meetings called for the purpose.

"When they arrived in New York, the leading architects here entertained Mr. Reinstein and Mr. Maybeck at the Federation of Fine Arts. Then the scheme was laid before us. We were told that the State of California wanted to build the finest University in the world. This University was to be not only the finest now, but it must be so planned that it would be the finest in the future. The general scheme had to provide buildings for the present, and it also had to provide for buildings to be erected in the future. Each of us was invited to submit plans which should show our conception of a great University now and our conception of what a great University should be 100 years hence.

"We learned that in all probability the great plan would not be carried out at once. In fact, we were told that only such buildings would be built as could be paid for with the money raised. But there would be more money some time if it were not all on hand to complete the University according to the plan or plans accepted. Then, when other buildings should be built, the desire was to have them conform, in style and in architecture, to those already erected. In other words, they wanted plans for buildings which, whether erected next year or in 1998, would follow one general scheme. We were appalled almost at the magnitude of the scheme, but we all thought it a grand one. Few of the New York architects, however, favored the scheme of an international competition.

"After leaving here Mr. Reinstein and Mr. Maybeck went to Europe. They visited England, France, Italy, Germany, Austria, and Hungary. They consulted, as they had in this country, the most famous architects. In all the countries they visited they were received with the greatest enthusiasm by the architects, except in England. Their reception was cold. English architects didn't take to the scheme. In Paris, the venerable Garnier, when he heard of the scheme, invited Reinstein and Maybeck to his house, and had himself propped up on pillows to hear their plan. Having heard, he gave it his unqualified approval, and promised all the assistance that his age and infirmities would permit.

"Returning from Europe, the two ambassadors, as I may call them, of the University, reported to the trustees and the State Board of Regents. So favorably was the report received that a committee of three, consisting of one trustee, one regent, and the President of the college, was appointed to conduct the preliminary work.

"Influenced by the favor of the foreign architects of an international competition in the making of the plans, the committee decided to invite such a competition. Then they secured the services of Gaudet, Professor of Theory in the School of Fine Arts in Paris, to draft a prospectus. Gaudet is at work on this now, and expects to have it completed early in the autumn. This prospectus will describe the site for the University, the lay of the ground, and the number of acres of land upon which buildings may be erected. Then will follow an invitation to the architects of the world to submit plans for a University on the largest scale they can conceive.

The regents have secured the services of a jury of famous architects. The jury is to be made up of Pascal of France, Paul Wallot of Germany, Thiersch of Austria, Ziegler of Hungary, Zaconni of Italy, Norman Shaw of England, and one from this country who is yet to be chosen. In addition to this jury an Advisory Board has been chosen, including Alma Tadema, Puvis de Chavannes, Andre and Lanciani, landscape architects of France and Italy, and Knaus of Germany. To this board is to be added an American member, who is likely to be Augustus St. Gaudens. The business of the Advisory Board will be to see that the buildings are erected in such places as will best conserve and enhance the beauty of the landscape, and that the interior decorations harmonize.

"The jury will meet in Antwerp at the end of the time set for the submission of plans, and there they will judge of their merits. The architect whose plans, as a whole, are judged to be best, will probably be selected as the supervising architect, while the three or four whose plans are adjudged to be the next best will probably be selected to assist in the supervision of the work. The jury and the Advisory Board are to be perpetual. When a member dies the others are to elect his successor. The object of this is to insure against the possibility of someone getting on the jury or the Advisory Board who will want to change the adopted scheme of the buildings.

"In addition to paying the expenses of this preliminary work, Mrs. Hearst is, as I understand it, to contribute the money for the principal building. A fund of about $4,000,000 has already been pledged by citizens of California, and the rest of the money is to be raised by annual appropriations from the State treasury.

"In order that no architect shall undertake such a stupendous task with the possibility of no remuneration, prizes are to be awarded among those competing. There may be one set of plans far superior to all the rest. Yet there may be many suggestions conveyed in the plans of others that it may be advisable to adopt. Therefore every architect submitting plans in which there is anything of value, will receive a prize.

"As soon as the prospectus is drafted it will be printed in all the living languages and sent to all the countries of the world. You can understand, though, that the conception of such a University will require such depth and breadth of thought that only the best architects will stand a show in the competition. The prospectus will, of course, state the time at which the plans must be submitted.

PROVEN A SUCCESS.

The Central Grammar School Is No Longer an Experiment.

That the Central school is no longer on experiment is demonstrated by the fact that the enrollment of scholars this term exceeds 500. The classes in cooking and sewing will be crowded, there being now about 120 girls who will take this course. One class has forty pupils, when twenty compose the usual class. The cooking and sewing will alternate, arrangements for which have not as yet been completed. The manual training department, under Professor Gleason, is also filled. Principal Fisher feels confident of a very successful term.

"If any of ye know just cause or impediment why these two persons should not be joined together in Holy Matrimony, ye are to declare it, or forever after hold your peace." If physicians obeyed this solemn admonition in the marriage ceremony and protested with the honest and scientific reasons in their possession half of the unhappiness, sickness and death in the world would cease to exist. The man or woman who has developed symptoms of that dread disease consumption should not marry until cured. Consumption should bar the way to wedded life. It is a crime to transmit to future generations the death-dealing germs in the blood of the consumptive.

Many physicians pronounce consumption an incurable disease. In this they are mistaken as thousands will testify. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. It corrects all disorders of the digestion. It promptly improves the appetite and makes it keen and hearty. It fills the blood with the tissue-building elements of the food, and acting directly upon the lungs, drives out all impurities and disease germs. It makes rich, pure blood, builds new, firm, healthy flesh, and strong, springy muscles. It soothes and invigorates the nerves. Thousands have testified to their permanent recovery from consumption through its use, after they were given up by the doctors and all hope was gone. Druggists sell it and nothing else is "just as good."

There cannot be too many good, practical books in a home. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is a good practical book for husbands, wives, mothers, daughters and sons. MRS. JENNIE SAUNFERS,
1016 West 7th st., Los Angeles, Cal.

This is to certify that Dr. Tom She Bin has cured me of that dreadful disease known as heart disease, and also of weak lungs. I do make this deposition for the especial benefit of those suffering similar ailments. I must say that I was treated by the best doctor in Chicago, and after I lost all hopes I concluded to come to San Francisco for a change of climate, and immediately I heard of the wonderful cures of Dr. Tom She Bin, so I consulted him, with such good luck that after one month and a half from the time he started to treat my case I felt entirely well.

MRS. E. FRENCK,
409 Thomas Street, Chicago, Ill.

I, the undersigned, do recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as one of the best doctors to cure rheumatism, having been suffering for three years, and also been under the treatment of six skillful doctors for four months without feeling any relief. I determined to set myself under the care of Dr. Tom She Bin, who gave me immediate relief, and in the course of five weeks I was enjoying good health.

PANFILO MURILLO,
Pomona, California.

My son, nine years of age, utterly prostrated with typhoid fever for six weeks, he was under the explicit care of hospital doctors, but without avail. All his body was declared incurable. I heard the name of Doctor Tom She Bin, and at once was induced to see him, and I left my son to his absolute care. Fifteen days after my son was able to play around the yard. I fully believe Doctor Tom She Bin saved my son's life.

CARRIE CONTRERAS,
630 Mission Road, Los Angeles, Cal.

San Francisco, February 14th, 1897.

The undersigned does hereby recommend Dr. Tom She Bin as the only competent doctor. He has cured me entirely from throat disease, which many doctors declared incurable. J. A. OWENS,
Euclid Block, N. Los Angeles, Cal.

San Francisco, January 31st, 1897.

I, John A. Fain, do hereby certify that I suffered with piles for over twelve years. Dr. Tom She Bin cured me in very short time.

San Francisco, February 26th, 1897.

I have been suffering under the most dreadful disease for two years past, and lost all hopes of recovering, being unable to move for four months. At last I concluded to take Dr. Tom She Bin's Wonderful Chinese herbs, and in six weeks after my health was completely restored.

J. E. MEDRAN,
756 Workman St., East Los Angeles, Cal.

Montenzou, Cal., March 1st, 1897.

I write this letter for the benefit of any one who may be in trouble, as I have been. About fourteen years ago I was taken sick. The doctors pronounced it ulceration of the stomach and said it would end in a cancer.

At times I would vomit a black and bloody looking matter, also a great deal of white mucus. The disease would make me very nervous and despondent. At different times during my ailment I would get some relief for a few months, then it would come back as bad or worse than ever. I doctored with several as good doctors as I could find in the East and also here in California, but none of them effected a cure.

I was advised to consult Dr. Tom She Bin, which I did about the 1st of October, 1892.

He said my trouble was the cancer of the stomach. I comenced taking his medicine immediately. For the first three or four months there seemed to be but a very little change. After that time I improved very fast and am now able to do quite a good day's work. I have every reason to believe he has effected a permanent cure for me. J. L. CARPENTER,
San Francisco, March 2, 1897.

I saw Dr. Tom She Bin's advertisement. I first come up to 615 Kearny street to feel my pulse. He tell me what trouble I had, was true. I had a pain over my body, and chilly. I put my case to him; first week I take Chinese Herb; one week I was great deal better. I been sick for six years. I go to white physician, cannot do me any good. I take Dr. Tom She Bin's Herb six week; I was all well. I was cured about one year and never pain again.

SPORTING NEWS

The Acme Club Will Give a Big Entertainment This Month.

ATHLETICS ARE FLOURISHING.

City and County Officials Are Excited Over the Ball Game.

OAKLAND'S TROTTING PARK

It Has Few Equals and No Superiors in the Country.

There have been some decidedly interesting events in the sporting world during the last week and the announcements show that the coming week will not be dull to the lovers of athletics.

The Acme Club has renominated its present officers for another term and it also announces a superior evening's entertainment for the end of the month.

Reliance affairs are also in a flourishing condition, and the work of the club's baseball game is the cause of congratulations all along the line.

The game of baseball between representatives of the city and county is attracting considerable attention and is being looked forward to with great interest. It will certainly be a society event.

THE UMPIRE.

The people of Oakland and vicinity are beginning to realize what a great advantage the Oakland Trotting Park is to the place.

Not only have Mr. Williams and his associates spent thousands of dollars in making the track and grounds what they are, but the amount of advertising in the East and on the coast which the city receives from the fact that the races are held here is almost incomparable.

There are but few such tracks in the United States as we of Oakland have at our very doors and each year that fact will become better known and more famous racers will be sent to this coast in consequence.

But not only is this true of our sporting prosperity. Every department of commercial life will feel, sooner or later, the importance of the advertising thus obtained.

* * *

Just at present the Pacific Coast Trotting Horse Breeders' Association is conducting a series of successful races at the track. The series opened last Saturday under the most favorable circumstances, there being over 200 thoroughbred animals at the track.

It is the beginning of the California circuit, which promises to be finer than ever before, and if some low records are not smashed before the racing closes next Saturday, there will be plenty to wonder at for years to come.

Already some excellent trots have been pulled off. One is particularly noteworthy.

In the first race Monday Jack W., a horse which the horsemen say has a future, made the mile in 2:12¾, the world's record made by St. Julien in 1879 on the same course. In honor of St. Julien's record the old judge's stand has been left on the land between the track entrance and the grand stand, and on the old stand may be read St. Julien's name and record.

* * *

A New York correspondent of the California Turf has the following to say in regard to the Oakland race track as compared to the tracks in the East:

"It has been repeatedly shied at the San Franciscans by Eastern sport 'that the tracks and races of San Francisco—at Ingleside and Oakland—are not in it with those East of the Rockies.' The New York race track follower has always been conspicuous with his sneering remarks and attempts to belittle anything outside of New York. The average California sportsman, although feeling sure that the New Yorker was 'blowing' too much to be reliable, was more of a gentleman and allowed the remarks to pass unchallenged, believing that in time things would right themselves.

"Now, here I am, in New York, after having inspected most of the best tracks in Illinois and this State, and the conclusion arrived at is that the race tracks of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club at Ingleside and the California Jockey Club at Oakland are the peers of those in either of the aforementioned States. The racing is every whit as clean and as good, even though California has not all the great crack horses.

"The transportation to and from the California tracks—especially the ones named—is 100 per cent better than any here East. The manner of conducting the racing and giving the results of the races, I consider, are far behind the methods in vogue on your San Francisco tracks. The sports may attempt to maintain that such ought to be the case, seeing that your tracks are but two or three years old; but why don't the Eastern jockey clubs keep up to the times?

"To visit the New York tracks and see several hundreds of bookmakers perched on high stools or standing in straight rows and marshaled by policemen, makes any one, who is a true sport at heart, have the greatest contempt for the Eastern bookmakers. They dare not voice the odds on the horses and scarcely whisper it in your ears, so thoroughly cowed have they become under the lash of Dr. Parkhurst and his reform company. In the bookmakers' ranks at one of the so-called first-class tracks I noticed two notorious layers of odds who had been barred off every race course across the Pond and also in the Southern Hemisphere. They recognized me, but I didn't take any of their odds, although, no doubt, I would have fared well at their hands."

Baseball is still booming and the Oakland clubs seem to be more than holding their own with the other teams in the tournament.

The enthusiasm has even reached the staid representatives of the city and county and in the near future these gentlemen will do battle on the diamond field for sweet charity's sake.

While there has been considerable fun on this account the gentlemen are really in earnest and no one need be surprised to see a superior game of ball when the teams come together. Most all of them are old ball players, and they may be able to get back into their old form by a little hard practice.

While on the subject of base ball a word of commendation for the Reliance nine may be in order. The games which have been played by the Reliance men have all been of a character that may be pointed to with pride by the Reliance athletes.

The Illustrated American, a New York weekly, of the issue of July 31st, contains excellent photographs of Sam Hardy of Oakland and George Whitney of San Francisco and gives a vivid description of the great tennis game played between these men at San Rafael on July 5th—the game in which Hardy lost Oakland the championship of the coast.

It is pleasing to note the fact that the Acme Club intends to continue giving its "nights," both gentlemen's and ladies', which have proved so successful in the past. Along toward the end of this month another gentlemen's night will be given and the club's events in the past are a sufficient guarantee that it will be a success.

It is sincerely to be hoped that the Reliance will fall in line.

The Acme Club has done another graceful thing in nominating its present officers for the ensuing year. Judge Allen, as president of the club, has shown himself capable of taking care of the club's interests in a manner highly satisfactory to the club's members, and his enthusiasm in the club's success is certainly contagious.

The other officers deserve the honor of re-nomination for efficient services rendered and it is generally conceded that the action of the nominating committee will be endorsed by all persons concerned. THE UMPIRE.

AMONG THE ACMES.

The Club Has a Lot of Interesting Events for the Future.

The initial ladies' night at the Acme Club exceeded the expectation of the most sanguine. The gymnasium was packed with a select and appreciative audience and the programme, purely athletic, was a suprise to the audience. The object was to present to the lady friends of the members an exhibition that would exemplify a class night in the gynasium, and ever feature of club work was presented. Not in as complete a form but in a manner to illustrate the exercises with which the members were occupied. A performance of this kind will be repeated about every three months.

A number of the members of the Olympic Club were present and they were reminded of the well patronized ladies' nights which they used to give and wished a return to the old times. Geader Haderfeit was over with his bill of fare comprising about two feet of paper in its composition. Everything from sausages to mince pies was included, and after the discussion of the feast he was pronounced an undisputed success on a club run lunch.

As the 9 o'clock creek boat steered into the wharf at the foot of Broadway last Sunday morning, forty-two of the Acme wheelmen dismounted at the slip and out among the crowd peered numerous caps ornamented with what is humorously called the "winged doughnut," or more correctly the winged "O" of the Olympic Club. Wheel after wheel rolled from the Garden City and were received by the Acme members, till along Broadway was strewn the longest parade of bicycles it has seen for many a day.

It was the starting of the joint run of the Olympic Club and Acme Club wheelmen. From the boat Captain Shedd of the Acme, directed the procession to the Acme Club, where all dismounted and the Olympians were shown through the new club rooms.

All were charmed with the arrangement. What were particularly attractive were the hand ball court, the well ventilated and well lighted, spacious gymnasium and the swimming tank.

Captain Havdenfelt of the Olympics thought the club building an ideal one just large enough to handle and possessing every accommodation. After the club had been visited, down Broadway Captain Shedd of the Acmes led the procession of local and visiting wheelmen across the swampy road that rocks and rolls you from Oakland to Alameda and shames both towns; out to Santa Clara avenue and thence to Central avenue and through the pretty little city across the estuary, and by this route over to High street and the county road and on to San Leandro without a stop. Here a halt was made till the column of wheelmen could bunch again. From thence to Lake Chabot, where the Contra Costa Water Company had sent up tables to the shade of the big trees, and the load of provisions were waiting to be demolished.

The day was bright,—just warm enough to start the prespiration freely. The pace was easy, about ten miles an hour, and every one was easily in the bunch through the whole ride.

At the lake wheels were stacked and the riders betook themselves to the lower lake, which is made by the overflow of the main lake and only a practical wheelman can fully realize how good this swimming was. By the time the bathers returned, the tables were spread,—or more correctly speaking,—loaded. The feast would have made a full man hungry. Amidst story and song it disappeared and one hundred hungry wheelmen said it was the greatest run they had ever made.

The following members attended:

Olympic—Captain H. D. Hadenfeldt, J. A. Mullen, H. R. Ramsey, K. Boyd, G. H. Hanson, C. A. Easton, G. H. Stratton, Douglass White, H. Richter, C. Parker, R. Love, H. Bodefeldt, R. Paddock, W. H. At the annual convention the following candidates were placed in nomination: President, J. J. Allen; vice president, A. P. Swain; secretary, J. P. Cook; treasurer, C. H. Hawbaker; leader, C. H. Staples; field captain, Henry Tank; cycling captain, J. S. Shedd; directors, Messrs. Hannan, Scanlan, Carroll, Revolk, Woolner, Wagor, Donnelly, Burd and Wolf. The election will be held August 31st.

The next gentlemen's night will be held about the end of August. A match is now about arranged between either Simpson or Hawkins of the Acmes and Granfield of the San Francisco Athletic Club.

The annual entertainment at the McDonough will be repeated next December and Clay Hawbaker, the veteran show man and treasurer of the club is organizing a minstrel company among the members of the club.

Active practice will commence now and continue till the night of the entertainment. This will be the best show the club has ever given.

DOINGS AT THE RELIANCE.

A Large Number of Club Members Have Returned Home.

Percy Mott will ride at the Portland bicycle meet on the 14th and 15th of August.

Another long victory has been added to the already long list of baseball successes. In their contest with the Santa Clara team, the Reliance boys displayed their wonted ability.

Great interest centers about next Sunday's contest, when the Reliance and Santa Cruz teams meet upon the diamond and, as these teams are reputed the foremost in the season's tournament, a right royal battle is anticipated.

Captain Gross, Percy Deacon, Burt Burrill and Dan Williamson are now encamped on the banks of Eel River, Mendocino County. They report sport abundant.

Robert Fitzgerald, James Ames, Charles Lovell ad Cal Ewing have returned from their camping trip to Niles Canyon.

Morey and Jim Jellett are back from their sojourn from their camping trip at Highland Springs.

Herman Tubbs leaves tomorrow for Placer County, where he will remain for a brief time.

Superintendent Gross has returned from Stanislaus County.

Professor Fox's boxing class is nightly increasing in numbers. It promises to be prolific of some very clever boxers.

Preparations are being made for a ladies' night and a gentlemen's night, which are to be held some time this month. Some excellent men are matched for the goes.

THE GREAT GAME APPROACHES

City and County Officials Prepare for a Big Contest.

The interest in the proposed baseball game between the city and county officials is unabated. In fact, it seems to increase as the days go by and more than one man with a political job is seen limping around the court house or city hall these days.

For the first couple of days after the various aspirants for baseball honors commenced practicing their soreness took a large part of the enthusiasm out of them, but as they become hardened in the practicing increases and it is beginning to look serious for somebody.

The county club has not yet decided upon its team, although it is rather certain that Deputy District Attorney Al Moore and County Clerk Frank Jordan will be the county battery. Other members of the team will probably be County Recorder Charley Spear, Frank Mason, Cal Ewing, Jud Hannifin, Tom Crawford, Paul Schafer, the White boys, Steward Tobin of the Receiving Hospital and Charles Arnold. Expert Fred Davis may be induced to play but he does not look upon the proposition with favor.

The city team has already named its players. Detective Hodgkins and City Engineer Clement, who used to play with the old Greenhood and Morans, will make up the city battery.

City Attorney Dow, once the star first baseman of the University of California, will play his old position, and Harry Thomas, secretary of the Board of Public Works, will play second.

Billy Hennessey, who used to play with the Poor Man's Friends of West Oakland, will hold down third. Hennessey's old club was the only nine to defeat the invincible "fish gang" team in the early 80's.

At short the citys will have Charley Gardener, clerk of the Chief of Police, who filled that position on several clubs in Missouri.

The field will be chosen from the following players: Deputy City Clerk Holland, Chief Clerk of the Street Department Dick Ayer, Superintendent of Streets Miller, and Judge J. J. Allen.

Holland, however, may withdraw, as he has lost all interest in baseball since he commenced playing golf.

It has been definitely decided to play three games on the Alameda grounds, for charity. The date of the games has not yet been fixed. County Clerk Jordan is managing the county team and Secretary Harry Thomas is looking after the interests of the city players.

It has been decided to have Deputy Sheriff Sam Heller act as Mascot for the county nine, while Bailiff Sam Mitchell of the Police Court will fill that position for the city.

Chief of Police Lloyd will detail a platoon of police for the protection of the umpire, over whose selection there promises to be considerable trouble.

BASKET BALL.

Athens Team Wins Second Prize for Last Season's Work.

The League of '97 Committee of the Basket Ball Association met in San Francisco last night and decided to hold another series of games for the following year. A banquet was also held and the winners of last season's game were awarded medals. The first medal went to the Business Men's Team of San Francisco and the second to the Athens Team of Oakland.

Won by Webb.

The merchandise, gold and onyx medal at the handicap prize shoot of the Empire Gun Club last Sunday was won by A. J. Webb, who made 105 out of 110 birds. I. R. D. Grubb and W. N. Wetmore won second and third prizes. The shoot was held at the Alameda Point range.

The Hessemans Win.

The baseball game Sunday afternoon between the United States regulars and the Heesemans of this city at the Presidio grounds was witnessed by at least 500 people. The score of 10 to 6 was in favor of the Oaklanders, they making 6 runs in the first inning.

Defrauded Housewives.

T. Cunane, a peudler, has been arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses. Cunane's plan has been to exhibit a sample of good wheat which he would offer to sell for $1 a sack. Cunane generally received an order and would then deliver a sack of chaff to the purchaser. He was arrested by Officer Con Keefe and License Inspector Maloon.

PHOTOGRAPHING THE HARBOR

The Exchange Endorses the Newly Established Fruit Trade.

The directors of the Merchants' Exchange held a meeting last night. There were present Directors Arper, Brown, Cushing, Farwell, Sohst, Wixson, Reed, Schleuter, Champlin, and Coward.

A communication was received from Superintendent of Streets Miller with respect to the improvement of streets, showing that the perfection of thoroughfares could be accomplished at the rate of $5 per each twenty-five feet, and suggesting that the Board take steps to induce other civic organizations to encourage the remacadamizing and repaving of streets of the city.

The appointment of a committee was embodied in the motion, and the latter was continued until it should be ascertained on what streets the improvements should be made.

Another communication was received from the California Hotel Committee requesting the co-operation of the Exchange in the matter of encouraging the esthallishment of a bureau in New York City for the purpose of advertising the resources of California.

The reports of the various officers of the Exchange showed that the organization has 142 members, that the amount of money that had been paid out during the past month was $128.50, and the amount on hand $102.45.

Secretary Pearce said that he had made inquiry as regards the status of the project of the tunnel to Contra Costa County, and he had learned that the matter was in the hands of Edson Adams, and that Mr. Adams had said that he had instructed the secretary to call a meeting for to-morrow, (today), and that the meeting would be held.

President Arper said that the tax under the old road system would enable the building of the road.

Director Wixson did not think that it could.

President Arper thought that, under the old law, the Supervisors could levy a tax on all the property of the county.

IMPROVING STREETS.

Then came up the question of improving streets, one feature of which had been suggested by the reading of the communication from Superintendent of Streets Miller.

Director Wixson said that the cost of the outside affairs was as much as that of the repairs themselves. His proposition was to have the city pay the cost and go to work with one roller and charge it up to the city. He claimed that such a scheme would save the city half the expense.

Director Farwell said that he agreed with Director Wixson.

Director Brown wanted to know whether that could be done under the law.

Director Wixson suggested that it could and further that a committee be appointed to confer with regard to the project.

Mr. Brown said that it was important to know whether or not the work could be done on streets that had been accepted.

It was shown that streets had been accepted under protest. It was also shown that nothing had been done under the protest, in the way of improvement.

Director Brown then spoke upon the protests upon the right of way.

Mr. Brown suggested that a committee be appointed for the purpose of calling upon people and discussing with them the repairs of streets in various parts of the city. Money, he said, had been appropriated for Telegraph avenue repairs and the thoroughfare had never been accepted by the city.

Mr. Farwell brought up the matter of Eighth street and stated that there, there was an eighteen-foot sidewalk. He had put down a plank walk, but they had ordered that taken up. Now they had come along and wanted the street to be repaired. The street, he said, ought to be straightened out. It needed to be macadamized all the way along.

A man could not get on the bridge or off it on the east end without having to cross the car tracks. The street ought to be repaired, he repeated, but some of the people did not want to have it repaired. They ought to make a good street out of it. They would have to tear out six feet of the walk and put it into the stret if the work should be done as required.

A lady had direced his attention to the fact that the city had purchased a steam roller. She wanted to know what use it was to the city. It seemed that its principal use was enjoyed by contractors to whom it seems to have been rented for the rolling of contract work.

Mr. Wixon then brought up the subject of superintendents of public improvements. He said that when they were putting down a sidewalk on B street they had put a man in control as inspector, and that while the work was being done, that man went to the saloon and played pedro, and yet he was getting $4 a day as inspector. When they were putting down a croping there, the same was the case, and he thought he would test the work. He telephoned to the mill from which he was getting supplies to send him a load of three tons. The load made its appearance and ploughed right through the crossing. That was the result of having such an inspector of public improvements. He had seen men working in the sewers getting $1.50 a day and the inspector, who was looking at them, getting $4 a day. To do a $10 job in street improvements, the speaker said, cost $15.

The chair appointed as a committee in the premises Messrs. Wixson, Farwell, and Brown.

The other proposed committee to talk with people on streets which are about to be repaired will be appointed when it is determined what streets are to be repaired.

Mr. Champlin asked if it would not be better if all the streets were owned by the city, and Messrs. Wixson and Arper replied that that was the way to settle the difficulty.

Director Reed then brought up the subject of the repair of the Eighth street bridge, and the timber which had gone into the work. He said that forty-five per cent of the lumber that had gone into the work was number two lumber.

President Arper wanted to know how Mr. Reed knew that such was the case and Mr. Reed replied that he knew it from the original inspector of the lumber off the vessel. The city would not accept the lumber a few years ago, and yet in this case twenty-five per cent of the same stuff had been allowed to go unto the improvement. Mr. Reed stated that he had reported the matter to a person in authority so that the matter might be prevented, but there was nothing done in the case. It was the duty of the party to whom he had reported the affair to bring it before the Board. The inferior lumber had been accepted under an inspector in charge of the work.

Mr. Brown said that that bore out what everybody said that the people were always paying out someching and getting nothing for it.

L. Lanz, a member of the Exchange, said that he had put in a bid recently to furnish blue stone to the city, and that while he was the lowest bidder, no attention was paid to the bid, and furthermore, the contract was awarded to the City Electrician who had not put in a bid at all.

The secretary was instructed to look into the matter and report at the next meeting, Presiden Arper remarking that the City Electrician, who was already in the employ of the city, could not be awarded a contract under the law.

Director Sohst then spoke of the delay which had taken place in the building of the road to Contra Costa County. He said that the delay if charged to anybody should not be charged to the Merchants' Exchange, but to the Board of Trade.

The chair announced that Mr. Adams had already called a meeting.

Mr. Sohst then brought up the subject of having photographic views taken of the shipping in the harbor, for the purpose of showing up the importance of the shipping of this port.

Secretary Pearce was instructed to use his camera in the way indicated, with the understanding that the expense of the materials would be borne by the Exchange.

President Arper then spoke of the fruit enterprise which had recently been developed in a wonderful degree in this city, utilizing the harbor in a most practical manner, and stated that those engaged in it were worthy of the support of the people.

The meeting then adjourned.

WANT MORE READING ROOMS.

Annexed Residents Petition to Literature in Their District.

Estimated Expenses for the Library for the Coming Year.

The Board of Library Trustees held its regular monthly meeting last night, with Trustees Page, Hardy, Armes and Dr. Rabo present.

A petition was presented by residents of the annexed district requesting that a reading room be established in the vicinity of Telegraph avenue and Forty-fifth street. It was accompanied by 300 signatures.

Mr. Eggleston and Mr. Moore of Temescal introduced the petition to the Board. The former gentleman emphasized the need of a reading room to the 742 children of that district, and the men employed at the power house.

Dr. Rabe, while in favor of reading rooms, said in the course of his remarks: "Oakland, along present lines, will not be able to accumulate a library, because of the reading rooms. Had the $100,000 expended in reading rooms been used in the library, we would now have a very creditable collection of books."

The delegation manifested great earnestness in the matter, and promised that the rent for a suitable room would be paid for a whole year. The members of the Board expressed themselves in favor of the reading room, should the Council grant a sufficient appropriation for reading rooms in general.

Mr. Eggleston at the same time introduced himself as an available curator for the new reading room.

An agent for Purifine appeared before the Board; also a gentleman showing a new system of binding. All three matters were referred to the Reading Room Committee.

A petition was received from residents of East Oakland, requesting that the Monitor and Star be returned to the East Oakland reading room.

It was signed by A. E. Wilkinson, R. C. Cratt, E. J. Hanfel, C. O. Wentworth, Thomas Wheaton, J. E. Vincent, Wm. Baker, Wm. Collshen, D. F. Macy, J. F. Fonte, John Harrington, M. A. Melanis.

Mr. Harey of the Reading Room Committee, reported that the gas lights substituted for the arc lamps in one of the reading rooms is the cause of much satisfaction to patrons of that place.

The annual report of Librarian Peterson included the following items:

Volumes added by purchase during the year, 2,006; by donation, 179, number of volumes issued for home use, 149,270; number of visitors to the reference room, 25,219; number of volumes consulted in the reference room, 36,000; number of volumes rebound, 2,269; lost and paid for, 18, number repaired, 289; number discarded, 2,116, number of borrowers withdrawn, 138.

The inventory shows that there are 25,197 bound volumes and 297 unbound volumes in the Public Library.

The financial statement is as follows:

Receipts—Money received from taxes, $17,711.17; from fines, $301.65; total, $18,-013.12.

Expenditures—Library, $10,208.19; Central, $2,501.40; East Oakland, $1,314.55; North Oakland, $1,045 55; West Oakland, $1,386.70; Twenty-third avenue, $1,309.82; total, $17,856.01; balance, $1,517.31.

The librarian's report was unanimously accepted.

The Reading Room Committee was authorized to make the necessary repairs and cleaning in the North and West Oakland reading rooms.

Mrs. Requa of the Twenty-third avenue reading room was granted three months' additional leave of absence.

A few changes were made in the estimates for the ensuing year. The sum for binding was changed from $2,000 to $1,500. Other changes made the total for the library, including the reading rooms, about $23,000 instead of $21,858, as originally estimated.

For two new reading rooms in the annexed district $2,000 was added.

The Board then adjourned.

Wants a Divorce.

Mrs. J. C. Stewart has decided not to prosecute her husband, a Southern Pacific carpenter, whom she had arrested the other evening for disturbing her peace.

Stewart returned home from a trip of several months and found his wife entertaining a man named Fallmon, to whom Stewart very much objects. The irate husband turned his wife and her visitor from the house, whereupon Mrs. Stewart caused her husband's arrest. At the City Prison Stewart put up $25 bail, but upon regaining his home, he found that Mrs. Stewart and their child had fled.

It is understood that the husband, through his attorney, F. F. Garrity, will sue for a divorce. Mrs. Stewart is at present staying with a Mrs. Ball.
